TAZE-AN-TUAN-YU K'ANG was the doubtless explications i ame of the Ch nese Empress who recently die !!

Tor youngest member of her Majesty's Privy Council is H. R. H. Prince Leopold, aged twenty-seven; the oldest, the Right Hon. Sir John Mac Pherson Macleod, K.C.S.I., aged eighty-eight. THE architect of Cardiff Castle and Cork

Cathedral, who has lately died, Mr. William Bruges, A. R. A., was the owner of drinking-cups of crystal inlaid with rubies, which must have been too exquisite for anything less than nectar or ambrosia. WHEN at home at Hawarden on Sunday Mr. Gladstone always reads the lessons for the day, in the parish church, with modesty and nervous hesitation. His voice is mellow, and his expression poetic, and people go miles to hear the Premier perform this the great subject of wives. For the wife of births and memorials of death that fill this A LARGE conservatory is to inclose the mansion which is being built for Mr.

Leopold de Rothschild, and the expense of keeping it filled with flowers will not be more than fifty thousand dollars a yearenough to keep imitators at a distance.

ANOTHER Jewess, a daughter of Bischoffs heim, known over here through his connection with Erie, has married another Earl, the Earl of Desart, and the marriage was celebrat ed, after the Rosebery precedent, first at the Registrar's and then at the church, as by law established. The stream of aristocracy in England is becoming largely impregnated There is no foolish fluttering about it, no rail.

looks like her grandmother, the Queen, and is good-hearted and serious.

At the marriage in England lately of a leading New York lawyer, Mr. Charles Pierre Shaw, to Miss Lizzie Fisher, the brother of the bridegroom cabled his congratula- that has to be played out before the curtain and modest maiden whom he courted so cavadollars. Among the presents were bracelets, melodrama of marriage-some call it rings and a flask, each piece covered with comedy, but they know nothing of the dark resemble somewhat the first Napoleon, tragedy; but these fail to see the many making a point on the historic curl over the comical absurdities of wedded life. To the forehead. An illustration of his indefatigable nature is furnished by his reply to the the fate of the two leading characters, and question why he did not offer himself for deeply touching the destinies of those in election to the Senate. He answered, "I minor parts, but always having an underplot sibly some of his over-weening conceit is am not old enough," though his cross of the of rather low comedy. The courtship, how-Legion of Honor dates from 1842.

the wife of Constantine Mouravieff, who pre- etta. But the plot of the whole thing is lord and master, and getting from her pared the indictment at her late trial, but radically wrong. Whatever may have hapher Polish governess set her against him. pened in a golden age, of which we hear She started on her Socialist mission at the only the misty murmurs of a far-off poetry, age of sixteen, and for twelve years ex- the women of this period woo and win the yoke gracefully, his wife will be easy with posed herself to poverty in that cause, in men. There are boys, indeed, who play at a which she lost her beauty. For eighteen pretty little game called making love, and months at one time she was a washer-woman, talk about wooing and winning some bright was never suspected.

the greatest effect, within the present cen- tell us of our savage ancestors, and is kept tury, in emptying the chatcaux and castles in up, as are so many other things, to please France. Fortunes have so often been divid. the women. Truth to say, the girls are ed down, that there are fewer great incomes fairly bold about the business, and hardly than there were among the French aristo. seek to hide the fact that they try to woo to fetch and carry is a delightful pastime for cracy. It thus happens that a French noble. and win the men of their choice. It speaks man who inhabits a chateau may only have volumes for the conceit of modern manhood furnished one nook of it, and his roomy that many still think they choose their own stables may have only one or two horses at wives, and are not chosen by them. Yet the stalls. To withstand the effects of the any one who has had even but a glimpse abolition of primogeniture, many French into the sacred circles of society can see at way to his wishes, after they have been families agree to enjoy their revenue in once that this wooing and winning by men, command. But full chateaux, with several if it ever really flourished, has gone out long generations of relatives in them, even under ago. It is not the daughters now who need to the gaze of a wondering world. Women the methodical life of Frenchmen, may not chaperons, save to please an effete propriety: be permanently successful.

vich, the cousin of the Czar, so long detained to stop them from making fools of themat his father's chateau of Paulovsk, has selves and their families. There has of late been sent to the fortress of Dunaburg, there been a sentimental attack upon that wise that a wife is having all her own way. She to be kept for an indefinite period. The French system under which boys are preevent is variously accounted for at St. Peters- vented from pawning their future for a of power. He may seem to be the master, first weeks the baby lives in a very confined burg. Some say that the Prince, during passing fancy. But in this, as in so many his exile, has attended revolutionary meet- matters, they order things better in France. ings in disguise, and, accompanied by a The very notion of a youth choosing his own Colonel of the political police, likewise in wife is absurd. Bah! he is not to be trusted refusing to take the oath of allegiance to the being chosen by adventurous girls, while to the ridicule of the philosophic few, who forming the idea of an external world, he

