To the Editor of The Warder.

DEAR SAM. -I am anxious for the success the Tory organ. It is so much more reasonable to go to an opponent than a political submission to the corporate vete of romanism sulfer any pain. Possibly before this is in the strength of the orange of the orang does not some one put some brains and decency into the Grit party? Barr is a whining fellow and is ruining it. All the offices are given to roman catholics or free church men. We are used simply as voting machines. we ever got was the sweeping of Lindsay bridges. Make him stop that eternal snivell-We do not like it.

Yours very truly, A clear grit ex methodist prescher. Little Britain, Ont., Nov. 18th, 1889. P.S.—The insults heaped on the Rev. Dr. Sutherland and the methodists of West Lambton are enough to drive us from the grit ranks, but you will please try and fix things up all right. Do save the grit party from Wr. Sam. Hughes, Editor of The Warder. DEAR SAM, -My heart has been torn so of late on reading the columns of our party paper, the Post that I am much disturbed, and hence appeal to you as being deeply inter-ested in the success of the grits. To see the Post pandering so much to the ultramontane wing of romanism is truly distressing. Imagine the bones of John Knox rattling in their churchmen with romanism. Between you and me I think we can cary Mowat in another me! think we can cary movest in absence with D. J. McIntyre to keep the alliance in the dark. He blunders so that everything is in dark. He blunders so that everything is in danger of being spoiled. There is no other course open to us but to sppeal to THE WARDER, the organ of manly independence and fearless actions; for our own unhappy sheet fears to utter anything not inspired by romish influence. influence. Between us, under direction of the P.C., we all planned years ago to abuse you no matter whether you were right or wrong; but many of us have grown sick of the job We see you are right every time. However, this is in confidence. Publicly we damn you always: But, please do something to reinvigorate the grit party, and I shall ever pray.

Yours in love, (and venom),

THOMAS JONES,

Mr. Sam. Hughes, Editor of The Warder. DEAR SAM -As one sound in the ultramontane faith, I appeal to you to save the clear grit-romish party. Through the blundering stupidity of that fellow Barr, (and to your own exposures of us) many of our dupes are be-coming cold. Barr would persist in detailing take some steps to prevent the free church presbyterians, methodists, baptists and congregationalists from deserting us in a body.

Save the machine, and all will be well.

Yours in the faith, St. PETER O'LEARY. Parish Priest. O'Houlighan's Corners, Nov. 18th, 1889.
P.S.—We will grant you absolution for all your sine, past, present and future, if you will but save the grit-Romish party.

EDEN VALLEY-OPS.

On Thursday evening, 14th inst., Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wilson gave a birthday party in honor of their oldest son, Lewis. It was attended by the youth and beauty of the district. A few of Eien Valley's young men, who were uninvited, called in during the evening and were welcomed by the assemblage; so much so that they "cut out" a few of the swells, and "went home with the girls in the morning."

THE Eden Valley blacksmith is doing a good business, and is worthy of patronage. He is popular with all his neighbors.

SHOOTING MATCH. -No definite arrangements have been made regarding tention (though it was not mentioned in Albert and Regent streets.—Referred to street in the challenge) to have an oyster supper at the expense of the losing party, the only preventative is the want of a sufficiently large building to accommodate the large number expected to attend.

We fear the match will have to be postponed until our town hall is erected, when we will have a glorious benquet.

Stray Steer.

Strayed.

Bright gleam of shining gold in living green. What power ye hold to stir our hearts anew. Thou tiny blossom with sunshine in thy sheen.

Of little hands clasping thy golden treasure, The blue eyes brimful of childish gles: Unwearied feet, tripping to happy measure, The gladsome voice, resistless in its plea, will;

But, Thou knowst, 'tis hard "Thy will be done" to say.

EDITOR WORLD; Your fair Boston cor-

If I had spoken disloyally of Canada, the Boston papers would have been quick to report my remarks. It I had been untrue to my country my audience, most of whom were "British Americans," would not have been so Now, Dear Sam, do try and influence Mc-Intyre, Barron, Hugh O'Leery, Barr and Mallon, to see that fair play is meted out, and that the Post is kept in decent bounds, for all Most of them snook hands with me at the close of the meeting, and many of them told me they were from Canada. I would not have given "great satisfaction to the orange-men" if I had been unpatriotic. The audience did say "shame" when I described the vote on the jesuits bill in the House of Commons. I do not think many Canadians will be sorry
