There is no joy in this world equal to the happiness of motherhood. A woman's health is her dearest possession. Good looks, good times, happiness, love and its continuance, desired on how hereby depend on her health. Almost all of the sickness of women is traceable directly or indirectly to some derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Troubles of this kind are often neglected because a very natural and proper modesty keeps women away from physicians, whose insistence upon examination and local treatment is generally as useless as it is common. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do more for them than 99 doctors in 100. It will do more than the for damages. hundredth doctor can unless he prescribes it. It is a prescription of Dr. R. V. Pierce, who for 30 years has been chief consulting physician of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' hotel,

MR. JAMES LYTLE, one of our best citizens, moved from here last week to the queen city. He will be missed. As a neighbor, Mr. Lytle could not be excelled and was always ready and willing to give a helping hand to anything that was got up for a good cause, and his estimable wife was nothing less in any respect than himself. THE many friends of Mr. John Ray in this part were very much impressed when word reached them of his death, although it was expected. Seven years ago this winter he labored here in arevival service with the best of success, and made many warm friends. He will remain in the memories of many of the people in this part. The funeral on Sunday the 19th, was one of the largest Victoria county ever saw, showing the respect in which he was held. The Rev. Mr. Pope conducted the funeral service, taking for his fext the latter part of the 10th verse of the 23rd chapter Numbers, and made a few excellent and very impressive remarks, showing how people ought to live, as death was certain to every person; also showing how the deceased had lived and that he had lived the life of a Christian, and his last end was peace.

Certain families are dying out, and the use of alcohal in the ancesters precipitates death and extinction. Other families have reached a level from which they can not ascend and from slight causes deteriorate. Moderate drinking or intemperance of any form sends them down. The union of two families on the descending scale is certain to be followed by degenerates, both physical and mental. The children of inebriates are always of an exhausted race, rushing down to extinction. Marriage with a robust race ascending in the scale of evolution and growth may halt this decline, and in the next gener atlon bring them back to a level from which ascent may begin again. Marriage with a race always declining is often followed by great fecundation or barrenness. In one case a numerous family follows, as if nature were making a supreme effort to keep alive the family by multiplying the numbers. In the other case the births are few and of low vitality dying out early. These 60 to 80 per cent of all inebriates are the dying remnants of families and races. They have long ago passed the levels of growth and developement and are on the down track to disselution and extinction. The parents by alcoholic polsoning have lowered the race stock of vitality, beyond the power of ascent or possibility to rise above and overcome this downward tendency. Such parents not only destroy themselves, but cut off the race from which they sprung. It is ceptions, fortunate marriages, surroundings and conditions of living have checked the dissolution and started the race back

The Victoria "Colonist," of Aug. 25, relates the following ; "Two years' imprisonment for a dank of beer seems at first sight somewhat disproportionate. and perhaps Joseph Williams thinks it is. But then Joseph took more than a drink, and took it without going through the necessary, but sometimes inconvenient, formula of asking permission or offering to make payment for the liquid refreshment. Such a proceeding, of course, is highly reprehensible, and Mr. Justice Drake so considered it, especially as Williams was also guilty of enticing a younger boy than himself into wrong doing. The fact that this second victim of the lrw's strong arm is not yet out of juvenile knickerbockers, and that he was evidently seduced into wrong-doing by his older esmpanion, enabled him to escape with a year's imprisonmen, and it is to be hoped that while in durance vile, these youthful breakers of the eigth commandment will learn that it is better to go athrist than to jeopardise their liberty by drinking