Dr. Thomas, a dentist of Vienna, was selves. summoned recently to Kirwin, in Russian Poland, to perform a dental operation upon then, with a keen eye to his position and the Countess Waleska. At the border prospects, the modern maiden becomes a station of Radjwilow he was stopped, requir- wife. Now her ambition is achieved; new ed to show his passport and have his baggage is she going to begin the world, and see life searched. His name at once awakened sus- with her own eyes and on her own account picion, from his resemblance to that of Now she will have her own way. The only Thomassen, the infernal machine man of true and complete definition of a wife is Bremerhaven; and when the officials found woman who always has her own way.' Let mysterious apparatus in his baggage this any one who dislikes it-and there will be suspicion became fixed and positive, and the many from both sides who do so-find unfortunate dentist narrowly escaped faring another equally applicable and exhaustive. roughly. He tried to explain the working There is no doubt about the matter in the of the apparatus, but without much avail; minds of those who are not swayed by pique and when he was finally allowed to go on or prejudice. Every married woman who his way a detective accompanied him until knows and appreciates the power of her street sidewalks, semething like portions of the woo and win the modest maidens they dollar or two in the course of the year. And the elevated railway in New York, but on a imagine. But when we come to read life yet the same people will often bewail the into their houses the same scenes which they smaller scale. The new railway is located on and hard facts, it is all plain sailing. Surely stony hard-heartedness of the God-forgetting had witnessed without, met them again and at last the conclusion was arrived at the outskirts of Berlin, and extends from the no one will dispute that the feminine heart world, that does not, because it will not be- within. The walls of their rooms and the that smuggling must be going on. The value suburb known as Lichterfeld to Yeltow, a has a will of its own. Through infancy and lieve, and insist strenuously on the necessity pottery of common use were all painted with of the tobacco seized at Seattle would be distance of about two miles. The passenger | childhood, at school and at home, even when | which is laid on all Christians to exercise the | exploits of gods and men. Their very mir- | $12.50, and here, with duty paid on it, $18. cars are narrow and short, carrying only 14 'out' and marriageable, girls never get a most unceasing watchfulness because the rors and pins were adorned with human The value of the syrup at Seattle $3, and passengers. There are two tracks. The chance of having their own way. They eyes of the suspicious, watchful and unsym- figures, not one of which wanted its mean- here with duty, about $5.50 per keg. So it cars are propelled by a dynamo-electric therefore look forward to wifehood as to pathetic unbelievers are so constantly upon ing. Thus to the Greeks the works of their is apparent that there was a nice little marmachine, which receives electricity through freedom, and then all this pent-up wilfulness them. Well, of course it may be very un- artists were not merely things to admire, gin for the smuggler. To what extent this the track and a suspended cable, from an comes out with full force upon their happy philosophical for men of the world to judge and symbols of worship, they were geogra- contraband trade has been carried on it is electric generator, one at each end of the husbands. To have their own way is what of a religion simply by the actions of some phy, history, religious teaching, and literaline, each generator driven by a sixty horse they have worked for, dressed for, and of its followers, but it is not altogether un- ture. For the common people the rare engine. An average speed of twenty miles flirted for; and whatever the men of their natural. If we see a man who professes open- scrolls of parchment and papyrus which held tried as experiments at Berlin and Dussel- after marriage to find out their mistake. The rails of the line and the wheels of the married purely as a business speculation, giving, it may be, five, or ten dollars to help Greek civilization, Greek history, if he is artist. Some time ago its owner, observing conduct the current of electricity and pro- and not always with their own husbands. cious cause in the whole wide world; as tion, and knows nothing of what occupied pense of thoroughly renovating it would be tached to the locomotive. These brushes passed by for such things. But all these victions, though we may not go the length of touched a high-edged rail running in the more serious matters I leave to the clergy setting down his religion as wholly a delutouched a high-edged rail running in the more serious matters I leave to the ciergy setting down his religion as wholly a delumidable of two other rails and insulated from the ground by a longitudinal sleeper. In wife should be the queen of her home, and the lawyers. It is a truism that every sion. The Christian religion is too important taken down bit by bit, every stone being numbered by a misguided sense of humor. Suffering, bered and carefully packed in wooden cases, of gymnasts, and Lucy has taken her place.

