There is only one man in the world now who can lick Jue, Ir Sullivan, and that man is Jack Barleycorn. As soon as John I., got through with Kilrain he challenged Jack and fought him all the way from New Orleans to Chicago, at which place Sullivan was knocked over almost every round, while liarleycorn came to the scratch for every encounter fresh as a daisy, though frothing at the mouth. BARR BALL. One of the most interesting Base Bath.—One of the most interesting mames of base ball was played here on Friday 26th inst., between the married and single men, the former styled "Orangemen" and the latter "Jeanite." The game was won by the former after a hard fought battle. Wm. Sugget pitched for the Orangemen and pitched a fine game, very few safe hits being made off him. We think him the finest twister that has ever here have vert and with a lew that has ever been here yet, and with a lew lessons would be competent for the League. The playing of Sugget and Elliott for the married men, and Robertson and Jeffrey for the single men is worthy of notice. Great
