BRAVERTON.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.—About five o'clock Saturday morning the fire-bell awoke the slumbering inhabitants by its dismal pealings. It was found that the cause of the village. The grain house of Mr. G. F. Bruce was becoming a prey to the devouring element. The building contained 3,000 bushels of grain, consisting of barley, oats and peas. This was all destroyed, and also a new office which Mr. Bruce had put up. The grain was insured for $5,000 and the building $1000. It is the opinion of a great many that it was the work of an incendiary, as there was no fire in or near the building.

ASTONISHED.—Mr. D. McNab merchant, made an announcement on the 19th. This was a surprise to many, as all thought that Mr. McNab was on rock bottom. He has the sympathy of his fellow merchants. Nothing is yet known as to his liabilities.

Presentation to Rev. M. McKinnon B.A., of Eldon.

To the Rev. M. McKinnon B.A.
REV. AND DEAR SIR.—The young men of your congregation have for some time past been devising some means by which they might address you, unitedly, with some tangible token of their growing regard for you, and to encourage you with the assurance of your labors among them have already "very more copiously."

We would therefore, as representing the young men within your pastoral charge, desire to assure you without pretense or affectation, that considering the above we have as yet been with us, are pleased and astonished to see those icy bars disappear which heretofore chilled as under the people—old and young, in the church and Sunday School—will join with you in the hope and prayer that these merry drops are but the advance signals of a very great shower of blessing ready to descend upon yourself and congregation.

Please accept at the hands of our deputation this cutter and its accompaniments, simply as a Christmas gift from the young men, to enable you with more ease and comfort to overcome the labor of your extensive charge. We will not add a single word that can be construed into flattery.

May the Lord of the harvest bless your labors abundantly, and crown them at last with glorious "harvest home" on that day when it shall be made manifest that "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seeds, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing his sheaves with him."

Signed on behalf of the young men,
ANDREW M. McPHAIL,
NEIL McDONALD,

LINDSAY, Dec. 24th, 1888.

DEAR SIR.—I see by report of the Lindsay meeting re Imperial Federation that it is proposed to organize branches in each township, and would like to suggest that the organizers arrange for speakers at the meetings who are able to bring the subject before the people in a plain and intelligent manner. Let it be made known, when calling the meetings, that some one or more good speakers will be present, and there will be a good attendance.

To the Editor of The Warbler.

LINDSAY, Dec. 24th, 1888.

DEAR SIR.—We would like to know what spirit Capt. Crandell has against the fire company? Is it an electing thing? At one time we was our best friend. It cannot be on account of the road machine, nor yet for building a 12 ft. sidewalk in the East Ward. Now sir, when we applied to the council for an increase of salary (from $20 to $25 per year) it was one of our best friends; he was the man that made application, promising to support and carry the matter through the council on condition that we also apply to have two or three board members fitted up in the fire hall to accommodate any member who might be out late at night, or in fact anyone who was "strapped" for a night's lodging. He said that as chairman of the Fire and Water Committee, he thought it a very proper thing to have such places. Well, sir, naturally we thought well of the salary but the bedroom question we detested and never spoke of it outside the company, but if we had joined the Captain and helped carry his little scheme we should now be having his best wishes instead of abuse. Wishing him a better frame of mind, a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Thanking you for your space.

We remain, yours truly,
J. H., on behalf of the firemen.

DEATH is removing one by one our old pioneer settlers in this connection we have to record the death on Sunday night, Dec. 16th, at her home, South Mansfield, of Mrs. Henry Staples. She was the only surviving sister of Mr. James Strong. The deceased has been highly spoken of in relations of wife, mother and neighbor. On the same day one of Cartwright's old residents in the person of Mr. Wm. Angus father of Mr. Frank Sanderson departed this life aged 77.

Mrs. and Mrs. GEORGE STAPLES of Darlington were visiting at Fair View farm Lotos, Elizabeth Ferguson.

Mrs. John Benson the popular agent of the Singer Sewing machine Co. comfortably protected from winters chilling blast, by a spacious ocean skin coat passed a few days since through Lotos westward bound. John don't stand shivering on the trunk (feeling) to launch away when the sale of a machine is under consideration.

MANY years have passed since we were enjoined to remember the 5th of November, and as a subject of her Britannic Majesty, perhaps it ought not to let it slip our memory, the reason for remembering it, we need not give the student of English history is not ignorant of it. So the people of Havick and the regions around and about it, will long remember the anniversary of the recall to mind most memorable 28th of November, a day on which in spite of wind and rain was laid in the presence of a large number of spectators, and with a participation amount of about $115, an amount of money of equal value to the honor of laying the stone was conferred upon Mrs. Madill, whose executive ability, under such new to her, and trying circumstances, drew forth words of praise. At the conclusion of the act ceremonial Mrs. Madill was presented by Mrs. Milne chairman of the building committee with a handsome silver towel beautifully inscribed and valued at $15. An amount of money had been provided for the occasion the same had been provided for the occasion, if any had been courage when thus tempted to inhibit the proceedings, accounted to Mrs. Madill for the same. It is a name which will be remembered in the annals of England's history, and will be a landmark in the history of the country.
