issue without making use of harsh terms. As an adherent of the Kirk in Eldon, and as one proud of the devoted and faithful attachment of his ancestors for centuries to the grand Old Kirk of Scotland, I must protest against the cowardly and unmerited attack upon Rev. Mr. Gillis contained in the last letter in question in your last issue. The attack is a more monstrous piece of impudence, gratuitous insuit and low meddling than has yet come from the pen of Old Kirk, alias Swipes, alias Justice, scribbling "malice, hatred, envy, and all uncharitableness," as he has been ad nauseam for the past 30 years. What a beautiful exhibition of christian character that writer displays! Old Kirk, forsooth! without belonging to it, yet daring to meddle with its affairs and the fair fame of one of its best and kindest pastors; lecturing him and otners about honesty, charity and godliness, hypocriey, and foul treachery, and himself for a lifetime sneering with the ancer, but without the heart of a Tom Payne, at the good Book which contains all that is held down for the scribbling of this man or many aliases too well not to be able to detect that "as enemy hath done this," or his character too well not to resent the insult that his interference implies. They have too much of the good old Highland spirit yet alive not to rally avound their former pastor against foul insult, or his loved ones who must share the pain of it. Let the man of many aliases come of the Claus" at the Old
