

GOLDEN FLEECE.

McLEAN & SMITH

are at the front with

NEW STORE, NEW GOODS, NEW PRICES.

Today our Stock is complete in

ALL THE NEWEST GOODS FOR THIS SEASON'S TRADE.

During the past 15 days we have been busy refitting our Store, and now we boast of having the Neatest Dry Goods Store in town.

- New Black Cashmeres, New Black Berrettes, New Colored Dress Goods, New Sateen Prints, New Light and Dark Gingham, New Stronkers, New Crochets and Fringes, New Tweeds and Pantings, New Josephine Kid Gloves, New Ladies' Collars and Cuffs, New Gloves and Hosiery, New Fancy Handkerchiefs, New Embroideries, New Black and Cream Laces, New Plain and Fancy Ribbons, New Corsets, New Bleached and unbleached Cottons, New Lybster Shirts, New Cottonades and Derrys, New Towelings and Grey Linens.

In fact almost everything in the store is New and Fresh. Every lady should see our Black and Colored Silks and the prices we are selling them for; all latest shades in stock.

We are selling a pure LINEN TOWEL for 18c, the best value we ever had. Give us a call and we will surprise you.

McLEAN & SMITH.

Sign of the Golden Fleece, opposite New Post Office.

Ontario Bank

LINDSAY.

ESTABLISHED 1857.

HEAD OFFICE - TORONTO.

J. W. P. HOWLAND, President

G. H. LINDSAY, General Manager

CAPITAL PAID UP $500,000

RESERVE FUND $400,000

DEPOSITS RECEIVED

SAVINGS BANK

MANAGER.

The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1890.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

URBAN AND SUBURBAN.

TRA. 11 lbs tea for $1 at A. Campbell's.

SYRUS. We have 100 paths Diamond Syrus that we are offering at a reduced price.

NEW CONFECTIONERY. Fresh fruits, fine confectionery, hot chest pastry, cigars, etc.

PERSONS wishing to improve their memories or strengthen their power of attention should read Prof. Loeb's, 257 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

EXCURSION TRAINS. An excursion train will leave Lindsay every Friday in March and April.

FROM TEMPERANCE LADIES OF THE TOWN. We wish to say to the ladies of the town, who so kindly gave us their names in favor of the cause.

"BLACK BEAUTY." How few persons are close observers of incidents and events transpiring daily on every hand.

LETTERS IN EXCERPTION. - Either class or private, will be given by Mr. Channing Simmons, who has studied under many professors and teachers of the highest note and ability.

CHILDREN Cry for Fitcher's Castoria.

LAND SALE in each 200 ac. each, at A. Campbell's. - 68-4.

WATER. - A best house. Apply at Bank of Montreal. - 71-2.

REPAIRS. - Mr. J. W. Quinn of Toronto is in town to introduce the Hall system of electric lighting.

Next Sunday morning Rev. G. W. Dorey and Rev. Dr. Williams will exchange pulpits.

Dr. John Grant is about opening out at Woodville. John will prove a successful doctor.

Mr. John Gibbs a large farmer of Haliburton was in town on Tuesday on business. He is a good settler.

It is very probable that before the end of 1890 a system of water works for the town will be begun.

Garden and field seeds, all fresh. Nutcracker seeds, radishes, tomatoes and cabbages, at A. Gregory's. - 71-4.

Perrin's Pine Tar Cordial still takes the lead. The great remedy for coughs and colds. Children cry for it. - 68-11.

On April 24th the household furniture of Mr. S. A. Macfarlane will be sold by auction. Look out for further notice.

Mr. Don McGribbin has sold out his business to Mr. C. H. Leavens of the "City Bakery." Read his advertisement.

Major W. J. McMurtry of Toronto, joint general manager, Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association spent Thursday in town.

Remember the lecture, "What grew on Thorey" given on Tuesday night, by Rev. Dr. Williams in the first Methodist church.

Let every new comer to town see that his name is on the voters' list. Names left at THE WARDER office will be attended to.

A meeting of the central charity committee will be held on Friday afternoon, April 5th, in the Mechanics' Institute, at 4 o'clock p.m.

Mr. J. Murphy looked quite stylish in the new spring "backboard" built by Douglas Sinclair. Douglas is rushing buggies this spring.

Mr. Sibbett of Brucebridge has been enjoying himself for some time visiting his son-in-law's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hallett.

A handy accurate pocket map of Ontario has recently been issued by Williamson & Co., booksellers, Toronto. Ask your bookseller here for one.

Mr. J. Fisher an old Toronto friend, dropped in on Wednesday for a call. He is in the eighth fitting line, and has some good customers in town.

Extra choice albat, red clover, and timothy seed, also fresh field and garden seeds of all kinds, land plaster, salt, etc., at Spratt & Killeen's. - 71-3.

Thanks for the pleasant visit on Wednesday from J. A. Campbell, Esq., geological surveyor of Kilmont. Our only regret is the time was too short.

Dr. Allan of Janetville paid a flying visit to Lindsay on Wednesday. He is much pleased at the prospect of a line of railway passing through Janetville.

Arthur Switt, one of the non-commissioned officers of Fenelon company 4th Battalion left on Tuesday last for Brandon, Man. He was well liked in Fenelon.

Mr. Maguire of Uxbridge visited Lindsay last Friday to assist his friend Mr. Hardy in the Ocotilla club concert. This was respectfully acknowledged a call.

Miss Hardy of Uxbridge last week visited her brother, the English master in the Collegiate Institute here. She was a guest with Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson.

A Kinmount report states that Rev. Dr. Williams created a most favorable impression there last Tuesday evening. He not only thinks himself, but makes others do so.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held on Tuesday evening next. Members and gentlemen friends are cordially invited.

With commendable enterprise, Messrs. Andy Hightsham, D. Ray, and Wyatt and Turner are having plate glass fronts put in their stores. That will be a great and a needed improvement.

The Sons of England with commendable spirit are arranging a benefit concert for their comrade Davis, recently injured by having a leg torn off at a railway switch in town. It will be well patronized.

New prints, gingham, muslin, seprays, chambray, seersuckers, of excellent value, at Richards'. - 71-2.

Mr. Neil C. McMillan of Hartley was in town on Saturday. He is a fair sample of the Eton boys, standing about six feet four and a half inches high, and he is barely out of his "teens." And he is just as good as he is tall.

Mr. James McWilliam is pushing on his new flour mill. The watercourse is being changed, stone drawn and work generally progressing. Stock books are to be opened and let us hope, the mill will soon be an accomplished fact.

Many will regret to learn that Mr. J. N. Bates the popular bandmaster and painter of Lindsay has gone to Chicago to accept a better situation. Mr. Bates will be greatly missed in town, for he was a genial fellow. All wish him prosperity in Uncle Sam's domain.

North East Ops cheese factory annual meeting will be held at the factory, on the Bobay-goon road, on Tuesday 2nd April next at two o'clock in the afternoon. It is hoped a large number will be present. Mr. Joseph Brown one of the best cheese makers in the province will manage the factory this year.

"What grew on Thorey Island" Lecture by Rev. Dr. Williams, in Cambridge St. Methodist church, Friday evening, March 29th. Silver collection. - 71-1.

Ask your bookseller for "Black Beauty" published by Williamson & Co., Toronto. No more interesting and at the same time morally instructive book has fallen under our notice. The story or rather connected series of stories hold the reader's thought and touch one's better nature all through. Buy the book.

At a meeting Temperance Loyal Orange Boys on Monday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year - Wm. Jones, W. M.; Wm. McGinnis, D. M.; Geo. Elliott, Sec.; Bart Holton, Chap.; Theo. Hastings, Treas.; John Walker, Wm. Cameron, John Delaney, John Saiter, Committee; Mark Ingle, Tyler.

The church of England Temperance Society held their regular monthly meeting in St. Peter's school room on Monday evening the 25th inst. There was a large attendance. The Rev. W. H. French of Ontario gave a very interesting address, and an excellent programme of reading and singing was rendered by members of the society and others.

Mr. F. G. Foster of Fort Hope, but well known in Lindsay district has patented an article that will be of great service to everyone using a single buggy or a cutter. It is called plated shaft loop, which does away entirely with the leather loops or dampers to detour. It is strong and very safe; there is no need of buckle or loop with it. But just call and ask your harness maker to call you a pair. They are cheap.

Rev. Robert Wallace, of the Methodist Home, Belleville, is now on his way out from the country, to S. Y. Vancouver arriving last week in April, with a band of about a hundred boys, ages from 5 to 14, healthy well-trained, suitable for adoption or to help on farms. All applications enclosing references, and any other particulars, should be addressed to Ellen A. Hillebrugh Wallace, Belleville, Ont.

Mr. James McHobb of Beaver has been visiting his friend Mr. Richardson in Opa.

Mr. Neil McWhittier of Leno, Ontario, is on a visit to Mr. William Currie of Mariposa.

Mr. J. W. Quinn of Toronto is in town to introduce the Hall system of electric lighting.

Next Sunday morning Rev. G. W. Dorey and Rev. Dr. Williams will exchange pulpits.

Dr. John Grant is about opening out at Woodville. John will prove a successful doctor.

Mr. John Gibbs a large farmer of Haliburton was in town on Tuesday on business. He is a good settler.

It is very probable that before the end of 1890 a system of water works for the town will be begun.

Garden and field seeds, all fresh. Nutcracker seeds, radishes, tomatoes and cabbages, at A. Gregory's. - 71-4.

Perrin's Pine Tar Cordial still takes the lead. The great remedy for coughs and colds. Children cry for it. - 68-11.

On April 24th the household furniture of Mr. S. A. Macfarlane will be sold by auction. Look out for further notice.

Mr. Don McGribbin has sold out his business to Mr. C. H. Leavens of the "City Bakery." Read his advertisement.

Major W. J. McMurtry of Toronto, joint general manager, Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association spent Thursday in town.

Remember the lecture, "What grew on Thorey" given on Tuesday night, by Rev. Dr. Williams in the first Methodist church.

Let every new comer to town see that his name is on the voters' list. Names left at THE WARDER office will be attended to.

A meeting of the central charity committee will be held on Friday afternoon, April 5th, in the Mechanics' Institute, at 4 o'clock p.m.

Mr. J. Murphy looked quite stylish in the new spring "backboard" built by Douglas Sinclair. Douglas is rushing buggies this spring.

Mr. Sibbett of Brucebridge has been enjoying himself for some time visiting his son-in-law's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hallett.

A handy accurate pocket map of Ontario has recently been issued by Williamson & Co., booksellers, Toronto. Ask your bookseller here for one.

Mr. J. Fisher an old Toronto friend, dropped in on Wednesday for a call. He is in the eighth fitting line, and has some good customers in town.

Extra choice albat, red clover, and timothy seed, also fresh field and garden seeds of all kinds, land plaster, salt, etc., at Spratt & Killeen's. - 71-3.

Thanks for the pleasant visit on Wednesday from J. A. Campbell, Esq., geological surveyor of Kilmont. Our only regret is the time was too short.

Dr. Allan of Janetville paid a flying visit to Lindsay on Wednesday. He is much pleased at the prospect of a line of railway passing through Janetville.

Arthur Switt, one of the non-commissioned officers of Fenelon company 4th Battalion left on Tuesday last for Brandon, Man. He was well liked in Fenelon.

Mr. Maguire of Uxbridge visited Lindsay last Friday to assist his friend Mr. Hardy in the Ocotilla club concert. This was respectfully acknowledged a call.

Miss Hardy of Uxbridge last week visited her brother, the English master in the Collegiate Institute here. She was a guest with Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson.

A Kinmount report states that Rev. Dr. Williams created a most favorable impression there last Tuesday evening. He not only thinks himself, but makes others do so.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held on Tuesday evening next. Members and gentlemen friends are cordially invited.

With commendable enterprise, Messrs. Andy Hightsham, D. Ray, and Wyatt and Turner are having plate glass fronts put in their stores. That will be a great and a needed improvement.

The Sons of England with commendable spirit are arranging a benefit concert for their comrade Davis, recently injured by having a leg torn off at a railway switch in town. It will be well patronized.

New prints, gingham, muslin, seprays, chambray, seersuckers, of excellent value, at Richards'. - 71-2.

