The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1889.

BETHANY.

Special to The Warder.

The greater part of this winter in our village has been dull. Why not organize some sort of amusement—say, for instance, a debating society. This affords a certain amount of sport, besides a certain amount of information. To those who possess thinking and reasoning faculties these two combined should be pleasing to both learned and unlearned.

PRINCE ALBERT.

Special to The Warder.

OBITUARY.—On Friday Jan. 25th inst., Mrs. Forrester, passed to that bourne from whence no traveller returns. Deceased was in failing health for some time but she bore her sickness with christian fortitude and meekness. Her remains was interred in the Pine Grove Cemetery Prince Albert, Rev. Mr. Mc-Kinnon presbyterian minister officiated.

ILLNESS.—Miss Mary Robertson has been seriously ill for some time, but under Dr. Clemens skillful treatment she will soon recover.

OPEN AND ENDS.—Mr. Robt. Turner has gone back to Michigan where he secured a situ on the railway. Times dull here. Good sleighing now.

CANNINGTON.

Special to The Warder.

For the past three weeks our streets have worn a particular animated appearance. To the observant stranger the sight presented would convey the impression that a splendid horse fair was being conducted or in our midst; but to the citizens who knows all about it, the impression is not to being conveyed that this section of the country possesses some of the largest most and most marketable horses in the Dominion. That this is no boast, but a splendid reality, the fact that not less than fifty head per week, at prices ranging from $120 to $170 each, are purchased, fully attests. The purchasing firms are Messrs. Jas. Cowan & Armstrong and Messrs. W. G. Smith & Co.; the former for the Boston, and the latter for the Manitoba markets. To the great credit of our neighboring farmers be it said, that for several years past they have taken great pains to improve the breed of horses which they owned; and now to-day they are reaping the benefit of their enterprise by having circulated in their midst a sum of money per week not less than $7000. But have our farmers reached the climax of their ambition and enterprise by this attainment, and have all to whom the field lies open availed themselves of its possibilities. We would like to think so; but we fear far too many are still wedded to the old and unprofitable system of maintaining things in the same condition and position as that pursued and established by their forefathers. Let us hope—to those latter—the success now attending the enterprise of their more progressive neighbors will be an incentive to them to go and do likewise; for it is undoubtedly true of agriculture as of commerce, there can be no standing still for those engaged in its pursuit. He who attempts it will assuredly give place to his more progressive neighbor in the near future. But I am getting a frightful digression on our part, and shall we not be asked, "What do you know about this matter you undertake to read us a lecture upon?" To both of which our apology and answer is that we are more than gratified with the fine showing of horses made here during the time previous mentioned, and that we are satisfied that much more can be done in the enterprise by farmers not now engaged in it turning their attention to the improvement of their stock; and lastly, that our aim and desire is to make our little town of Cannington one of the first markets for the purchase of horses and cattle, in the Dominion. If we can succeed in assisting to this end in the smallest and most humble degree, we shall feel that if we do not possess much practical information on the subject, yet we have done our best to induce others to interest themselves who do, and having achieved that much, we are well content.

GLANDINE.

Mr. Burgess with the aid of Mr. Moccasion soon came to the team's rescue, and all hands got in. Mr. Burgess being active, got out first, and reaching a fork handle to his father got him out. They then got the team ashore.

MRS. William Adair has presented her husband with a bouncing baby boy.

MR. David Demorest is laid up again, we are sorry to say, from the effects of his wounded limb. It must be great pleasure for Mr. Demorest to have the young ladies of the place to go up and spend their leisure hours with him under the circumstances. We wish to see him around soon again.

MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY.—The people of this place are interested in the welfare of their fellows, by getting this society or Mutual Improvement. We hope all interested shall turn out and help.

FOREST HILL.

Special to The Warder.

Our former teacher Miss M. Smith, is attending the Ottawa Normal School. Her place is filled by Miss Edith E. Washington of Port Perry, she comes to us very highly recommended, and has so far filled the expectations of community as a good faithful teacher.

