When is a Dog Taxable !—No one will say that the annual dog tax returns furnish any kind of an accurate estimate of the canine population of any municipality. Some people say that this is accounted for because a dog is not taxable until a certain age. No one believes this and only those say so whe have two or three dogs that they are ready to take oath are pups. The Municipal World discusses the question "At what age is a dog taxable!" and says "The statutes do not fix any minimum age unless there is a by-law of the municipality exempting dogs under a certain age from assessment,"

WEDDING BELLS.—A pretty wedding took place at the baptist church, Cambridge street, on Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Margaret Maud Whiteside, only daughter of the late Jacob L. Whiteside, barrister, and Mrs. Harriet G. Whiteside of this town, was united in marriage with Mr. Albert E Matthews, son in marriage with Mr. Albert E. Matthews, son of Mr. George Matthews, and assistant manager of the Ottawa branch of the Geo. Matthews Co. The church was handsomely decorated with palms, ferns and flowers, which combined had a beautiful effect. The contracting parties during the ceremony stood under an evergreen arch, from which was suspended the typical marriage bell of beautiful white flowers. The bride entered the church leaning the care of her uncle R. F. Whiteside of typical marriage bell of beautiful white flowers. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her uncle, R. F. Whiteside of Little Britain, attired in a dress of white satin, with pearl trimmings, bridal veil, with orange blossoms, carrying a boquet of white roses. The bridesmaids Miss Ruby Whiteside of Toronto, cousin of the bride, and Miss Isabel Matthews, sister of the groom, were dressed in white and pink, with white hats, roses etc. The maids of honor were Miss Gertrude Vrooman of Lindsay, and Miss Lina Whiteside of Little Britain, cousins of the bride, who looked very pretty in white dresses with pink bows. The groomsmen were Lieut. Joseph Matthews, brother of the groom, and Mr. James Peel, Lindsay; Mr. A. Horn and A. A. Kennedy being ushers. The ceremony was performed by Kev. L. S. Hughson, B. D., pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Prof. Wolverton of Texas, brother in-law of the groom. The list of invited guests was large, Ottawa, Toronto, Peterborough and Little Britain, being some of the outside places represented. The ceremony at the church was followed by a reception and dejenuer at the residence of the bride's mother, where Mr. and Mrs. Matthews left on the 6 15 train for their honeymoon trip, which will include New York and Boston. After their return they will reside in Ottawa.
