The Coming Election.
In another column will be found a short communication from Mr. A. L. