BRAYERTON. Special to the Warden. In Brayerton, April 19th, John A. Brown, a wife and family well provided for, died in Brayerton, the fourth child of Mr. Roger Thompson, with diphtheria. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents in the loss of their family.

PORT HOPE. MAJOR HOWDEN, late of Millbrook, has moved his family to Port Hope, and has taken up his residence in the premises recently occupied by Mrs. Fraser, Professor Hill. Major Howden was an honorable and worthy citizen of Millbrook, and we welcome him to our pretty town. He was presented with either service on the eve of his departure from Millbrook.

POINT MARA. Special to the Warden. Mr. Thomas McEachern lost a foal from one of his valuable mares last week. It was a very fine specimen of the breed, and worth many times its value. Several of our lads have left here to sail with Capt. Gibberton this season on our large lake.
