The following is a copy of the address sand.

Mr. Norman,—We, the members of the congregation of the naptiet church at Renboro, knowing that you are about to ever your connection with us as pastor, to further pursue your studies for the ministry, do sincerely regret that the time has been so short during your pastorate here. You have endeared yourself to the hearts of the members of the denset and congregation at 1989, not only as yourself to the hearts of the members of the church and congregation at large, not only as a christian minister but as a genial friend, and we praise God that He has made your labors in this part of His vineyard successful in winning souls to Christ; and we pray that He may still continue to bless your efforts in whatever field you may be called to labor later on. We beg you to accept this writing cesk, not for its intrinsic value, but as a small token of the regard in which you are held by the people of Reaboro, hoping when you open it to correspond with absent friends you will not entirely longer the once at Reaboro. We wish you every success in your studies and pastership is later years, and should it be the Divine will that all meet no more on earth, we trust we may meet in the happier clime
