Is like a good friend. It will not disappoint you when called upon for real service. You know a good friend by trying him. In the same way you can test a shoe. But the trouble is, when you have tried a shoe you must keep it—good or not. You will not complain about keeping our shoes. We know they are reliable when we sell them.

Signs of the Times.—"There is one satisfaction in warm weather" remarked a farmer on Saturday, "and that is, while we experienced a remarkably hot summer, all the indications point to a very severe winter. All the signs point that way. The chestnut tree is a very good prophesier of the winter we are going to have. When the burns are very hard and large it is a never failing sign. They are very large and hard just now. The ants are also very bray large gians for a severe winter. when we sell them.

DIED.—After a long and paintul illness Mrs. Houghton, Adelaide st., widow of the late Franklin Houghton, passed away on Saturday, Sept. 26. The deceased was one of Lindsay's best known and most respected women, her family being one of the most prominent ones in town. Many and pleasant will be the memories of a large host of friends and acquaintances of the late Mrs. Houghton. and acquaintances of the late Mrs. Honghton. In this bereavement the family suffer a double affliction, not long ago a beloved sister being taken home. The remaining children, two daughters and three sons have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES, - "There is one satisalso very busy laying plans for a severe winter and constructing their winter houses very deep in the ground. I take a good deal of stock in this sign for after a careful observation of 40 years they have never failed to indicate the weather. Other signs may fail, but the chestnut trees and the ants are seldom, if ever, wrong, and they are unanimous for a RUNAWAY. - An exciting event occured McRUNAWAY. — An exciting event occured Monday night when one of Gunigal's livery horses becoming frightened by the breaking of a bridle made a furious dash down Kent at. Two young fellows named Buckley and Sheridan were the occupants of the rig. When opposite the post office Buckley made a safe but rather ungraceful exit over the back of the buggy. Sheridan kept a tenacious hold of the lines until pitched out on Rideau st. Meanwhile quite a crowd had assembled at Britton's corner surmising on the fate of the Britton's corner surmising on the fate of the runaway when a roar and rattle coming up William st. denoted the wanderer's return.

The crowd vanished and the runaway safely turning the corner tore up Kent at and then dashed into his own livery, bringing back the buggy uninjured and none the worse himself. Beyond a bad shaking up Sheridan escaped injury.

WALKING ON THEIR WEDDING TOUR -The Campbellford Gazette contains the following which will interest many who are following which will interest many who are acquainted with the groom:—On Tuesday eyening last a rather romantic marriage was selemnized in Campbellford. A young man and young woman Francis J. Whelan and Elizabeth L. Eaton, all of Peterborough, on that evening struck town strapped, they had not a copper. Their desirs was to get married, and the young man made several fruitless attempts to sell a good silver watch worth $10 for $2,50 to raise some money. He tempted Loaded Shot Shells, Cartridge and Cartridge Cases.

The city authorities have ascertained that from that date the entire expense of the city for the future can be berne by the income which will be received from millions of the west and thus possesses position of unparalled advantage.

FAREWELL .- A pleasing event took place at the residence of Mr. D. J. McIntyre on Monday night, when St. Andrew's church choir bade farewell to their leader Mr. P. Morris. Mr. Morris, although he has only been here but such a short time, a little over a year, has succeeded in making for himself a host of friends, not only in St. Andrew's congregation but throughout the town. He leaves shortly for Brantford, where he has secured a responsible position as musical director in the institution for the blind. During the evening Mr. Morris was the recipient of a handsome black clock. May the hours that it ticks off be pleasant ones and full of prosperity for its

MRS. H. OLIVER, we regret to say passed away on Wednesday evening last after a short but severe illness. She was only confined to bed a few days when death ended her career. FINE LIVERY.-Mr. Albert Jewett, Lindsay's well known and obliging livery man, has had a new brick stable erected on his premises, and all his buildings overhauled, cleaned, repaired and fitted up in the most modern, equipped style. The new building can contain 30 horses and vechicles. Altogether Mr. Jewett has accommodation for 60 horses and vechicles, and parties leaving animals and rigs at the stable together with parcels, wraps etc., may rest assured that the best care will be taken of them. Besides double stalls there are half a dozen loose stalls, which are very convenient for farmers.