MR. Chas. F. Clarke has lately sustained the loss of a valuable horse, death caused by inflammation.

A few nights since, a merry party of about fifty five comprising young people of Cannington, Mariposa and Scott, assembled at the residence of Mr. William Umphrie, three miles west of Sunderland to give him a friendly surprise. A very pleasant evening was spent, and the company dispersed at a late hour, hoping it would not be long before all would meet again.

We would like to know if the two young ladies who were hunting for ice found enough to skate on.

There seems to be some strong attraction southwards, for one of our young ladies. Who is it deedee, a precious darling little dude?

BADDOW.

Special to The Warder.

Mr. John Wilson had a wood hauling bee on Thursday last, which was a great success. Some thirteen teams were in the woods, and upwards of 150 cords were hauled to the bank of Burnt River. A number of ladies took possession of the camps on both sides of the road and prepared excellent meals for the hands.

Miss Mary Cullon of Fenelon Falls is visiting friends here. We are glad to see her among us again.....Mr. J.J. Nevison of Fenelon Falls is still on the warpath here with his musical instruments, the hand organs which are giving good satisfaction here.

Special to The Warder.

Business good in all branches.

Grain is coming in freely, also large quantities of wood.

Mr. Gorden Hadden has moved on his farm, north of the village.

Mrs. Cobland wife of the late James Cobland is very sick at present, her recovery is doubtful as she is an old woman .....We are glad to see Mr. Frederick Vesta once more able to be out.

Mr. Geo. Dainard and Mr. Wm. Lee is doing a fine trade in the butchering line.

Our school is progressing well under the teaching of Mr. Berry.

BEXLEY.

Special to The Warder.

Messrs. Shaw's mill is in full blast in the line of cutting shingles, and will be soon ready for cutting lumber, they have a great quantity of logs out and skidded, there stock is going to be a large one. Two of their working hands had the misfortune of getting hurt a few days ago, the one being J. Killaby got hit in the mouth with a spring pole, which knocked out two of his teeth, the other being S. Bowey, having one of his legs hurt by a log falling on it. Sam. was going about on three legs for some days but is better now.

Cord wood seems to be all the go around here, there is nothing doing in cedar poles since Messrs. McKenzie's stopped buying, if they would buy again they would get all they would want.

The dude with the red side jams has cut out some of the young boys from there loved one, but they tried to hang him by fixing a string across his runway, and turned up his heels in the direction of his head. Well done boys.

CRESSWELL.

Special to The Warder.

GRAIN MARKET.—Considerable grain has been taken in here during the last week. Not much change in prices. Our grain market is one of the best in the country this season; the highest prices having been paid here. "Opposition is the life of of trade," thanks to Mr. Clendenning and the firm whom he represents, for our present market. Both our buyers are under a disadvantage owing to not having sufficient room to store the different grades of barley; while our friends at Mariposa and Port Perry have an elevator with the latest improvements for cleaning and improving the lighter grades of barley. Our buyers have advised holders of lighter barley to go to these elevators, where they could get better prices than they could give here. At present I understand Mr. Ross is shipping barley from here to Port Perry, where he intends putting it in his elevator for cleaning and improving the grades. Why not some of our enterprising farmers join together and build an elevator at Manilla Junction and give our buyers a chance to compete with buyers at other points. The best site on the G. T. R. for an elevator is at the Junction; surrounded by the best grain producing land in the Province. We hope before another grain season opens to see an elevator at Manilla Jct. with all the latest improvements.

OUR CHURCH.—The Rev. Mr. Gray has returned to remain with us for a term, and preached a very interesting and instructive sermon from Psalms xxxiv; 8...We would like to see a full choir. There is plenty of material, and the young people should take hold and make it a success after the kindness of the church committee in furnishing them with an organ for the church...Our Sunday school is flourishing under the superintendency of Mr. Thompson, assisted by an able and efficient staff of teachers.

OMEMEE.

Special to The Warder.

