LIFFORD. Special to The Warbler. On Wednesday, the 20th inst., Mr. Thos. Brown, one of our most respected and highly esteemed young men was united by marriage, to Miss Mary Williamson, third daughter of M. J. Williamson of Carleton Place. We join in wishing the newly wedded couple long life happiness and prosperity.

OAKWOOD. Special to The Warbler. Excursion to Beaverton.—The Oakwood Presbyterian Sunday school are going to have an excursion to Beaverton on Saturday, July 7th. Return tickets, adults 60 cents children 30 cts. A grand time is expected. Excursion will leave at 10 on the regular morning train to the west and return with the 7.30 train in the evening. The friends will have about five hours to spend boating, picnicking, and rambolling in general. Don't forget the day. Come along and bring your friends.

BURNT RIVER. Special to The Warbler. Farewell.—Rev. H. Furse preached his farewell sermon here on Sunday, 17th June, taking for his text the words, "He that loveth his life shall lose it, and he that hateth his life shall save it." He was a very interesting and instructive sermon. Mr. Furse goes to Dalrymple, where we hope he may be attended with every blessing.

POTATO BUGS.—These pests are in full force this year; they have all the potato patches occupied, and are watching, ready to follow anyone they see carrying a hoe, in hopes of finding a fresh patch.

STATUTE LABOR.—Mending the roads has been the principal occupation the past week, and every year we are more impressed with the opinion that a better way might be devised. Where there are plenty of workers, and consequently plenty of work to put on the roads, the roads are good and don't need so much work, but the time must be put in all the same; and where the settlers are few and far apart, the roads are rough and need far more work than there is to put on them. If fifty cents was paid for each day of statute labor in the whole county, and the money properly expended, the roads would improve much faster than they do.

BETHANY. Special to The Warbler. The garden party in the aid of the Methodist Church came off on Friday night, and was as usual a success, not financially alone but to all pleasure seekers. The Ballyluth Brass Band did credit to themselves for rendering such fine music, (though they were well paid for it.) The singing that was rendered by the choir was worthy of attention, the organist deserves many thanks for his trouble in providing many extra music. The ladies deserve the highest congratulations for the fine spread of tables and delicacies of the season, which they served so judiciously and so promptly. It was a success and that is all that was required. The proceeds amount to about $65.

MISS MINNIE WINSLOW, formerly teacher of this place but now of the 8th high school, Manawan, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, of Burnt River.

The sports of our village have been far below par for some time till our worthy and successful school teacher, Mr. Corby, organized a foot ball club. This was the first to work up here as the most of them were green, having never played before, but they got down to good practice they received a challenge from that old and hard to beat club, the "Govan Clippers." The match came off on Tuesday at our picnic and was very interesting, "the greaves" giving the Clippers a hard run which ended in a tie. Our boys would like to play the return match ere long as they don't like a tie, and want stand to be tied.

SEVERAL buildings here have changed in color, and look fine, by the hand and brush of our painter, T. Bryans. Time is a good workman and no doubt will succeed here. Give him your painting and you will never regret it.

CANNINGTON. Special to The Warbler. At the comparatively young age of 54 years, Mr. George Shipman, after a long and painful illness on Wednesday the 15th inst., passed quietly away. The deceased gentleman for his many sterling qualities was highly esteemed; the large concourse of people who attended the funeral fully attested this fact. With the bereaved, the public feel they too have sustained a loss, and sincere sympathy is extended to the family by a wide circle of friends.

The suit of Doble vs Cannington, came up for trial on Friday last, before Judge Falconbridge at Toronto. In the evidence given by an engineer employed by the plaintiff to examine the condition of the road at the point where the accident occurred, it was admitted that a fence was not necessary for protection. No further witnesses were called, and a verdict with costs in favor of the defendant was rendered. On a former occasion we explained the reason for the action taken by Mr. Doble against this corporation, and will merely state now, that it was to recover $2000 damages for injuries received from being thrown out of a buggy when near the railway crossing, the horse having taken fright from a passing engine and having become unmanageable.

A large number of people congregated at the station on Monday the 18th inst., to grasp the hand and say that hardest of words "Good By," to Mr. R. Talbot and daughter, Mr. J. S. Webster, Mr. Hugh Wilson; Miss Beattie Wyatt and Mr. J. Griffin, all of whom were leaving on an extended visit to England. Our soldier boys have returned from their two weeks' drill at Niagara, looking well and healthy; Mr. A. E. Sinclair, their gallant Lieutenant, having proudly carried off the much coveted prize awarded by the officers of the Battalion, for the best dressed and best looking soldier. "Three cheers and a tiger." Hip—Hip—Hip.—THE WARBLER congratulates Lieut. Sinclair.

REV. WILLIAM WILLIAMS, D.D. Late Pastor of the Division Street Methodist Church, Cobourg, and now Pastor of Cambridge Street Methodist Church, Lindsay.

