FENELON FALLS.

ABOUT a week ago Mr. Davis Horton. who had been busy at his duties as cook for the men working on the Trent Valley cana extension, was taken ill at Victoria Road He went to Kirkfield to consult Dr. Wood and remained there in orde: to secure better attendance. In spite of the usmost efforts of Drs. Wood and Mo-Ksy of Woodville, the unfortunate young man rapidly became worse, and expired on Friday afternoon. The tody was brought to the Falls, on Saturday, and was followed to its last resting place by a large number of friends on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Horton was a warm hearted young man and great sympathy is felt for his aged mother in her great loss, par ticniary as she has herself been ili for s great length of time.

On Tuesday evening a basket social was held at the residence of Mr. William Sanderson, in aid of the presbyterian church, which was an unqual find success. The attendance was large, the proceeds disto, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Last Tuesday afternoon, about fifteen minutes after 1 o'clock, Lachlan McGoun was the victim of a sad and fatal accident. He had the contract for the painting in connection with the building of the west ward academy, and was rapidly pushing the work through. On the day of his sad death he had gone to work a little ahead of time, none of the workmen having yet arrived when he got there. He went to the upper portion of the building and procoeded to clear away the scaffold reaching up in the western gable. As he did so one of the braces gave way and he was unable to hold it. It went crashing down and in its flight struck the supporting pole of the scaffold on which he was standing, breaking it in two, and down came the heavy timbers, Mr. McGown and all, falling a distance of about thirty feet. Two young men, Mr. James Henry and Bert Lane, and a little girl, saw the accident. The workmen heard the crash, and going out found him lying, face downward, on one of the boards. He was tenderly picked up, and a rig conveyed him to his home, where Dr. Leonard examined his injuries, and found that several ribs, his wrist and ankle were broken. Although restoratives were immediately administered the poor man never regained concelousness, and died in about half an hour. In the meantime a telegram had been despatched to recall his wife, in Toronto, stating that he had met with an accident.

He was an old soldier and an orangeman, besides being an honorary member ot the sons of Scotland. In the fenian both services will be in aid of the church | raid of 1861 he was a member of the foot artillery nader Capt. About thirty years ago he moved to Napanee, and since that time has been one of our universally respected citizens, unswervingly honest and with a tender regard for from the reluctant grasp of the license the welfare and feelings of others. A Weary Wait.

OUR LAST PLEBISCITE. It has been a weary wait but the fruit of it is ripening tast. Nothing but a dishonor that we will not for a moment consider possible can snatch it from our grasp.

"Are you in favor of the immediate prohibition, by law, of the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating iquors as a beverage?" shouted the Ontario government into the people's telephone-the ballot box. Back came a thunderous chorus of "We are."

"But what if you are ?" says the liquor dealer; "possession is nine-tenths of the law." Not if an honorable government pledged to oust you, should their sup porters give permission, be in power.

In the government bill that accompanied the plebiscite act the legislature end: "Electors, in voting 'Yes' on this question will be considered as expressing an opinion in favor of prohibition to the extent to which the legislature of this province, or the perliament of Canada has jurisdiction, as may be determined by the court of final resort.'

Sir Oliver and his cabinet, on the 6th of February, 1894, with the people's line, and pencil of light on this cause of decision before them, reiterated their the home. It courts investigation. It previous promise, and explicitly stated should the decision of the privy council be that the province has jurisdiction to pass only a partial prohibitory bill, such a prohibitory bill as the decision would warrant shall be introduced, unless the partial prohibitory power is so limited as to be ineffective from a temperance standpoint "

The privy council decision has come. and the latest kno: in the noose that is dropping over the head of the doomed Canadian liquor traffic has just been added by premier Hardy, in reply to the tem perance deputation of July 16. "Here them; and the decision of the court of last resort," said the deputation. "Are you the government that made those pledges?' "We are the same government; we will take no backward step" was the reply.

SOME OF OUR DEMANDS What then have we a right to expect. That the partial prohibitory legislation, that is beyond dispute within the gift of the government, shall be enasted this winter.

Now look at the other aspirant for the people's favor. "But every one that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." Turn on the X rays of public thought; converge every has nothing to hide. In a few reeks it will be crying aloud from the paupits and platforms of this land; coming out in the public prints over an honest signature; fighting its own battles right manfully and from the shoulder.

What shall be our share in the campaign? There are the local tire, the county spokes and the provincial hub. It the white ribbon wheel is to move effectively every part must contribute its quota of faithful work. Said a recent correspondent, "There are at least six places in our county where there might be unions and are the promises; the people's response to are none." Should I pass on that item of information to the county president she would in all probability respond: "Though the provincial pays the expenses for organizing new unions, it does not and cannot supply the means for the necessary preparation of the ground. The county treasurer is glad if at the end of the year, after paying present orligations, she has a few dollars to the good. How can this additional burden be borne?"

Work of Reorganization.

At the first meeting of the executive of the newly formed provincial liberal-conservative association, held at the Queen's hotel, Toronto, last Friday. Nov. 13th, there were present :-

Hon John Haggart, Hon. Senator Sanford, Robert Henry MP, Alex Mc. MP, Major Thos Brancie, MP, Ed Cochrane MP. John A McGillivray, MP, A F McLaren, MP, W H Bennett, MP, O Klospfer, MP, E F Clark, MP, E B Osler, MP, J P Whitney, QO, MLA, G F Marter, MLA, Dr. Willoughby, MLA, Dr Ryerson, MLA, Lt. Col. Matheson, MLA, O A Howland, MLA, W D Mo-Pherson, Wm Laidlaw, QC, Capt James Thompson, J F Rittingen, (Walkerton), A F Campbell, (Bampton), J N Shape, (Dreaden) and A W Wright, (Niagara),

Hon. Mr. Heggart presided, and Mr. Robt. Birmingham acted as secretary. Hon. Dr. Mostegue, who had come to town to attend the meeting, left for home in the morning in response to a telegraphic message informing him of the serious illness of his wife.

The business transacted was of a practical character, the executive attempting to carry out the instructions of the recent conference looking towards the organization of the party in the 20 districts into which the provides has been divided. Rules and regulations for the running of those districts were drawn up, and methods for strengthening the Ontario opposition's hands in the next provincial contest were discussed.

A Happy Moment.

Mr. Laurier has come into power at a very happy moment. After years of "hard times," a sudden change has taken place, and we are on the eve of "good times." Wheat has bounded upwards; a gold mining fever has set in; the demand for lumber in the States will assuredly rapidly increase; the conditions in Britain are unusually favorable; capital in the States that has been hoarded for many months will now come into circulation; the American population has inlation; the American population has increased beyond the existing means for housing them, and more houses must be built; the figs notal depression is passing away, and the sun of prosperity is just breaking forth from the clouds which for a long period have dimned the brilliancy of its rays. And just at this moment

Any thinking man, who gives the mattes the slightest con ideration, will perceive the atter folly of supposing that Mr. Laurier being in power as had any influence in improving the position, but the masses at the people do not think, and the, will simply put these two things to-gether:—1 Mr Laurier in power, 2 Improved conditions; - and the connection will become so established in their minds Mr. Laurier will get the benefit of the connection Laurier and "good times" will be associated Not even Heaven inspired eta:esmanship, nor super, human political ability, could give Mr. Laurier's government such strength and popularity as the association of Laurier's name with "good times" will bring to the present government. Mr. Laurier should bless the chance which had placed him in power at the present " appy moment." Bottons geor Independent.
