These are Lively Times in Our Mantle & Millinery Depts.

Just opened this week another lot of fine Beaver Mantles in black and brown, good value at $7.50, but they are going like hot cakes at $5 each. Our Midi nery department is full of new and fashionable Millinery novelties. Our Milliper is prepared to suit the most fastidious, and our prices are in keeping with the rest of our stock, the lowest in the trade.

These are Lively Times in Our Clothing Department.

Men's Suits, Men's Ulsters, Boys' Clothing of all kinds, are going out with a rush. The reason is easily explained. We never had so large an assortment; never had such extraordinary values. Take a look through our stock before buying; you are sure to be interested.

These are Lively Times in Our Dress Goods Department.

Our stock embraces all the latest novelties, all the newest colorings in Dress materials. Our assortment is unusually large; our values are exceptional, Good, useful and serviceable Dress Goods from 10c. per yard. A grand range of Tweed Costume Cloths from 20c. per yard up. Black Dress Goods one of our specialties. See them.

These are Lively Times in Our Carpet Department.

Is it any wonder when we are selling good Hemp Carpets for 10c. per yard. Reversible Hemp at 20c. Good Heavy Unions at 30c. to 50c. New Pattern Tapestry at 25c., 40c and 50c. Brussels Borders worth $1 for 50c. Brussels Stair at 65c. worth $1.10. These are facts and figures which speak loudly by large sales every day. Floor Oil Cloths, choice patterns, at 25c. per yd.

These are Lively Times in Our Staple Department.

Shakers are selling, Flannels are selling, Blankets are selling, Tablings are selling, Lace Curtains are selling. These goods would not be going out in such quantities if prices and qualities were not right. Keen, close and careful buyers are with us all the time. If you want to get the best value for your money in the County come where there is always a crowd, and do your Fall and Winter trading at Toronto Saturday Night has always issued Christmas number ittle heralded by the press, advertised only by its merits, and acceptable to everyone because of its welltold stories and prettily made pictures. For several years it used English. French and German supplements, but for the past two years it has excelled al previous attempts by issuing immense reproductions of bistorical paintings, original and Caradian.

This year the battle o' Queenston Heights is the subject, a p cture nearly three feet long by over two feet wide. painted by a Canadian artist and reproduced by Canadian proce in fourteen colors. The surroundings of the battle are the mountain up which our volunteers endeavored to climb, the historic gorge of Niegare, the bine distances which attetch through New York State, and the mists which rise from the whirl of the rapids. In the fore ground Goverel Brock is dying. supported by the arms of his lieutenants. The regulars are charging past him, the Indians are skirmishing through the rocks and trees to the right, and Canada's hero, with his sword aloft, cries out "Pash on, York volunteers." The picture excites that strange emotion which contains so much of patrictism that one scarcely knows whether to choke up with the coming tears or to shout

The story of the war is written by George Taylor Denison in so vivid a style that one can almost hear the musketry and the shouting of the charging brigades.
