THE Sabbath school convention and pients which came off here on the 4th, instr, was a grand success. The Sabbath inet., was a grand success. The Sabbath schools of Minden, Gelert, Strafford, Blairhampton, Congress and Providence, all assembled at Ingoldsby, where they were met by a large excursion, Sabbath school party from Haliburton. Immediately after dinner Rev. W. Downs of Haliburton was called to the chair and a few introductory remarks were made by Rev. W. B. Tucker and R. H. Baker, then the subjects assigned to the several Sabbath school officers and Reverend gentleman were taken up, and appropriate speeches were made by H. M. H. Baker, Mrs. T. Cox, Hieles, M.Ar. R. H. Baker, Mrs. T. Cox, The decorations and finish are of Interior, specially as regards the carving and fret work.

The non-attendance of two of The decorations and finish are of mahogany, as indeed is the entire interior excepting the amoking room, which is finished in antique quartered oak. Passing on, the next feature is the ladies' ing on, the next feature is the ladies' room, which from being a mere toilet, has advanced to being a perfect boudoir, a retreat to the weary and travelworm ladies. Next along, is a library. This library contains 200 volumes. Every style and range of fiction, travel, biography and history is touched upon.

The library is a perfect gem. The bishings are passly superb. Above the several Sabbath schools and the Hallburton choir. The non-attendance of two of the speakers was accounted for. All seemed to be well pleased with the day's proceedings, and when the time had
