the clerk to an oyster supper provided by Mrs. Braden. An enjoyable evening was passed.

The above case arising out of an indictment The above case arising out of an indictment of Mr. Barr, publisher of the Canadian Post, by Dr. P. H. Clark of Lindsay, for criminal libel was concluded so far as the preliminary investigation can go last Friday morning. The police magistrate, after ruling out on one technicality or other, several of the most serious charges against Mr. Barr still found suf-ncient to commit him for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction. Mr. Barr was admitted out on bail. The charges ruled

Mr. McIntyre, counsel for Mr. Berr, evidently smarting under the stings of the previous day, professed to believe The Warder's report of the investigation was a contempt of ourt. He was treated with silent contempt by the magistrate, and laughed at by everyone else. If our report of the affair was not as accurate as a summary could be, then we shall willingly leave the matter to the judgment of the staunch reformers present. We shall not ask one single conservative to give judgment; but shall willingly abide by the decision of these staunch and noble citizens, Meesrs, Harvey Rogers, Joseph Coady, Clark Birchard, David Annis, all of Marip sa, and J. Birmingham of Lindsay, who were pre-sent. Is that fair? Our report was correct, and McIntyre knows it.