The British rough is probably a deluminated whose personal supervision the chateau was sion. The Christian religion is too important taken down bit by bit, every stone being numbered at thing to be kept exclusively for pulpits and of gymnasts, and Lucy has taken her place. (according to the season) collect in the a married man than to obey his wife, by must be and ought to be very narrowly as reported by a streetloafer, aptly illustrates packing of its fragments, and transport of the signal, leaps from a horizontal to a perpenrail interfere very seriously at times with its how few there are who will admit that they conductive capacity. It has accordingly never have their own way. Why is it, In Paris false ears are a new manufacture "was an old man among the flames, Jump, prising owner of Montal Castle obtain for its been determined on the Berlin electric line then, I ask, that even in the early days of for the toilet. Ladies who think they have you stoopid, I cried; and jump he did and pieces the price he has set upon them, he

The Senelon Salls Gazette

VOL. IX.

FENELON FALLS, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1881.

AROUND THE WORLD.

pages to Mrs. Abraham Lincoln on the death of her husband, which has never been pub-

A Kentuckian stole four swarms of bees, carried them eleven miles in the night, set up new hives and handled the whole busialways get one under the ear.

not been boiling hot.

ness without a sting. The wicked do not

A little boy fell through an open scuttle into the room below, at Belleplain. The fall would not have hurt him much if he had not alighted in a tub of water; and the water would not have killed him if it had

According to the first rough calculation, the total population of the Lieutenant-Governorship of Bengal, as ascertained by the recent census, is 68,750,747, being an increase of over 9 per cent, on the previous census.

According to the new orders, the British

QUEEN VICTORIA wrote a letter of four

AS TO WIVES.

By a Bachelor.

They have, of course, much to unlearn,

COURTSHIP IS BUT A FARCE

rises upon the serious business of life, the be found behind the scenes. Others, again, The late Emile de Girardin was said to of a melancholy turn, speak as if it were a philosopher, it is a melodrama, dealing with ever, has to be got through somehow; and take his proper place as his wife's husband. Sophie Pieoffsky was once intended for ments that it becomes a neat little comedimany, nowadays, so reduce its farcical eleand so faithful that her patrician descent star of their horizon. But this is merely lucky husband clings to the ancient superlooked upon as childish chatter by a sane and THE abolition of primogeniture has had sensible generation; though it survives to they can look well enough after their own affairs. It is the eldest sons who need to be The Grand Duke Nicholas Constantino- sternly controlled by some sort of chaperon, they think they are choosing for them-

dorf exhibitions in 1879 and 1880, were In pursuing this privilege of having their sacrifice of another; if we see such a man cation which raised them out of the narrow is for sale at the moderate price of forty worked by locomotives whose mechanism own way, some wives do strange things. spending five hundred dollars on a single limits of the present. How then can any thousand dollars, and on view in the vast resembled a fixed dynamo-electrical machine. For it frequently comes to pass that, having supper, or a diamond ring, and one aspire to understand Greek manners, atcliers of M. Roll, a well-known Parisian locomotive engines were made of use to they take a fancy to fall in love afterwards, the spread of what he says is the most pre- ignorant of the chief source of Greek educa- it to be so terribly out of repair that the exduce the necessary motion. The second In this respect women are unfortunate; they men of the world who may have or may not constantly the largest part in the minds of greater than that of building a modern and conductor conveying the current produced cannot work off their surplus folly and pas- have our own religious views, we say we have the people? by the stationary machine to the locomotive sion as men do before marriage, and so they a perfect right to watch such a man, and to was connected with a system of brushes at- are apt to get foolish when the time has suspect very strongly the depth of his conpractice, however, it has been found that the absolute mistress of all that is under her religious newspapers. Every intelligent human and animal, has for him a comic side, as well as the carved ceiling and wall panels, this arrangement is exposed to serious inter- roof-tree. Now this of course includes her man is interested in it, and all phases both and he takes his pleasure in kicking a wom- chimney pieces, and other parts. The pullruptions. The wet, snow, and mud which husband; yet, though nothing more becomes in itself and in the conduct of its professors, an or torturing a cat. An incident at a fire ing down of the venerable building in detail.

always put the inevitable card cake which tell me that another friend

FALLEN IN THE FIGHT.

