Mr. Anderson, Rev. C. W. Marah,

Last P. D. Wilson, Charles Fairbairn county master John Batley, ex-county master; J. L. Winters, district master; A. DeLary, Thos. Murtagh, and others, Rev. Mr. Anderson opened with prayer. It is a noteworthy fact that though Rev. Mr. Chiniquy had been cursed from the pulpit of the church of Rome, though roman catholics were forbidden to attend the lecture, though weak backed protestants remained away, the hall was well filled. Protestants are beginning to remark that certain so-called protestant merchants are ever ready to give liberally to every rometh horse-race, bazaar, raffle, lottery, concert, or fandango of any and every description; and that these same worthies are unable to buy a ticket or attend anything under special proticket or attend anything under special pro-testant auspices. They are being noted and henceforward will be watched; and, if it is a simple question of trade, why protestants feel they would rather deal with staunch protestants or roman catholics than with these halfand half fellows. Rev. Mr. Chiniquy lectured on "why I lest the church of rome with 35,000 of my freedy countrymen." In romish priesthood until honored by the Bishops and church in Quebec, presented with a massive gold medal, and named the "Apostus or programmer," all by the church of Rome. In conformity with the well knows plan of romanism which many years ago plotted to control the cities of Canada and Rastern over Campbell's corner, and injured himself Inited States by means of the low Irish, he | by falling on a projecting board, then "Father" Chiniquy, colonized parts of building up a colony, he was converted to protestantism and has led to a knowledge of the Gospel unwards of 35,000 once roman catholics. Rev. Mr. Chiniquy explained the manufacture of the water used in the Romish church, showed the irons and dies in which they were made, and conclusively proved their use to be more idolatrons than the worship of a golden calf or a wooden god. In the course of thirty years upwards of thirty-six roman catholic priests have through Rev. Mr. Chiniquy's influence turned protestant. Twenty saven of these are still living. Many priests would turn only they fear being murleged, the sworn doom of each one, from his dered, the sworn doom of each one, from his former fellows. Last year live priests came out from romanism through his teaching. While in Lindaux Rev. Mr. Chiniquy was the guest of Mr. S. Hughes. At the close of the lecture he sold scores of his books, "Fifty years in the church of Rome," "The Priest, the Woman and the Confessional," and "Papalliculation." The guest the Chines."

idelatry." The supply of the "Priest, the Woman and the Confessional" was exhausted in a few minutes. The money arising from the sale of these books is used to educate the priests who become protestant, and to further the presbyterian cause among French romanists. Rev. Mr. Chiniquy thought he had announced that fact here; but forgot it until reminded of it. At the close Rev. Mr. Anderson moved a vote of thanks to Rev. Mr. Chiniquy for the able lecture. He said that forty years ugo he heard the same gentleman in Honsecours market, Montreal, address an andience of thousands in French on temperance. Father Chiniquy was then a roman octholic priest and his praises were in every month. It was just about the time he founded the colony in Himons. Nev. Mr. Marsh abity seconded the resolution in a few ringing sentences which proved his heart in the right cause, it was unanimously carried. Rev. W. D. P. Wilson closed with the benediction. The DeLary fife and drum band gave choice selections during the evening. REV. C. CHINIQUY AT FENELON FALLS -On Friday evening Rev. Mr Chiniquy lectured in Fenelon Falls, under the suspices of the Orangemen there. Deputy County Master Thos. Austin on Friday morning came to Lindsay to excert the old gentleman out, Sam Hughes of Lindsay was also invited. Arrived at Fenelon Falls the party were met by the brass band, the True Blues in full uniform, the orangemen and Rev. Mesers. McAmmond B.A., Loughead, Dean and Fraser, and Mesers. McIntosh, Roberts, Johnston, Nevison and many others. The procession escerted Rev. Mr. Chiniquy to the residence of Mr. Dickson F. L. S., where he was royally entertained.
