POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS.—A letter posted in Bethany on Saturday does not reach here until the following Tuesday, at least such is our experience. Rather a long time we should say for a journey of nineteen miles. The Wardens mailed here on Thursday night does not reach Glandine, five miles from here, hefore the following Monday. We suggest that the Inspector will look into the matter and ascertain the cause of the delay and have it remedied.

On Oct. 8th, a debate, British Army vs. British Navy, will take place at Bethany between Messrs. Wilson, Kennedy and McGraw, for the navy, and Benson, Kelly and G. Twigg for the army.

The Incourts Indian Medicine Co., that has located in our town for a short period of three weeks are doing a prosperous business. They are located near the G.T.R. station and give open air concerts. The Indians are dressed in full Indian costume, and while on the stage they are a curiosity and do not fail to entertainments consists of war dances, electing chief, following the trail of their enemy, and after he is caught taking his scalp. They also have genuine Indian medicines for sale, which we understand are giving universal estimation. Dr. Johnson and Dr. Richardson, who address from the platform nightly, are men of more than ordinary ability. The fancy rifle shooting that is exhibited nightly shows much skill.