No married man can be a good judge on I lay them reverently beside the notices whose character and conduct is to be con- private place, and let them fade and sidered must be either his own or his neigh- crumble away together as records of the bor's. How can a man deal fully and happier past. Still it must never be forfairly with his own wife? He is sure to be gotten that, as no married man is ever fit to blind to her beauties, or, in his early state have his own way, it is always well that the of happiness, utterly oblivious of her blem- wife should firmly take the reins into her ishes. With his neighbor's wife, it is just hands, or there would be no guidance any-THE Princess Carolath, who eloped with he will discover charms that are wholly hid chosen for his money or position, and picked add that he seems, at least by his father's neath the skin. Count Herbert de Bismarck, has proved that den from her husband, and pass over defects out of a mob by one whom he stupidly account, to be a good-sized, chubby little from prejudice which is needful to the con- drowsy order if you will, but, all the same, wives in general. This cool and calm study to him who struggles to regain that freedom passion, and, above all, no poetry. It is all It is only when a woman becomes a wife The three daughters of the Princess of hard, clear, cold common sense, but none that you can see her true character. Before Wales, differ greatly from each other. the less is it an interesting, if not an en- this epoch she is so cramped in conventionown conceit, is fairly startled and shaken sense, and these are very soon brought into I recollected that lemon juice in sufficient lierly soon shows him she is A WOMAN WITH A TONGUE his innocence, and wants to know if he would like to treat her as a child, as did her nurse. and her governess, and her mother, and her chaperon, to keep up the proprieties. Posgiving up with a sigh the good old copybook and church-service mottoes about being her nothing but honour and obedience. If this sensible conclusion be quickly come to, all may yet be well; and should he bear the him, and let him have his own way in little things, and look as docile as a dove when company is present. But in case the unstition of his own authority, then there will succeed in having her own way. To watch a woman training her husband those who are inclined to philosophic study. With heaven-born instinct the wife knows exactly when to smile and when to frown, and where a touch of the whip or tongue will be most effectual. Graciously giving suggested by herself, she turns him round her little finger, and holds him up laughingly are not generally humorists; but they cannot help feeling the fun of the thing when they so successfully manage their husbands. who all the while think they are managing them. This artful appearance of innocence and obedience is, indeed, the surest sign is not so foolish as to care for the semblances and really act as the figure-head of the vessel; but the wife rules the rudder, and steers indifferent to the existence of everything the ship whithersoever she may chance to lying beyond certain narrow limits of space.

see thing as they are, and smile serenely at the spectacle of these bold British lions being driven, each in single harness, in the chariot of Home. They are but poor company, these married men; being either tamed out of knowledge, or else restless and chafing under the bit and the reins. Their wives are far more sociable and amusing, because they are women of the world, who have shown the strength of their character by choosing men for husbands, and then having everything their own way. The subject is really inexhaustible; but I must close these few hints as to the study of wives in general.

The Meanness of Some Christians. choice may think about themselves and ly to hold the belief that he had been saved the writings of authors were far out of The original electric railways, which were their attractions, it will not take long from a fate as terrible as it is prolonged, by reach; it was less through the ear than old tale. I have a little drawer wherein I false hips, false calves, false ears-what next? those outrages.

Some Baby Days Scientifically Treated. The Cornhill Magazine. be an exemplary infant-healthy, good-na- great importance at the present time: tured, and given to that infantile way of re- I was taken sick April 14 with what I the organ of respiration, has not the deep My head I could not suffer to lie upon the pilactive play. According to this record, the quantity was a sedative and would lower the worms. Figs, almonds, apricots, oranges, pursued by a company of soldiers. They sense of touch is the first to manifest itself. heart's action, and by so doing might relieve and lemons are unsurpassed. The olive drive him up a hill and stand in a dozen of life when there is certainly no sound for squeezed all the juice I possibly could out of groups of fine diamonds, uniquely set upon a corners and shady episodes that are often to when he talks about Clifford immediately clasped the parental added about two tablespoonsful of water, and have her own way. When he talks about finger which was brought into the hollow of drank it. I then opened the rind and suck- since the appearance of the Phelloxera in and spears of the enemy. Home and Happiness and the Duties of a its tiny hand. And this seems to agree with ed the balance of the juice. In about twenty France, has found a fresh market amid the the doctrine laid down by evolutionists—a minutes I took another lemon, and used it in wine-manufacturers of that country; the doctrine hinted at by Aristotle—that the the same manner. In a short time I felt very other grapes are among the finest of the special senses, sight, hearing, &c., are modically cold, as if I were lying in proximity to a world. Such are the capabilities of a land badge as follows: English regiments, a fications of touch, and evolved by fine differ- large mass of ice. My pulse had dropped to that ignorance and indolence have turned rose; Scotch regiments, a thistle; Irish entiations of the tactual surface. The march 60. I shut my eyes to see if the unpleasant into a wilderness. The vintage is so clumsily regiments, a shamrock; and Welsh regiof infantile intellect during the second, visions were gone. I not only found that trodden and fermented everywhere, except ments, a dragon. The title of each regiment thus laughed out of him, and he agrees to third, and fourth days appears in the case they were gone, but by placing my hand in the islands and near the scaports, that will be borne on the shoulder strap. The now considered to have been exceedingly upon my head I found that the pox on my wine which ought to command the markets facings and officers' lace will be, for English rapid. On the second day there was obser- head had gone also. My head was bathed of Europe, not only is unable to bear exved by Clifford's papa a distinct movement with gumous-like fluid, which had exuded portation, but would spoil before the end of pattern of lace; Scotch regiments, yellow of the head in response to sound, On this from the pox. It stained the napkin I had the year unless mixed with resin—a practice facings, thistle lace; Irish regiments, green same day the previously futile attempts to applied to wipe it off. It seemed as if each bring the two eyes into harmonious action had given up its contents, and wilted down In fact, dislike of field-labor amounts to a blue facings, retaining the national lace. were crowned with a measure of success, and to a level with the surface. The same had mania, and except at harvest-time no male is The old custom was to call young women they were observed to converge for an in- taken place with these upon my face. My ever to be seen at work : like other noble Miss and older women Mrs., the age of 30 stant on the father's face, if held invitingly beard was glued together with the same kind savages, he sits at home with case while his being about the dividing line, regardless of near. By the fourth day the command of of fluid. Those upon my neck had not burst- helpmate scratches the soil and bows her whether they were married or not. Elizabeth the eye was far greater, and now it was posted, but had shrunk away and diminished in head beneath the weight of burdens. The A. Kingsley writes to the Women's Journal sible to notice the effect of an object in attracting the organ in a particular direction, hours comfortably. I awoke, I presume from dwellings is such as may well be imagined. vived. "It is annoying," she says, "to be be war to the knife, and none can tell what if not too far from that of the point previcold, although I had plenty of cover upon Even in a priest's or farmer's house furniture introduced to Mrs. Brown, a silly, superhowever, could one see any capability of fol- felt so well pleased that I took a little more or three wooden stools; whole villages are next moment to be presented to Miss Wilpowers of movement generally made rapid to sixty-seven for thirty-six hours, when all progress during these four days, since it is eruptions had disappeared from my skin. I recorded that on the fourth day Clifford, bid good-bye to the lemon juice and small- floor in company with the insects of the like Mrs. Brown. having clasped his father's finger, made what pox. was apparently an abortive effort to carry it to his mouth. The father judiciously abstains of lemon juice to abort any and every case of from doing more than hinting at the possibility of this being a survival of a deeply or- to myself, that I look upon it as a specific of ganized cannibal instinct. The fact that as much certainty and power in small-pox as infants carry everything to their mouths quinine is in intermittent fever. I therefore seems to point either to the presence of some publish my experiment, hoping every phyprimitive omnivorous instinct, or what seems | sician having a case of small-pox will give it a at least equally reasonable, to the faat that fair trial and report the result to me. the lips are a part of the organ of touch, and, indeed, among the most highly endowed parts of the organ, which may have been earlier stages of the development of the race

