FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1897. Smile Whenever You Can.

When things don't go to suit you. And the world seems upside down; Don't waste your time in factting, But drive ayay that frown;

Since life is oft perplexing,
'Tis much the wisest plan,
To bear all trials bravely,
And smile when'er you can. Why should you dread the morrow, And thus despoil to-day? For when you borrow trouble You always have to pay. is a good old maxim, Which should be ofton preached—

Don't cross the bridge before you Until the bridge is reached. You might be spared much sighing
If you would keep in mind
The thought that good and evil
Are always here combined. There must be something wanting
And though you roll in wealth,
You may miss from your casket,
That priceless jewel—health.

Under the provisions of the latest change the made in the assessment act the tax collector may become the landlord of properties in town all the elements necessary to give new on which taxes are not paid within the legal time. Formerly the law was to seize on the landlord's goods and after that distrain en the tenant's effects. But the later was seldom done, as it was manifestly upjust to do so. Now, however, if the tenant fails to pay over the rent to the tax collector or when ordered to do so, the collector may and will probably distrain. The effect of the amendment, in short, is to make the tax collector a collector of rent from the tenant until the taxes are paid. The result is the same to the town and the landlord is saved the cost of legal process,

The post office department calls attention to the fact that the rules now permit the return to the senders direct, without being forwarded to the dead letter branch and without charge except as noted below, of letters which fail of delivery to the address, provided they bear upon the face or back the name and address of the sender. Request letters are returned at the end of the period specified, and letters Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, and all with the name and address only at the end of two weeks. Ludlow, 334 Colborne Street, Brantford, Ont., says: During seven years prior to 1886, my wife was sick all the time with violent headaches. Her head was so hot that it felt like burning up. She was weak, run down, and so feeble that she could hardly do anything, and so nervous that the least noise startled her. Night or day she could not rest and life was a misery to her. I tried all kinds of medicines and treatment for her but she steadily grew worse until I bought six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters from C. Stork & Son, of Brampton, Ont., for which I paid $5.00, and it was the best investment I ever made in my life. Mrs. Ludlow took four out of the six bottlesthere was no need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every ail-ment from which she had suffered, and she enjoyed the most vigorous health. That five dollars saved me lots of money in medicine and attendance thereafter, and better than that it made home a

W. G. WOODS,

Dran Sir.—I have much pleasure in stating that the Gurney Oxford Hot Water System which yet set up in my house in the autumn of 1894 was fully what you represented it to be, and gave entire satisfaction. There was no dust, no smoke, no gas, no leakage, and the air seemed pleasant and agreeable to breathe, so that no one had a cough in my house during the entire winter. Notwithstanding the severity of last winter our house was so comfortable that we had to go outside to find if the day was cold, while the quantity of coal consumed was only a little more than we had burned in former winters in one large coal ateve with less rooms to be heated. The Furnace was easily managed, and with ordicary care the temperature of the house could be kept at any degree desired. I can heatily recommend this system of heating to any one who during our Canadian winter desires to enjoy what I can best describe as "Solid Cemfort," (Sgd). THOS. W. POOLE, M.D., Lindsay. this winter.
