Outrease,—We lest and to chronicle the death of Mr. lease Walker, who has been very low with consumption stace last December. Mr. W— was a young man just in the bloom of manhood when esteed with that fatal disease. He was highly respected by all who knew him. Our esteemed riend aucomed on Monday, May Seth, and was interred in St. Peter's church yard May Seth. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Daan of Fencien Falls, who addressed the andlenes very effectively on the uncertainty of our lives. Mr. Jas. Billete ably presided at the organ and rendered.

A DESCRIPTION THE STORM PASSED OVER this township on Wednesday the fith instructing all nature glad with retreshment. Some small quantity of hail fell which some to have increased as it reached the next township of Cardiff, where some large increased ice fell driving the potato planters under their wagon for shelter. The lightning was fearful to behold and of a dangerous streaky nature, specially in the Wilberforce estitument, where it was seen to strike a large olm tree back of was seen to strike a large olm tree back of the school house stringing it from top to bottom, setting fire to an old dry tall was seen to strike a large oim tree back of the school house etripping it from top to nottom, setting fire to an old dry tall stump, and then shooting out in a south easterly direction, smote the flue new residence of Henry Conkeil Esq., entering the top light of the south west windows, amasting the sill below off the easing and sheeting inside, daried through the open doorway crossed the staircase hall into the parlor, struck the windows in that room looking north, fore the easing off, also the sheeting forcing out that end of the house considerably, swept up between the inner and outer cheeting, entered the bed room flat; tore the parlithou to pieces, shot into the back kitchen and away. And most strange was the escape of the inmates Mrs. Conkell who was just passing down the steps into the cellar, where she was ultimately found by her friends Mr. Conkell, who was struck, was knocked senseless and fell into the cellar, where she was ultimately found by her friends Mr. Conkell, who was attuck, was knocked senseless and fell into the cellar, where she was ultimately found by her friends Mr. Conkell, who was attuck on the couch; The hitestiff of the stroke of the descript outrent is believed to here passed within three feet of him, and he was found by his daughter-inlaw senseless on the couch. The hitestiff of the shock on the top of her head very slightly. The little boy Arty, who was sitting on a table in the back shed was lifted off and dropped in the middle of the floor. The little fellow complained of pain in his arm for some time after, the ingere on that hand were left bluich black, but were eventually restored to their normal condition. It seems also, a remarkable thing the house was not free, a strong sulphurous smoke having in all the room through the house for some time after. We are very glad to be abla to state the family is petting over the chock pretty well. A very situary impression seems to be left on the neighborhood where there is an ell round feeling. There was but a step between them and dea probably go for reciprocity.

Crors.—The crops in this section are promising a bountiful harvest, with the exception of hay, which will be a light crop, owing to the recent hard treets and dry weather.

Lost.—Mr. Thomas Lione lost a value able horse a short time ago; dropped dead while ploughing in the field. It is supposed heart disease was the sause....
Also a number of colts died in this vicioity this spring.

MR. D. N. Smith housed up his large frame barn last week, 40290 feet. He will put stone stabling underneath the entire building. We congratulate D. N.

on his enterprise. PULFIF.-Rev. Mr. McRinnon, the new pastor of St. Andrew's church here, has begun his ministerial work with good success. Already he has organized Sunday schools and Bible classes in the Sunday schools and Bible classes in the congregation. We hope his Christian labor may prove a blessing to the congregation and the community at large, Rev. Mr. Cillis returned home last week from Mosa, where he will remain with his family for a short time.

[We welcome "Manse Grove" again. This is the first we have heard from there for a long time though our greateless.

Awnings. Bobeaugeon is again proving itself a place that never gets behind the times. Mr. J. T. Robinson and Mr. tr. McCamus, have both secured awnings from J. Turner, of Peterboro, and these two, with one Mr. Kilmer put up a year ago, set a good example to the rest of the village.

CAPTURE A drove of cattle and young CATTLE.—A drove of eattle and young colts went up the Fencion road on Tuesday. It is evident the farmers are taking advantage of the pastures being rented.

CANOR CLUR.—The first races of the season were held on Monday, and were well attended. The interest in sailing skiffs has died out, but the number of canoes has almost doubled. Five canoes has almost doubled. friend 7—on his prosperity; also on the choice of his life partner. We extend the hand of friendship to our friends, as they have started firming here. We wish them every success.

Business.—We understand that Mr. James Hillett, and Mr. Thomas Walker, have each procured a new steel binder, and are preparing for a bountiful harvest. As they are the first binders introduced into this locality, we expect that ere long that more of the farmers may be supplied.

Washing sheep has been the order of the day, and Jack says the water has been very cold.

44 minutes, Dawn.—This trig little steamer passed through on her way to Fenelon Falls on Thursday, with iron for the new bridge being built there. She same through the new locks and canals at Burleigh and Buckham from Lakefield.

Pionto.—The English church Sunday school propose baving a pionic and exercise to Pleasant Point on the 21st, and a kin time is expected.

and a big time is expected.

Storwarms.—A petition was brought into the council by Mr. Carlick, asking that the gravel sidewalks put in by the council this year be repliced with plank ones, but the petition was refused by the Unerse Factory. - The choose factory, on account of increased patronage, re-ceived a new and larger press last week. Little Bon.—Through some misunderstanding on the part of the sawyer and other men working on the carriage, a log was gently but foreibly sent through the side of the mill, alighting in the river