METHODIST CHURCH.—The Sunday school anniversary services were held on Sunday and Monday last. Sunday morning Rev. J. M. A. Spence preached an interesting and appropriate sermon to the children of the school. In the evening the pulpit was supplied by Rev. Wm. Johnston, who dealt with the importance of Sunday school work and the duty of the church in relation thereto. The anniversary services were continued on Monday evening when the report for the year was presented by Mr. W. Miller, superintendent of the school, showing an encouraging increase in both teachers and scholars, and also a gratifying advancement in the finances for the year. The programme of entertainment was then proceeded with, consisting of recitations, dialogues and singing by the children of the school, followed by short addresses from Mr. Orr, high school teacher here, Rev. Mr. Raley of Cannington, and Rev. Mr. Johnston, pastor of the church. The financial results were in advance of any previous year.

EXCELLENT sleighing, good ice and fine weather for the races. The attendance at the races was unusually large, and a very orderly crowd from Peterboro, Lindsay, and Millbrook were largely represented.

CAPT. Evans and family are comfortably situated in Thos. McMurtry's house opposite the foundry.

THE Omemee band has been re-organized under Mr. H. W. Sherwood leader, and intend to be neatly uniformed this season.

THE presbyterians are about building a new brick church, to be located in a central position, and will provide for a long felt want to the members living in the village.

QUITE a number from here attended Father Chiniquy's lecture in Lindsay on Thursday of last week.

THE methodist S.S. anniversary services were of a very interesting nature, and the dialogue taken part in by Messrs. Mist and Miller is long to be remembered and affords a valuable lesson to all who heard it.

It is the intention of Mr. W. A. Sherwood artist, to accompany Frederick Villiers on some of his expeditions, to act in the capacity of war correspondent and taking sketches. Mr. Sherwood possessing a military spirit combined with no ordinary abilities is bound to make his mark, especially when accompanying a man of Mr. Villiers experience on the "battle fields."

JANETVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

WEDDING BELLS.—We have great pleasure in recording another happy event which took place at Janetville on the 30th inst. Miss Sarah Marshall, fourth daughter of Mr. James Marshall, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Naylor of Ops. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. W. D. P. Wilson, pastor of the Janetville church. The contracting parties were assisted by Mr. Simeon Marshall, brother to the bride, and Miss Maggie Nicholls, of Lindsay. The bride was given away by her father, and she looked the very picture of health and beauty. The dresses were rich and becoming, the bride being dressed in garnet satin and white blossoms, while the bridesmaid was of the same hue with white blossoms also. After the ceremony was performed and the customery congratulations over, about sixty sat down to dinner who had been invited by card. After dinner the happy couple, with the groomsman and bridesmaid, started for Lindsay to meet the eight o'clock train and start on their wedding tour, leaving the guests to enjoy themselves as best they could, which they did for some time in the night. The presents were numerous and costly, including one from the groom, which was a beautiful gold watch and chain.

DEAR SARAH:—
May your days be long and happy,
And your husband be kind and true,
May you enter the gates of Heaven
When your work on earth is through.

WE are happy also to chronicle the marriage of Miss Maggie Rehill late organist of the Janetville church, to Mr. George Suggett of Blackstock which took place at the brides father, residence on the 29th inst, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Montier brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by the Rev. W. D. P. Wilson. The presents in this case were also numerous and costly, including $30 in cash given by the congregation of the Janetville church in acknowledgment of her past services rendered during her stay among them. Mr. and Mrs. Suggett has the best wishes of this community with them to their new home.

Dangerous Counterfeits.

Counterfeits are always dangerous, more so that they always closely imitate the original in appearance and name. The remarkable success achieved by Nasal Balm as a positive cure for Catarrh and Cold in the Head has induced unprincipled parties to imitate it. The public are cautioned not to be deceived by nostrums imitating Nasal Balm in name and appearance, bearing such names as Nasal Cream, Nasal Balsam, etc. Ask for Nasal Balm and do not take imitation dealers may urge upon you.
