Messrs. H. D. Jones of Harbour, and W. McKelvie of Harbour, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Lindsay on business. Both gentlemen are members of the council and are enterprising citizens. Mr. Jones is an English gentleman who has a very large farm in the most fertile part of Harbour. His reports are that it would be a very easy matter to extend the Harbour railway onward to Mattawa. The land he says is far superior beyond Harbour to what it is in Somerville, Snowdon and other Southern low-lands. Mr. McKelvie has had contracts this winter to supply lumbermen on the Muskoka waters, and fully bears out all Mr. Jones said concerning the richness and fertility of the country beyond the terminus of the railway.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Lindsay Collegiate Institute literary society, was held in the Assembly Hall on Friday evening. The chair was occupied by the president. After the business of the society had been transacted, an excellent programme was proceeded with as follows:—Chorus by the boys' glee club; recitation by Miss Langford; instrumental duet, (organ and harmonica), by Messrs. Hall and Jordan; solo, by Mr. Herby; recitation, Mr. M. Leigh; vocal duet, Misses Cliff and McCarty; a carefully prepared article on the potato beetle, Mr. Ross; vocal solo, Mr. Marsh; reading, Miss Aronson; and last, but by no means least, a chorus by the young ladies' glee club. The meeting then closed by the society singing the National Anthem. At the above meeting, it was decided to rent a piano, and have it placed in the hall as soon as possible.

P. FORBATH respectfully intimates to the young men, that an hour or two spent in his shooting gallery occasionally, would be more beneficial than the manner that some spend their time. They would then learn to keep their eyes open and have a steady hand, which cannot be obtained by frequenting a bar room or loafing around the street corners.—69-2.

REV. MR. HERRIDGE's lecture in the collegiate institute on Thursday night last, was a masterpiece of eloquent thought. Its effect as a model for the young ladies and gentlemen of the town and district cannot be too highly valued. "Mr. Herridge" received ample justice. Her hopes and labors for Italian liberation from tyranny were vividly brought forth. Mr. Herridge is one of Canada's coming men.

IT IS AN ESTABLISHED fact that persons of high mental powers of intellect, those who are unfortunately "off" or who have been, but have partially recovered, never fully recover, but like ordinary lunatics imagine all others weak except themselves. Wednesday of this week gave the Lindsay a practical illustration of a gift touched with this characteristic. To give full exposition would be cruel and unkind. "People who live in glass houses," etc.

MR. R. G. CORRELL of this town, was the happy recipient last week, of a number of reliable and interesting Chinese curios, from Mr. Geo. T. C. MATCHETT, agent of the C.P.R., for Lindsay and vicinity, has done yeoman service for his company during the past few weeks, and more especially in connection with the last popular excursion of the C.P.R. from this town. His patrons numbered a very large party, and to a man they expressed themselves well pleased with the courtesy and attention, shown by the C.P.R. agents here. Colonists from all parts of the country took advantage of the low rates and superior accommodations offered them, and are now en route to the North West. Cameron, Cameron, Cameron, Kirkfield, Woodville, Frelson Falls, etc., etc., were well represented. Call on Mr. Matchett and secure tickets for Tuesday next.

Since a post office savings bank was opened in Little Britain last January last, the deposits weekly have ranged from $500 to $1000. Not so bad for a country village not yet large enough to become incorporated. Yet the country is going to ruin if grit orators are to be believed.

Among the many old Darlington and Whitley settlers in Mariposa is Mr. Rufus Hall of Creswell. He was one of the prominent young men who grew up in the old frontier days on lake Ontario shores. At Frelson Falls last Friday a most exciting race occurred. There were seven teams crossing Cameron lake with logs for J. A. Ellis' sawmill. It seems the first team in over five or six weeks got its lumber home. So the race began to "get there." The ice was clear "glare" and all the teams came on almost as fast as their heels could carry them. The heavy loads on the beam ice were nothing. Frelson horses could put to shame many words the "fast" ones in other parts. Some of the competitors were Messrs. Smitherson, Farmer, and Moyne. Viewing the race for about 1.5 miles was most interesting.
