Fever characterizes these modern diseases. The result is a fatal increase of Brain and Heart Diseases — General Disease, Influenza, Paralysis, and Insanity. Cholera and Malaria are among the evil. The medicine best adapted to permanent good is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It purifies, enriches, and strengthens the blood, and thus strengthens every function and faculty of the body.

"I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for years. I have found it beneficial as:

for Nervous Debility caused by an ineffective life and a low state of the blood."

Henry Brown, North, Ohio.

"For some time I have been troubled with heart disease, and have found anything to be of service but Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I have only used it now for six months, but it has relieved me from my trouble, and enabled me to work some." J. P. Carrington, Perry, III.

"I have been a practicing physician for half a century, and during that time I have never found an powerful and reliable alternative and blood purifier as Ayer's Sarsaparilla." — Dr. M. Shastall, Louisville, Ky.

At Forty-five.

Halt — cry the bugles down the column's length . . . And nothing loath to halt and rest am I, yet summer's heat hath somewhat taxed my strength . . . And long the dusty roads before me lie.

The dew that glistened when the echoing horn called round to greet the waking day : The cool, sweet shades of the cheery morn, — The birds that throng the bugle's round.

The mounted states with eyes of fire, Past breathed sweet incense when we trod them down.

The wild wind bids and bloom of brightest morn.

Safe prophecy of Honor's radiant crown : Yet all that made the earlier marching light.

Here passed like scenes of the toy fight, And many a broken field of forest light.

Two hundred hundred and another thousand, Fall : On every smiling plain we saw them massed.

No standard gay, war's bright heralds page.

Our uniform, with gold and silver dress, Are sent and worn in battle's burning rage,

Most stained and marred with dust each glittering crest.

The bright young hearts that made a jest of life, And breathed at death, when we broke camp at dawn.

Chanted are their merry songs for shrill of strife, Declared their valor mourns a common gate.

And uttering here while at "rest at ease," I look the shadows falling to the east : Whistling, piano, recited home the little whose fees Declared us glory, wealth and love and peace.
