FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Thomas Honey, who died on Saturday evening, took place on Monday to the Methodist cemetery, Little Britain. The British Lodge of United Workmen, of which the deceased had been a member, accompanied the remains to the place of interment. The religious services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Britton of the Methodist church, assisted by Elder Pitkey of the Christian church. The funeral service of the United Workmen at the grave was read by F. C. FAYTON, M. W., and W. BUCKLE, M. W.

THE 19th JUNE IN IRELAND.—The Belfast Weekly News of 26th July, received by John Kelly of this office, from Bro. Wm. Johnston P. G. M. of Ontario, East, contains a full report of the monster demonstration held by the brethren of that city on the 19th July. The choir was occupied by the Imperial Grand Master, the Right Honourable the Earl of Rose, and stirring addresses were made by the Marquis of Carmarthen, Bro. Col. Sanderson, Wm. J. Jones M. P., Wm. Johnston P. G. M., and others. Notwithstanding the vast assemblage, estimated at 100,000, everything passed off quietly. At the police court on the evening of the 19th, the judge, after hearing the case, Dr. Kane G. M., of Belfast, never felt proud of the the orators he so ably presided over.

THE POET SPEARS to the Dominion Day celebration in Lindsay. The success of the 12th July, partly due to our energy, has made it with. Dominion Day was not a success financially in Lindsay owing (1) to the fact that the show here on the 24th May; (2) to the dis-appointing manipulations in the interests of the Post's friends on other occasions; and (3) to the infamous lies circulated before July 1st by the Post's friends, to the effect that there was to be no celebration here, it having been ad-joined. The programme, however, was the best ever presented here, and here is the pinch for the Post; it was honestly carried out. But the 19th July was a grand, a complete success. That was our show. By the way when is the Post going to get up its Jesuit demonstration here? Or was the affair last week to Roby-goon its effort? "Dear grapes."

EXTRACT FROM A PRIVATE LETTER, to a Lind-say friend, on the Paris Exhibition:—"It is quite a wonderful place both in size and 'get up.' Altogether, it is about as that it would really take weeks to get right through it. Indian settlements, Egyptian streets and bazaars, wild Indian encampments are all there; and foreigners of all sorts and nations. As to the 'Grand Tower,' it is something too won-derful, too beautiful when illumined at night with the electric light. It looks like a mass of most exquisite lace work. Fancy there being a little train consisting of two carriages to take you up to the top. It goes up in a short and trim wide in and out until it worms itself up. What were enjoyed the most were the vast gardens, which were splendidly illu-minated with electric lights, even down to the grass which was filled with thousands of 'Fairy Camps.' The fountains too were wonderfully illuminated, so that, Charley said he felt as if he had got right away out of this prosaic world into beautiful fairyland."

JAMES LITTLE Esq., of Resboro, one of the most respected citizens of Ont., died at his home, after a long illness, on Saturday last aged 79 years. Deceased was born in Coran, Ireland, in 1810, and married a namesake though no relative. Miss Rhode Lytle from Fernemagh. On first coming to Canada he was so many staunch loyalists. Afterwards, Mr. Lytle settled in Emily, also went for his loyal citizens. For many years he has resided in Ont. Besides his widow there remain four children: all grown up i.e., three sons, Henry, R. G., James E., and Wm. H., and one daughter Miss Mary J. Four brothers in Canada, i.e., Edward Lytle, Thomas and Will-iam; besides John to Michigan survive him. Two sisters Mrs. Jones in Coran, and Mrs. Conner of Huntington, Quebec. The funeral on Sunday was one of the largest ever seen in the country. It took place in the Epis-copal Cemetery. Much sympathy is expressed for the widow and family of the deceased.

There is now no handsome hotel in the district than the Simpson House, Lindsay. From garret to cellar everything has been thoroughly painted and fixed up in most modern style. The building is exquisite. Just see it when passing and judge for yourself.

CHORUS IN SHOWDOWN.—In our office are sam-ple of full wheat and white hullless barley, the latter of which stands over six feet high and is very heavily headed. It was grown on the farm of Mr. G. W. Jones, lot 20, con. 13, Showdown, Haliburton County. Mr. Houghton, mail clerk, will accept our thanks for deliver-ing it.

FRANCIS.—Two public discourses will be delivered by Elder J. H. Lake, of the Re-organized church of Christ of Latter Day Saints, at Joe. Perin's, lot 13, con. 7, Fenelon, in the grove, on Sunday, August 18th, at the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 2 o'clock p.m. Will have a basket dinner. All are respect-fully invited to attend.—90-2.