Mr. Neil C. McMillan of Hartley was in town on Saturday. He is a fair sample of the Eton boys, standing about six feet four and a half inches high, and he is barely out of his "teens." And he is just as good as he is tall.

Mr. James McWilliam is pushing on his new flour mill. The watercourse is being changed, stone drawn and work generally progressing. Stock books are to be opened and let us hope, the mill will soon be an accomplished fact.

Many will regret to learn that Mr. J. N. Bates the popular bandmaster and painter of Lindsay has gone to Chicago to accept a better situation. Mr. Bates will be greatly missed in town, for he was a genial fellow. All wish him prosperity in Uncle Sam's domain.

North East Ops cheese factory annual meeting will be held at the factory, on the Bobay-goon road, on Tuesday 2nd April next at two o'clock in the afternoon. It is hoped a large number will be present. Mr. Joseph Brown one of the best cheese makers in the province will manage the factory this year.

"What grew on Thorey Island" Lecture by Rev. Dr. Williams, in Cambridge St. Methodist church, Friday evening, March 29th. Silver collection. - 71-1.

Ask your bookseller for "Black Beauty" published by Williamson & Co., Toronto. No more interesting and at the same time morally instructive book has fallen under our notice. The story or rather connected series of stories hold the reader's thought and touch one's better nature all through. Buy the book.

At a meeting Temperance Loyal Orange Boys on Monday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year - Wm. Jones, W. M.; Wm. McGinnis, D. M.; Geo. Elliott, Sec.; Bart Holton, Chap.; Theo. Hastings, Treas.; John Walker, Wm. Cameron, John Delaney, John Saiter, Committee; Mark Ingle, Tyler.

The church of England Temperance Society held their regular monthly meeting in St. Peter's school room on Monday evening the 25th inst. There was a large attendance. The Rev. W. H. French of Ontario gave a very interesting address, and an excellent programme of reading and singing was rendered by members of the society and others.

Mr. F. G. Foster of Fort Hope, but well known in Lindsay district has patented an article that will be of great service to everyone using a single buggy or a cutter. It is called plated shaft loop, which does away entirely with the leather loops or dampers to detour. It is strong and very safe; there is no need of buckle or loop with it. But just call and ask your harness maker to call you a pair. They are cheap.

Rev. Robert Wallace, of the Methodist Home, Belleville, is now on his way out from the country, to S. Y. Vancouver arriving last week in April, with a band of about a hundred boys, ages from 5 to 14, healthy well-trained, suitable for adoption or to help on farms. All applications enclosing references, and any other particulars, should be addressed to Ellen A. Hillebrugh Wallace, Belleville, Ont.

"China Hall and Silver Bazaar."

HETTGER'S OLD STAND, OPPOSITE NEW POST OFFICE

THE STOCK IS NEARLY COMPLETE

AND CONSISTS OF ALL THE

NEWEST GOODS

IN THE MARKET.

Wedding Presents our Specialty.

EVERY ARTICLE IN THE STORE SUITABLE FOR A WEDDING PRESENT.

Remember we will positively Undersell all other Dealers

MACFARLANE WILSON, DIRECT IMPORTER, CHINA HALL & SILVER BAZAAR

THE WIGWAM.

ITS UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS ASSURED.

Merchants in town having purchased our goods, confirming the fact of our ability to undersell these high priced people, who want the earth, but will give nothing in return.

3 Doors East of the Daly House will be found "The Wigwam," where the Union Jack floats.

Advertisement for Spring Clothing, featuring 'Call & See our Goods' and 'Vigorous Call to All'.

To all who want Square dealing we say come one, come all to "The Wigwam."

WYATT & TURNER, LINDSAY AND PETERBORO.

Advertisement for 'WHO'S YOUR HATTER?' featuring E. E. W. McGAFFEY.

Has made the greatest purchase of HATS ever brought into the Town of Lindsay. He has bought all of the celebrated Christie's Samples sent out by that extensive firm this season at less than 40c, on their sterling cost.

These Goods ranged in price from 9 to 48 Dollars a dozen and will be sold at less than any Hatter in Lindsay could buy them for.

Latest Shapes, the largest range of Colorings. And the most select assortment one could wish for.

Come and see them even should you not require a Hat. They are worth an inspection.

E. E. W. McGaffey.