FATAL ACCIDENT.—A young man named Elisha Johnston was killed on Monday morning while engaged in lumbering operations in Harvey. His brother Elijah, having a tree at the point of falling, shouted to Elisha to look out Elisha replied, "Where is the use of shouting before the tree begins to fall!" With this it started, and striking against another tree, broke, part of it coming back, striking Elisha on the head killing him instantly.

scribere are in arrears because some have not before now had a statement of account, others through torgetfulness. Now, however, our book keeper, the veteran K-ley, of Little Britain and Mariposa fame, is honoring each one in arrears with an account, ree is macing a very fair request, i.e., that each one should pay as far in advance as he is now in arrears. That is, one two years in arrears should pay two in advance, or in all four dollars; three years eix dollars; four years eight dollars, &c. Surely that is a fair request, Further, Mr. Kelley is sending everyone his account inverses into a fair consideration. account irrespective of any consideration, so if any errors or oversights occur, kindly con-sult us and they will be corrected.

REV. MR. DEWRY'S CONCERT. -The grand Thanksgiving Concert this year to be given in Bradburn's Opera House, Thursday evening, Nov. 7th, will without doubt be the finest treat to the music loving citizens of Lundsay that has yet been rendered. The singing of secompaniment of a clarionets, 3 victims, four brass horns one bass viol, one cello and organ will be worth the admission fee alone. Then the solos to be given by Mrs. Pilkie, Miss Foley, Mr. Dewey; duets by Mr. Smyth and Miss Jackson, Mr. Dewey and Mr. Mullett; the reciting by Miss Sanderson; the instru-mental selections by Mr. Johnston, cornet, Mr. Arthur Dingle; Sax-phone and the Sacred Medley by the orchestra ought to induce every lover of music and all who are in sympathy with the enterprising paster of the Queen St. methodist church to patronize, 25 cts.