THE FAMILY PORTABLE COOKER.—A good dinner of three or four courses can be effi-ciently cooked in the dining room for seven or eight persons, without odor or smoke, at a cost of one-half of a cent for fuel, and a saving of from 10 per cent, to 30 per cent, in the food cooked. When you smell food being cooked, you are losing the best part of what you paid for. For sale by E. Woods.—87-11.

KIRKFIELD.—Grand base ball match.—A base ball match between the Salem and Kirkfield teams will take place in Kirkfield on Saturday 10th inst., at 1:30 p.m. The promise to be one of the finest and most in-teresting games of the season as both teams are champions of their district, and each having won a game, no doubt the rubber will be well contested. All lovers of base ball should endeavor to be present.

AN EXPERIMENT to Surgeon P. J. Under the auspices of the Union Committee, will take place on the occasion of the opening of the new union church, next Thursday, Aug. 15th, on the palace row and steamer Dominion, to leave the wharf at 9:30 sharp. All the res-ident ministers of the town are expected to be present to assist in the exercises. Hot water and tables will be provided free for the excur-sionists. Tickets 20 cts. Children under twelve 10 cts.—90-1.

MUSICAL.—This town is to be favored with the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Church, recently from Theodor, who came here to take charge of the singing in the Cambridge street metho-dist church, and they are highly recommended for their great musical taste. Mr. Church has made a profession and conducted with much success musical institutes in other places, making voice culture the chief feature. There is room and need for such a person in this town, and we wish him great success and extend a cordial welcome.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN BROWN or FAN-ALAN.—On Saturday morning August 6th, Maria J. Shannon, beloved wife of Mr. John Brown, of lot 13, con. 7, Fenelon, breathed her last, after a long illness borne with Christian fortitude. Deceased was born in Christiana, Ireland, in 1838, and came to Canada when a young girl. In 1863 she and Mr. Brown were married and have long lived in Fenelon. There are seven fine children with the husband to mourn the departed one. The youngest is ten years of age. Mr. J. Shan-non is Lindsay is brother to the deceased. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended by friends and relations from far and near. The procession was more than a mile long on leaving the house. The mourning husband and family have the sympathy of the whole community.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE WARDEN.—Dear Sir,—In Friday's Mail literary notes, in reply to a question, who is the author of "Dreams" arrived at it, I think, to say the least, hasty. I am sorry that I am at present unable to give your readers positive proof in the matter. I can only say that we have those facts before us, that my son, a child in years, goes to New York and so attracts the attention of litera-ture, that he is at once employed by the New York Herald as a foreign correspondent, and is now in Brazil making a complete tour of South America via Cape Horn to San Fran-cisco, thence to Australia, at a salary that seems ridiculous for a school boy. In all his writings he has carefully concealed his iden-tity. That it takes a stretch of imagination to believe that a boy was the author of the remarkable books "Thoth and Dreamer of Dreams" I am free to admit, nor can I believe that he would claim anything he did not write. Yours respectfully, W. H. FOUR.

Do not allow your thoughts to wander into oblivion but remember that Ritchie is offering the biggest bargains in ready-made clothing, hats, caps, etc., ever offered in the county.—80-2.

DEATH OF MRS. MACMURCHY OF TORONTO AT VICTORIA, N. B.—On Monday morning about six o'clock, Mrs. Macmurchy with her husband, Archibald Macmurchy M. A., headmaster of Toronto collegiate institute, and three of their children, went for a bath in the Bay of Chaleur, near Bathurst, New Brunswick, they were spending the summer. At the same place were Rev. D. J. Macdonnell and family. Mrs. Macmurchy had just stepped into the water above the ankles, when without a moment's warning she fell forward lifeless. Instantly she was removed from the water and every effort made to revive her; but the apoplectic stroke had done its work with fatal effect. The message first received stating the cause of death to be drowning was entirely wrong. The body was immediately brought to Toronto, reaching home on Wednesday at noon. The family were met at Homeby near. The funeral took place on Tuesday night. Mr. Angus Macmurchy on Tuesday after-noon to Mount Pleasant cemetery and was very largely attended not only by citizens of Toronto, but by many from other parts of the province. The high school headmasters at present in Toronto attended in a body and presented a resolution of condolence to Mr. Macmurchy and family. Mrs. Macmurchy was associated with a number of well known organizations in Toronto and was a zealous Christian worker in connection with Old St. Andrew's church. She was daughter of James Ramsay of Lunenburg, Scotland, who came to Toronto in 1830. Five years later, his daughter Margaret Ramsay was married to Mr. Macmurchy. Three sons and three daughters with the deceased husband, mourn the loss of one of the first women of the city.

Common - Sense - Must - Prevail
