MONDAY, June 18.—Rev. Dr. Shaw, of the Wesleyan Theological College...

At the recent session of the Montreal Conference I happened unexpectedly...

I believe petitions to the Government are needless, and equally are petitions to the Queen.

I believe that the appeal to the courts in the B.N.A. Act...

A justified settlement by the calm dispassionate judgment of a competent tribunal...

I believe that the appeal to the courts in the B.N.A. Act...

A complaint is made that $100,000 are to be taken from the superior education fund...

I believe that a quid pro quo should be guaranteed and provided by legislation...

Children Cry for Piche's Castoria.

What the matter is, it would certainly be better...