The Rev. Mr. Williams is the eldest son of William and Margaret P. Williams, and was born in Stonehouse, Devon, England, January 23rd, 1836. His mother was a daughter of Robert Pearce, of Camelford, Cornwall, England. In 1843 the subject of this notice removed with his parents to Toronto. During the four years of his residence in that city he attended school, and the latter part of the time he was engaged in preparing to enter Upper Canada College. Before he had completed his preparatory studies he removed with his parents to Weston, and some time later to the township of Holland, where his father settled upon a farm. Though removed from school at a comparatively early age, he steadily pursued a carefully prepared course of reading and study, and in his nineteenth year he entered the ministry of the Methodist New Connexion church. His record in that community was that of a successful minister of the gospel. Before the union he was during four years chairman of a district; was one year president of the Methodist New Connexion Conference, and was elected Moderator of the same. In 1870, at the union of the Methodist churches in this country, being on both committees; and in 1874 he was sent by his conference, with the late Robert Wilkes, M. F., of Toronto, as a deputation to the New Connexion Conference in England to obtain the consent of that body to the contemplated union in Canada. In this he and his companion were completely successful. Not only was the requested consent given, but Mr. Wilkes and Mr. Williams were heartily thanked for the manner in which they had presented the matter before the conference. In 1875, after this union had been consummated, he was in charge of the gospel in the church in Simcoe, Rev. Mr. Williams was sent with W. H. Gibbs, of Ottawa, by the Central Board of Missions as a deputation to attend the missionary services in the leading Methodist Churches in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island. In 1876, in response to the special request of the Centenary Church, Hamilton, Rev. Mr. Williams was sent to charge, then the largest and most influential in the London conference. He remained there for the full term of three years. A leading member of that church speaks of his ministry in that place:—"His discourses showed him to be a man of culture, of extensive reading, of careful thought, and of sound judgment. The Centenary Church never, believe, had a better evangelist of the Word of God, or a more faithful preacher of the gospel. Conscientious in the discharge of his duty, whatsoever he seemed to feel should be said he spoke boldly whether it was likely to please or displease. At the same time he evinced such qualities of heart, such sympathy, such desire to do his people good, as secured for him their affection, and made him very influential. As a man, Mr. Williams was liked by all who knew him. He was pleasant and unassuming, easy to approach, and was ready to lend a helping hand." In 1879 Rev. Mr. Williams became pastor of Norfolk Street Church, the first year of his ministry there during the full term of three years, was acceptable and useful, and during his ministry there the membership of the church and congregation was largely increased; the debt upon the building in which they worshipped reduced by several thousand dollars; and the financial condition of the church greatly improved in other respects. He was also chairman of the Gospel Society during the three years of his pastorate in that city. The following three years were spent by him in Woodstock, where he ministered to a very large congregation in one of the finest church edifices in the province. The first year of his ministry in that place was marked by his elevation to the presidency of the London Conference. This position he filled with acceptance and ability. He was chairman of the Woodstock district during the full term of his ministry in that rapidly rising town. At the request of the Cobourg (Division Street) Church Rev. Mr. Williams was, in 1885, transferred to the Bay of Quinte conference, and appointed to Cobourg. There he preached to a large and intelligent congregation, comprising, in addition to the general members, the principal professors and students of Victoria University. Mr. Williams was also chairman of the Cobourg district. In May, 1887, the senate of Victoria University conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. At the recent conference held in Lindsay, Dr. Williams was appointed to succeed Rev. M. L. Pearson, in Cambridge St. Meth dist church here.

Where our fathers stood, shoulder to shoulder, Charging the base tyrant's deep line, Dying for Faith and for Freedom, So Orangeism! think of the Boyne!

Swiftly roll fair Canada's waters, The home of my children, and mine, But how dear to my heart is the old sod, So Orangeism! think of the Boyne!

St. Lawrence has a strong, mighty current, And Ottawa's rapids are fine, But dear to us all, the Boyne River, Then Orangeism! think of the Boyne!

Where our fathers stood, shoulder to shoulder, Charging the base tyrant's deep line, Dying for Faith and for Freedom, So Orangeism! think of the Boyne!

Think of fair Derry's crimson stained ramparts, Of traitors who fair faith would resign; And ask in your hearts, are there traitors A-way from the banks of the Boyne!

Is Canada free from Palliatives? Do Delia's own Sampson outlive, With the wine of the Old Suet Lady? So Orangeism! think of the Boyne!

Shall the fame of our country be defamed? Must our children the Bible resign? Shall our colors be torn by the flag? O! Orangeism! think of the Boyne!

Shall we yield to the Book's lying temptress? Our country to Rome's rule resign? Nay; rather, seek truth in Derry, Than Canadian slave to a Pope. So Orangeism! think of the Boyne!

Now, stand firm by the "Old Constitution" That our fathers and grandfathers swore to, It was in the tide of that river, So Orangeism! think of the Boyne!
