AN IMPORTANT SECRET -It is generally conceded that the handsomest advertising pamphlets issued by any proprietary medicine house in Canada, come from the office of the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Oat, and one which has incorrected us is no and one which has just reached us is no exception to the rule. The cover is printed in colors, the main feature being a reproduction of painting from the brush of a famous German artist, entitled "An important secret." The pamphlet contains calendars for 1897 and 1898, together with a mine of information as to the curative qualities of Dr. Williams' pluk pills for pale people. This handsome pamphlet will be sent post paid to any cf our readers who write their address on a post card and mail it to the Dr. William's Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
