In the evening as was announced for ome weeks Mr. Laurier was to arrive in Lindsay, was to be welcomed at the station, and was thence to proceed to a garden party on the grounds of J. A. Barron, M. P. Well, the ordinary drumming to get up a crowd was indulged in; the band was hired and played to the station, the train arrived, Messra, Laurier. McIntyre, Barron, Barr, et al, arrived, and cound a very small crowd awaiting them. One eformer said there were less than eight. However, no cheer broke the solemn stillness, though several liberal conservatives, stung to shame at seeing any public man, even an op-ponent, so received, tried to enthuse the grits into giving a cheer. It was vain. Mr. Barron burried Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Laurier into a cab,

Committee. On our reading the motion of the flurrows came and asked that Dr. Coulter's name be omitted because he was not on friendly terms with him. We refused to omit the name, and suggested that if Dr. Burrows wished it omitted he bring in an amendment. No amendment was offered and the motion carried without one dissenting voice. Still infurnishing the list for publication Dr. Burrows took upon his own irresponsible self to omit Dr. Coulter's name, Further, on another committee, he omitted the name of Mr. Sam'l Irwin, and inserted that of a gentleman not an elector of the place, and did it, too, without anyone's consent. There should be a joint meeting of the same bodies as appointed those committees, to receive their reports. Let it be called at an early date. The public are anxious with his double front is always ready equipped for the enemy when they invade the camp, and no matter how famous the assailant, or how keen may be their efforts to wrest the prestige won by the founders of the great Cheapside of Lindeay, it requires better ammunitien than we see in the hands of our enemy. We say to the people of and to the sturdy Scotsmen of Eldon, COME ON! We are more than ready for all comers. See our bargains in every department. Our shelves are groaning under the weight of new goods for the present and incoming season, and if buying in the best markets and selling with the least profit compatible with business honesty and justice be a guarantee of what we can do, we are there every time. We draw special attention this week to our DRESS GOODS, which we offer at special prices for the next two weeks.

Our 10c. Grey Cotton leads the van. Our 2c. Cotton is a marvel of cheapness. Our 10c. Grey Cotton leads Our 50c. Silk Plush in all colors must be seen to be appreciated.

It has been our motto to keep faith with the public. We have never advertised a bargain or represented an article to be cheap, but what our friends and visitors have always gone away with the impression that when the founder of Cheapside gives a bargain it is a genuine article. When we came in your midst a year since, a few wiseacres predicted it a bad move for us, but we are pleased to say (not in a boastful spirit) it has been beyond our expectation.
