Maine Relapsing into Heathenism

The Lowiston (Me.) Journal finds as the result of an elaborate investigation that one-third of the churches in Mains are closed on account of lack of support, and that one half the people of the State are non church goers. The returns show that out of 1,320 churches in the State 417 are vacant. Out of the vast collection of excuses it is found that spite and personal differences are foundation for much of the absentesian. The following figures show how the various denominations are afshow how the various denominations are affected: Congregational, 150 with pastors, 70 vacancies: Raptists, 121 with pastors, and 80 vacancies: Free Baptist, 150 with pastors, 81 vacancies: Methodist 279, vacancies 38; Universalists 35, vacancies 50; Quakers, 8 churches open, 4 closed; Episcopalian 20 open a closed; Catholic, 48 open and 8 closed; Christian, 48 open, 12 closed; Advent, 15 open, 14 closed; Unitarian, 15 open, 2 closed; Basides this there are only 1 Lutheran, 1 Free Church, 1 Christ's Path, 2 Jewish Synagomes, 2 Christ's Disciples, 3 Freehyterian, 1 New Jerusalom Church, atcl. 2 Shaker's Churches open.

Mr. McLaughlin makes theology his pro-

Our contemporary gives credence to a yarn about "ex-priest Widdowes" having got into trouble by insulting a girl in the old country. How surprisingly ready some are ever to publish slanders against anyone who exposes the dark, terrible side of romish priestoraft. Now, no one has any definite information concerning tried on Chiniquy and others, a romish plot. It is the easiest thing in the world to get a girl to attempt to lead a man into a trap, and then scream "insulted virtue, Though there have been several cases in recent years where roman catholic priests as well as protestant clergymen have got into criminal trouble with women, cases which have been proven in court, yet THE WARDER has never descended hurt the feelings of the adherents of the churches to which the culprits belonged by referring to the stories. Only last summer a shocking case was exposed in summer a shocking case was exposed in Quebec against a priest, but though The Warder condemns those fellows when they try to bulldoze or cajole people in politics, it did not gloat over the unfortunate man's fall. Strange, too, how every proselyte to romanism is extolled, while no encouragement is given to proselytes from romanism.
