PERMISS.—A well known councillor meeting a farmer recently shouted in his usual style "I say Mick" how is it your machine runs so stately? Path that is stately—sure I buy the Farmless late at Foley's, and betwixt you and I it's the best in the Dominion; Oh! better than ladies, costomers or spatulas, and cheaper at 50c, a gal.—86-34.

THE POST, THE EAST WARD AND THE 12TH JULY.—For several weeks preceding the glorious 12th July, the Post, and other kindred spirits in this town and district were offering up all kinds of fervent prayers for a failure, a wet day, a lot of drunken men, and all other misfortune or evil that could befall the occasion. The chief cause of such earnest devotion on the part of the romish church tools, and the agit heeters was "SAM HUGHES IS CHIEF MANAGER OF THE SHOW, AND WE WOULDN'T RATE TO SEE IT A SWINE."

But, owing to the loyalty of the staunch orangemen, and other true protestants, the day was the grandest success Lindsay or any other town in Ontario has ever had. The oranges were the finest, the most plentiful, the best drunker men than on any ordinary Saturday; the two trifling accidents occurred in the country, one being the doings of one of the Post's romish catholic friends, and the other was not by an orangeman, is short, everyone is loud in praise of the orangemen and their friends, except the poor bilious Post.

In order to make it appear that there was something amiss, the Post deliberately manufactures an impudent lie, to the effect that "Sam Hughes issued definite orders not to cross the river or go under the east ward arch." All we have to say is that the Post never was born to tell the truth. We will pay any man a reward of five dollars who will produce a copy of the Post telling the truth concerning Sam Hughes, or any other political opponent. The truth is in the Post's Dream.

The second is "Truth." Both are highly praised by the best London and New York critics. Then the father for the first time examined his son's library. He found box on box full manuscript, a cover here, poetry there. Many of his poems, it seems, have appeared in standard magazines, and articles bearing the name "Lennie Fogg" are found in the Cornhill Magazine, Harper's, The Century, and others. All this was unknown to the father or mother. He has now a novel in print for which he is to receive $5000 and a royalty. His first newspaper venture was the Johnsonian accident. We congratulate the parents and also the youth on their exceeding great fortune.

Swisslets.—Furnished rooms to let on Cambridge St., apply to F. O. box 204.—84-14.

Go to MORTON'S, Knowlton's block, William St., for ice cream and lunches.—84-14.

The Usbridge driving park association, will hold their first annual summer meeting on Monday, August 5th. Three purses of $50, $10, and $20 each, are offered for competition.

The Rev. Dr. Williams and family left for Grimby camp this week. The Rev. J. T. McLaughlin, B.A., of the Hamilton Ladies' College, will fill the Cambridge St. pulpit in his absence. Dr. W., expects to conduct the quarterly services on Sunday, August 4th.

Mr. A. E. Lee, who has been conducting the bankrupt stock drygoods business at the corner of John and Walton streets, has moved the balance of his stock to Lindsay, where he will open in the same line of trade. Mr. Lee is a wide-awake business man, and we hope his intention of returning to Port Hope again at an early date, will be realized.—Port Hope Times.

Mr. Geo. Blackwell of Mr. Hoob's school may well congratulate himself on the success of his pupils at the recent entrance examinations. One wrote at Osnabrook and passed well, obtaining 100 per cent in mathematics. Four more wrote in Lindsay, three of whom passed successfully, the remainder one took 75 per cent in several subjects, but failed by a few points in history.

Mr. J. G. Meeklin, engineer of the Grand Trunk Railway, was in town last week inspecting the main and advising with the road company to the best mode of building the roadway between Scugog and Carleton Place. All matters pertaining to the work have been settled and it is expected that work will commence within the next two or three weeks.—Port Perry Standard.

During a recent visit to Port Perry, among other old acquaintances we were pleased to meet Mr. T. J. Hall, general agent for the Singer sewing machine company. Having known Mr. Hall for many long years, as pupil and as a teacher, we have every confidence in his ability. He is sure to succeed, a result the more readily arrived by his gentleness and hearty bearing and cordiality. Including Lindsay and Ontario county, parts of Michigan. We therefore have great pleasure in recommending Mr. Hall to our many friends in that district.