CONTRABAND GOODS. used in conjunction with the hands in the The Noble Red Man Resorts to Smuggling. world. Clifford, at least, was supremely wish. Every wise married man knows this Even his own papa appeared to cease to exist of the officers the evidence obtainable was indisguise, and likewise a friend of the with a horse or a dog, how much less a to be so, and bows to the inevitable. But, for him as soon as he moved a yard or two sufficient to establish a case. On Wednesthen, few husbands are wise; and they, away. One is disposed to guess that, if at therefore, only too often expose themselves this time of life the infant were carelle of popular willow and agreement agreement and agreement and agreement Others will have it that he is imprisoned for refusing to take the oath of allegiance to the being chosen by adventurous girls while to the ridicule of the philosophic few, who would attribute porsistence to an exceedingly on small number of objects. He appears to lead

Greek Surroundings.

Macmillana Magazena. Surely there never lived a people on the life of which external surroundings worked with deeper effect than on the Greeks. Certainly no people was ever so surrounded on ful investigation the officers found all sides by the works of its own handsworks which acted at every moment on the no merit of his own, but by the heroic self- through the eye that they received the edu- the commencement of the sixteenth century,

The British Rough.

Lemon-Juice and Small-Pox.

The following account of the cure of small-I may begin my sketch of the early history pox by lemon-juice is given by Dr. James of this boy by remarking that he appears to Moore, a surgeon of Ironton. O. It is of babies of a similar age. Although a bonny from those upon the scalp. By 10.30 o'clock increased in the last 20 years, but still sideration of wifehood as an institution, and asort of calm content—that is wholly wanting boy, he began life in the usual way—with a the pain was almost intolerable. My nurse good cry; though we now know, on scientific had retired and was sound asleep in bed beof married women has its fascinations. which he so foolishly abandoned at the altarconsequent on the first action of the air on | not let them touch the foot-board of the bed.

So strongly am I convinced of the power small-pox, if administered as I administered it

For some time past the authorities at this port have had reason to suspect that merchanlise in small quantities was being smuggled across from Puget Sound. A strict look-out mation which led him to believe that he was impossible at present to state.

THE TRACK OF THE SMUGGLERS. at the foot of Cormorant street. He knock-

A Good Scheme.

