

The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1889

A nation of hearts and a nation of heads... A nation of homes and a nation of lands...

FORK.

Why do not Victoria farmers go more into the hog raising? Few industries when properly managed pay better than the raising of hogs.

GRADUALLY GOING TO THE WARDEN'S FIRM.

One by one the public journals and leading men of Canada are coming to the Warden's position, the Warden's stand on the Jesuit question.

Once formally allowed, it cannot be disallowed, through it can easily be quashed in the courts of law.

This has been the Warden's stand first and last. No change, no compromise, there all thinking men are one by one taking their stand.

There seems no reason why the Government should not consent to have the legality of the Jesuit Act tested in the courts.

A FEW FEATS WORDS TO SIR JOHN THOMPSON.

There seems no reason why the Government should not consent to have the legality of the Jesuit Act tested in the courts.

It will not do for Minister of Justice Thompson to imagine, because the members of Parliament sustained the Government on the want of confidence motion...

Though beaten by William, Prince of Orange and Marlborough, in the Netherlands and Great Britain, in 17th and early 18th centuries...

Mr. Thompson should bear in mind the ministers come and ministers go, and the people of this fair land mean most decidedly that he is, not their master, but their servant.

Because Sir John Macdonald has entrusted him with the charge of the Department of Justice is no reason the will of the nation should be heeded.

We are willing to excuse Mr. Thompson for his blunder, his mistake in recommending the allowance of the Act, for no one had protested against it.

The Act is unconstitutional in referring to the Pope; therefore should Mr. Thompson have recommended its disallowance.

Canada is a federation of divergent elements. These, if properly blended, will become her future strength and greatness.

Mr. Thompson should remember that greater than he have fallen, and been wiped away. His calm, cool, placid, easy manner and careful utterance are all right and thought; but people want deeds and thought; they want responsible government.

TRUST "THE PEOPLE" NOT "THE PRIESTS"

"Bternal vigilance is the price of liberty," is a proven maxim.

History from the days of Adam and Eve is one continuous struggle of man and devil against sin.

The two systems are displayed in singular history, and are diametrically opposed to each other.

As a nation of hearts and a nation of heads, a nation of homes and a nation of lands, and the flag, Britain's, forever.

Let us no longer be the creatures of selfish priests or bishops. Let the statute books of Protestant Ontario contain many Acts pandering to Romanism much more humiliating to freedom than is the Jesuit Act of Quebec.

ANYTHING TO EASTERN REBELLION. ENCOURAGING WAR.

The Mail of Tuesday last in an article about the "half-breeds," adopts the once well known cry of the Globe in inciting the rebels to revolt.

"It will not do to forget that in the half-breeds we have a peculiar race to deal with, individually and as a people, we are prone to overlook this."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Ontario elections are likely to be sprung on at once. December will see a new house in Toronto.

Government aid is given to church schools in the territories. This should be stopped at once.

Canadian farmers are gradually getting their eyes opened to the necessity of increased duty on Yankee corn, wheat, cattle, pigs and flour.

As a manipulator of tavern licenses D. J. McIntyre is a worthy rival of the notorious Peter Ryan, of Toronto.

The Baptist leaders, clergymen and laymen alike, take a noble stand on the separate school question.

England for scores of years was cursed with quarrels between Saxon and Norman. So has Canada been.

Re the Corbyville railway accident. A friend from Belleville informs us that it is a custom of the conductor of the Madoc passenger train to place fog signals when running late.

West York conservatives held convention on Saturday last, and nominated Frank Turner C.E., as their candidate for the local fight.

Will our Presbyterian friends please note this. The Toronto Globe recently dilated on the Warden's "heresy" in hoping Christ's mercy was broad enough to include the righteous, the good among those who have not heard the Gospel.

Certain citizens of Toronto complain that while priests and other inferior citizens such as Father Rooney are regularly invited to Government House dinners in Toronto.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

On the afternoon of the 24th of May, at the Woodside athletic grounds in a game which distinguished itself by heavy hitting, the junior of Little Britain defeated the Oakwood team.
