BRITISH COLUMBIA YEAR-BOOK .- Owing to the increasing attention being directed to British Columbia and the rapidly growing interest in its mineral and other resources, it has been decided to issue a year-book, now under preparation, which shall contain in a concise form, and as far as possible accurately, everything pertaining to its history, politics, trade industry, large social conditions. concise form, and as far as possible accurately, everything pertaining to its history, politics, trade, industry, laws, social conditions, etc., which is likely to be of interest to those desirous of being informed concerning the province. The author, as librarian of the legislative assembly, and secretary of the bureau of statistics, has exceptional facilities at hand for undertaking such work. It will statistically, politically and historically, be full of information relating to men and events of the province. It will sim to furnish a useful, though not complete, list of the flora and fauna of the province, and much other information in a similar form. Special chapters, containing the very latest and fullest information, will be devoted to mining, agriculture, timber, fisheries, and the laws relating to the same. The year-book will be of ordinary octave size, containing between 300 and 400 pages of closely printed matter, and a number of suitable illustrations. E. E. GOSNELL, author and publisher.

another success to her long list on Tuesday night. Our own bandmaster Mr A Brown, night. Our own bandmaster Mr A Brown, was given a tremendous ovation when he appeared, and his cornet solo did not disappoint his numerous admirers. Fow towns are blessed with such a musician as Mr Brown, and on Tuesday night Lindsay was proud of him. Mr P. Dinsen, a member of the band scored in a very sweet piccolo solo and had to reappear in an encore. The comic singer, Mr. Piggot, perhaps did not know what kind of an audience he had to sing before or no doubt he would never have given the selections he did. He showed neither talent nor taste. Pipe Mej re Molwayed, between parts I and II. desighted the hearts of all true Scotchmen with the pipes and needless to say got his full chare of applance. In the morning Mr. Duncan preached from Math 26 and 28, to a crowded church. The attendance at the subsequent services showed clearly how the sermon was appreciated. In the afternoon Mr. D based his remarks on the "History of Joseph," dividing it into three scenes. Joseph as the beloved son, Joseph as the slave. and Joseph se the prime minister, emphasizing particularly his steady trust in God, and unwaving cheerfulness of disposition through all his difficulties. He was able to stand alone, and yet not alone, as God was with him. of the notions which civilized people indulge in.
One worn out superstition is the belief that if a man inherits weak lungs from his parents he is pretty sure to die of consumption. The actual fact is that if such a man will only take proper care of himself he will really be safer from consumption than a careless person who has no inherited weakness. Carelessness is the real evil eye. Carelessness will develop a tendency to consumption in any body.

The lungs are composed of very delicate, sensitive tissue, even in the healthiest person; that is why they yield so quickly to the attack of tainted blood. If the blood is allowed to get impure and impoverished, and bile-poisoned, the seeds of consumption will spring up in the best kind of a constitution. The real consumption-taint is in the blood.

Hundreds of cases of so-called "hereditary" consumption have been completely and permanently rooted out of the system by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, simply because it gives the blood-making glands power to pour a fresh abundant supply of rich, red, healthy, blood into the circulation. This drives out all poisonous and unhealthy germs. It stops the waste of tissue and the formation of morbid deposits; builds up fresh, normal, healthy lung tissue and solid, muscular strength.

In all the weakened debilitated conditions which are the forerunners of consumption,