The Chateau de Montala, celebrated specimen of Renaissance architecture, dating from commodious mansion, resolved upon its demolition, but in such sort that should more than pay the cost of that operation. To this end he employed an eminent architect, under the feeling which seems to animate this cases to Paris cost a trifle under fifteen thousclass: "On the roof," said he, to a friend, and dollars. Should, therefore, the enterto conduct the current by means of a copper will have made a clear profit of at least twenwire properly insulated, and attached to taking home an old friend, so fearful of under luxuriant tresses of false hair, fasten much in all my life!" The jest is a brutal ty-five thousand dollars by a totally new and machine when it injured Lizzie Daven. pillars erected alongside the line, the current staying late at the club, so apologetic of being conducted from the copper wire to the their wives existence? Ah! me, it is an show. False hairs false teeth, false breasts, of mind of the scoundrels who perpetrate ruin of no inconsiderable historical and archæological importance.

Disckwood's Magazine. It would be hard to name any other peo. The largest increase is in the Chota Nogpore ple, undeniably clever, and possessed of division. Calcutta and suburbs are almost considerable educational appliances, that stationary, the total being 683,329, against can boast neither of authors, painters, sculp- | 686,684, in 1876. lieving the pressure of his animal spirits supposed was a severe cold, having had my tors, nor composers. There is no native which is, I believe, known as crowing. Not hair shingled the day previous. Friday theatres; native literature is confined to believing in the classification of temperament 15th, I was quite feverish, with severe pain journalism; and the fine arts are so utterly adopted by the physiologists of a past age, in the head and back. Saturday, 16th, I was neglected that even the jangling of a pianothe father forbears describing his tempera- no better. Sunday, fever somewhat reduc- forte is an unusual sound: hence, if the ment. Also, not being a phrenologist, he ed, I presume by the aid of aconite, which creative power of a nation really bears a conhas omitted to take elaborate measurements had been administered to me by Drs. Morris stant ratio to its general vigor, we cannot as hopeless, though the other way; for here where. The man who could thus tamely be of his cranium. For my lady readers, I may and Dunn; eruption very distinct underlenes. A powerful consideration strengthens the way of the transgressor is hard, as she of which he is only too painfully aware. A thinks a weaker vessel, is certainly not fellow, fair and rosy in tint, with bright blue takably that of small-pox. Tuesday morning of agriculture and of the rural population. Monday morning, 18th, eruption unmis- this conclusion—the hopeless backwardness is sick in an Italian town, and would have man's own wife is too close to him, his worthy to have his own way any longer. If eyes, and a limited crop of golden hair of an eruption very abundant, crop increasing M. About calculated that continental remains appallingly small. Even on the wide Argive and Bootian plains, which Easter Pilgrims at the Jordan. Stanley's Christian Institutions.

ceed to an Indian tenement on Store Street, ing in naked; most, however, with white two hours the shores are cleared; with the same quiet they remount their camels and horses, and, before the noon-day heat has set in, are again encamped on the upper plain > when she comes to years of discretion, if brother James was invested in Mexican and death or the law does not sooner interfere other such securities. Lord Beaconsfield with her foolhardiness, she will voluntary never sold them, and his estate has profited quit her business of hazardous circus per- by their recent rise. forming. In leaping from a high pedestal to the arms of a suspended athlete, in Philadelphia, a year ago, her head struck an iron post and she was almost killed. She performed the same feat again, however, as Moscow correspondent of the Cologne Gazette of gymnasts, and Lucy has taken her place on the catapult. She places herself, lying signal, leaps from a horizontal to a perpenthem for their homeward march.

ure would hardly be perceptible.

silence over that silent plain ; so silent that,

but for the tinkling of the drum, its depart-machine when it injured Lizzie Daven. ed by Baron Albert Grant.

NO. 14.

The Greeks. Their Agriculture.

THE question of rebuilding the Tuileries is again agitated. Mr. Garnier, the architect of the Grand Opera House, proposes to take down what remains of the palace, and to place the new building further back, and not connect it with the two wings. It is proposed to establish there a museum of modern art, to which the pictures in the Luxemburg will be transferred. suffered for the necessaries of life but for neighbor's too far away, for anything like royal generosity, Count Herbert having reliable to shape his own destiny, he should not be allowed to direct the fate of he boasts of the name of Clifford. The early forehead scale of head needs and solve and there is that condition of mental bondage in another. But this, of course, may be a the boasts of the record do not I must confess. In the property of the record do not I must confess. In the property of the record do not I must confess. In the property of the record do not I must confess. In the property of the record do not I must confess. In the property of the record do not I must confess. In the property of the record do not I must confess. In the property of the record do not I must confess. In the property of the record do not I must confess. which he is bound, that makes every married merely personal prejudice. There are, howwhich he is bound, that makes every married merely personal prejudice. There are, howviold any very striking observations. For the yield any very striking observations. For the they were pretty evenly distributed, but not than 200,000 were actually under cultiva- quite impervious to the remarks of the lookquestions, wholly valueless. No; it is a who lets his wife do as she will lives in a have been content to vegetate like other of parts. By evening I was suffering intensely. have been content to vegetate like other ed parts. By evening I was suffering intensely The proportion may have been somewhat when they arrived at the door of the palace.' An Alabama father committed suicide because he thought his wife loved their daughboast something resembling roads, cultiva- ter more than she did him; a California girl tion appears in insignificant patches; on the because her father married a woman who significance which certain pessimistic philo-sophers have attributed to it. Science resting upon my hand. I had by this time strips of soil that, in the similar limestone table and a satisfactory quantity or quality. Wales differ greatly from each other. Louise, the eldest, is the Parisienne, gay and affable, with her mother's grace and features. The less is it an interesting, if not an enthis epoch she is so cramped in convention, alities that her very soul is kept covered up, and her heart has no room for healthy and her heart has no room for healthy would probably explain in a similar way a proposably explain in a simi and reserved, with a cultivated intellect the same lofty summit of independence, are wedding-day, when, from a chrysalis condition, she comes out a butterfly, or a bee, or gestive of a cynical contempt for his new box of seidlitz powders, and one ounce of scarcely a product of the temperate zones swore at her. perchance a wasp. Then she begins to surroundings. Yet, though content in this chlorate of potash in crystals. I had also that will not flourish. Tobacco and cotton As old feat is strikingly varied in a West-All romantic nonsense about falling in love breathe freely, and to aim at the supreme early stage to do little but perform the vegemust be set aside for ever and forgotten. To happiness of woman-kind—the having her and over a row of elephants, camels and horses due encouragement, would provide for the has ceased to move an audience. In the pre-grows everywhere well-nigh untended. In ranks at his foot with their spears upraised. rocky districts all cereals thrive, with the Then the Arab runs down the hill, jumps on exception of oats; the Corinthian currant is the spring board (which looks like a rock) almost a specialite of the Peloponnese, and, and bounds with a somersault over the heads and Welsh regiments, white facings, rose without a fire-place; the process of sweeping liams, who at a glance we perceive to be an or cleaning is unknown, and the entire intellectual, noble, broad-souled women of amily sleeps curled up in rags upon the thirty-five or forty, worth more than a dozen

The last Ohio Legislature passed several bills authorizing counties and towns to provide money to aid local railroad projects. All these schemes are killed by a constitutional provision which the law-makers must The earliest scene of the immersion was in have overlooked, that the Legislature "shall the Jordan. That rushing river, the one never authorize any county, city, town, or river of Palestine, found at last its fit purtownship, by vote of its citizens or otherpose. Although no details are given to the wise, to become a stockholder in any joint external parts of the ceremony, a lively stock company, corporation, or association notion may be formed of the transaction by whatever, or to raise money for, or loan its the scene which now takes place at the credit to, or in aid of any such company, bathing of the pilgrims at Easter. Their apcorporation, or association." The railroad proach to the spot is by night. Above is projectors are much downcast. the bright Paschal moon, before them moves It is said that fifty miles to the south of a bright flare of torches, on each side huge Leicester, in North Bucks and Bedfordshire. watchfires break the darkness of the night England, the farmers are so badly off that and act as beacons for the successive descents the laborers, on whom their employers' conof the road. The sun breaks over the eastdition tells disastrously, cannot be trusted ern hills as the head of the cavalcade reaches with a week's supply of bread on credit. It the banks of the Jordan. The sacred river rapid eddies, and of a turbid, yellor color, the tenants have left and the land is now covered with grass and weeds. Farms are like the Tiber at Rome, and about as broad. also let at a reduction of fifty per cent. They dismount, and set to work to perform also let at a reduction of fifty per cent. their bath; most in the open space, some under the ordinary rent, with the first year and accompanied by officer Kirkup he pro- further up among the thickets; some plung- free. The results, in fact, everywhere, attributable to continuous wet seasons, are dresses, which they bring with them, and alarming. ed at the door, and on being admitted found which, having been so used, are kept for Certain returns in reference to sixteen that there were several Indians on the pre- their wedding sheets. Most of the bathers English counties show that farms are going mises, the proprietor being a civilized look- keep within the shelter of the bank, where a begging. There are no tenants to take ing native named Jim. The officers stated the water is about four feet in depth, though them. Good land in the fen district of that they had reason to believe that he was with a bottom of very deep mud. The Cop- Huntingdonshire, which formerly-five or in unlawful possession of certain goods, and | tic pilgrims are curiously distinguished from | seven years ago-brought from thirty-two to it was their intention to search the house. the rest by the boldness with which they forty shillings per acre, is now let with No resistance was offered, and after a care- dart into the main current, striking the difficulty at from fifteen to twenty-five water after their fashion alternately with shillings; clay land, which let at thirty their two arms and playing with the eddies, shillings, may now be had at from seven to mind both consciously and unconsciously. in a back room a keg containing 25 lbs. of which hurry them down and across as if they ten, if any one can be got to take it. In The meanness of a man calling himself a In the Greece of history every city was full American tobacco, two kegs of syrup, and a were in the cataracts of their own Nile, Leicestershire things are not much better. he met the servants and carriage of the position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing through the thick boughts of the latest and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object of contemplation and position always has her own way, as a thing Christian is an unlovely object Countess: The machine, however, had been of course. There are, indeed, weak women tion. And yet it is one which is brought every agora, and every temple was one vast been broken, and the Indian on being interpreviously confiscated. Such is travelling who lack the courage needed for this self-as- underevery body's notice, very, very often. We storehouse full of works of great painters rogated admitted that he had brought them stream intercept their progress, and recross- lings an acre, has just been relet for twenty sertion, and they are trampled upon by their do not say that the meanness is a result of and sculptors. Nor were these intended in a canoe from Seattle, but was unable to ing the river higher up, where they can shillings. husbands accordingly. But so widespread is the Christianity, but it exists in spite of it. merely to please the eye and intoxicate the produce any receipt for duties paid. He was wade, assisted by long poles which they have THE province of Adams, in Asia Minor has the belief that all wives should have their own way, that these poor half-hearted fail- own way, that the considering the mixed assemblate which did not speak to all beholders of the way in the constant way to be the const

It is announced by telegraph that the ures meet rather with contempt than pity. profess to be so very much in earnest about. some incident of mythology, or some notable Yesterday morning Hon. Mr. Hamley, col. of men and women in such a scene, that the cultivated land between the ports of electric street railway of Dr. Siemens, in And I should like to know, if it was not to They will spend a good deal on personal gr. deed of history lector of Customs attended at the police there is so little appearance of levity or in Mersina and Litifghe was found to be cover-Berlin, was opened for public travel a short have her own way, why on earth a girl ever tification, on mere whims of the moment, on alike stood there in concrete form in all the magistrate's office, and after the case had decorum. A primitive domestic character ed with locust eggs. The eggs lie in compact time ago, with much success. A number of gets married? In story-books written by trifles to sooth if possible the changeable de- streets and public buildings of the country, been stated the prisoner was released on pervades in a singular form the whole layers, and are supposed to have been deprominent officials and scientists were men she falls in love with the hero, and sires of a capricious fancy, but on what, ac- The Greeks did not hear or read of the gods bail of $100 to appear on Monday next to transaction. The families who have come posited by an army of locusts that passed present. We have heretofore given accounts | wishes to share his life for ever, though it be | cording to their Sunday thoughts and prayer | and the deeds of their own ancestors; they | answer to any charge that may be then pre- on their single mule or camel now bathe to- through the district toward the middle of of the progress of the construction of this but a cottage. Ladies, too, who write meeting exercitations, they consider the saw them every day wherever they went. ferred against him. Frequent complaints gether with the utmost gravity, the father last year. On the state of affairs having. work. It is a narrow gauge elevated street novels have to bow before the prevailing pre- pearl of great price, the one thing above all Love of their native city was not with them have been made known by telegraph to the Gov railway, mounted on posts, placed on the judice, and make men of dazzling beauty others needful, they will spend perhaps a a sentiment, but passion for this temple, that being imported from Washington Territory has been brought to receive the one immersion which will suffice for the rest of his life, transmitted to the authorities of Tarsus and thus, by a curious economy of resources, telling them to summon all the able-bodied save it from the expense and danger of a men and women who could be mustered and to future pilgrimage in after years. In about set them to work to destroy the eggs. of Jericho. Once more they may be seen at The probate on the personalty, will, howthe dead of night; the drum again wakes

When the mortgages on Hughenden and other losses incurred by Lord Beaconsfield, are paid off, his nephew will inherit Hughenden free of encumbrances, but nothing more. ever, be paid on about £60,000, for this payment is made upon the amount of money torches again go on before; behind follows left, irrespective of liabilities. Hughenden the vast multitude, passing in profound is worth £1,800 per annum. Never troubling himself about his monetary affairs, Lord Beaconsfield would have been a richer man had he paid off loans and surrendered the policies of insurance which were kept up as the security for them. Curiously enough, LUCY DAVENE is a mere child. Perhaps the money which he inherited from his

WHILE in England 30, in Germany, 14, and in France 13 letters are transmitted per annum per head of the population, in Russia every Captain of a district or police officer. dicular position with such terrific suddenness want of education has to be added, but there dition of the means of intercourse. There brings letters once a month, and in some of SIR WALTAR SCOTT'S castle has been rent- the largest towns there is only a post twice