THE REGULAR monthly meeting of the Church of England Temperance Society, will be held in St. Paul's school room on Monday evening, June 25th inst., at 8 o'clock, when Mr. R. H. Holland, police magistrate of Port Hope, will give a lecture. Also an excellent programme of recitations and singing by some of the best local talent. All are cordially invited.

THE FAMILY PORTABLE COOKER.—A good dinner of three or four courses can be efficiently cooked in the dining room for seven or eight persons, without odor or smoke, at a cost of one-half a cent for fuel, and a saving of from 10 per cent, to 20 per cent, in the fuel cooked. When you smell food being cooked, you are losing the best part of what you paid for. For sale by E. Woods.—87-14.

SALEM.—MARIPOSA.—BASE BALL.—The long looked for match between Salem and Kirkfield came off on Saturday last at Kirkfield, resulting in favor of the Salem team by a score of 26 to 5, and an inning to spare. The boys speak very highly of Kirkfield team, and the managers wish they were used while there. Mr. D. McMillan umpired the game in a very satisfactory manner. Following is the score:—

Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9. Kirkfield...0 1 0 0 1 0 3 0 0-5. Salem...2 10 1 2 1 2 3 5 -26.

The return match will be played at Crosswell next Saturday 17th inst. Game called at 2:30 p.m. All lovers of base ball should make arrangements to be at Crosswell Saturday as it will be one of the finest games of the season.

THIS HAS BEEN a week of plagues and persecutions. On the 18th inst., the methodists per Capt. Fremont Cranleigh's steamer. Donations went to Washburn, and had a pleasant time; on Tuesday last, the presbyterians in the same steamer went to the same place and had a most successful picnic; on Wednesday the Dehury life and drum band of L. O. G. M. went to Port Perry on the Alice Ebel and had the trip of the season; while on Thursday the congregation of St. Paul's English church, gave the choir an excursion to Ludiac Point, on Brockton lake.

THE RELAY OF DERRY.—The True Blues of Fenelon Falls and their brethren, and Orangemen of this district, purpose having a gala day on August 12th, the anniversary of the "Relief of Derry." John Charlton M. E. P., and John White M. P., have both accepted invitations to be present. Col. O'Brien has not yet accepted. Dalton McCarthy Q. C., M. P., has been invited, but will be in British Columbia and the North West on that date. A gala day is looked for, Lindsay True Blues purpose running an excursion from here on that date. The attendance will be large.

A LITTLE BRITAIN LITERARY WONDER.—Master Gerald Leslie Maxton Fogg son of W. H. Fogg Esq., Member of Literary Brides, has already sprung into world wide fame as an author and litterateur. He is not yet sixteen years old, having been born on November 6th 1873. When a lad he received a slight accident which nearly cost him his right hand, so he writes with his left. Being delicate, he studied at home, having a room to himself. His father gratified his taste by purchasing all kinds of books, and he is a voracious reader. Early in life he went to New York and is now engaged on the staff of the Herald at $2000 a year and all expenses paid, to go on a tour around South America and thence to Australia. The father supplied him with a copy of his first novel published in London, and also that his fifteen year old boy was author of two of the most popular novels of the time. His mother often joked him as a dreamer. His first novel published was "A Dreamer of the Past." The second is "Truth." Both are highly praised by the best London and New York critics. Then the father for the first time examined his son's library. He found box on box full manuscript, a cover here, poetry there. Many of his poems, it seems, have appeared in standard magazines, and articles bearing the name "Lennie Fogg" are found in the Cornhill Magazine, Harper's, The Century, and others. All this was unknown to the father or mother. He has now a novel in print for which he is to receive $5000 and a royalty. His first newspaper venture was the Johnsonian accident. We congratulate the parents and also the youth on their exceeding great fortune.
