BRIBERY BROINS AT HOME.

My charge also to parents is, remember that this evil of bridery often begins in the home circle and in the nursery. Do not bribe four children. Teach them to do that which is right, and not because of the ten course of th Hubbit vs. March 10.—At the Tabornacle the orange you will give them. There is a this morning six thousand voices, supported great difference between rewarding virtue and making the profits thereof the impelling motive. That man who is honest morely because "honesty is the best policy," is already a moral bankrupt.

My charge is to you, in all departments of life steer clear of bribery, all of you. Every man and woman at some time will be tempted to do wrong for compensation. The bribe may not be offered in money. It may be offered in social position, Let us remember that there is a day coming when the most secret transaction of private life and of pubtie life will come up for public reprehension. We cannot bribe death, we cannot bribe sicks ness, we cannot bribe the grave, we cannot bribe the judgments of that God who thunders against this sin.

No, death would not be hired then; he will not be hired now. Men of the world often regret that they have to have their money here when they go away from the world. You can tell from what they my in their last hours that one of their chief sorrows is that they have to leave their money. I break that delusion. I tell that bribe taker that he will take his money with him. God will wrap it up in your shroud, or put it in the plain of your hand in resur-Evicustry for trubulousy and turpttude. I stand this morning before many who have trust funds. It is a compliment to you that you have been so intrusted; but I charge you, in the presence of God and the world, be oareful, be as careful of the property of others as you are careful of your own. Above all, keep your own private account at the bank separate from your account as trustee of an estate, or trustee of an institution. That is the point at which thousands of people make shipwreck. They get the property of others mixed up with their own property, they put it into investment and away it all goes and they cannot return that which they borrowed. Then comes the explosion and the money market is shaken and the press denonnees and the church thunders expulsion. You have no right to use the property of others except for their advantage, nor without consent, unless they are minors. If with into the delusion which has ruined so many men, of thinking because a thing is in their possession, therefore it is theirs. You have a solemn trust that God has given you. In this vast assemblage there may be some who have misappropriated trust funds. Put them back, misappropriated trust funds. Put them back, or, if you have so hopelessly involved them that you cannot put them back, confess the whole thing to those whom you have wronged, and you will sleep better nights, and you will have the better chance for your soul. What a sad thing it would be, if after you are dead your administrator should find out from the secount books, or from the lack of vouchers, that you were not only bankrupt in estate, but that you lost your soul. If all the trust funds that have been misappropriated should suddenly fly to their owners, and all
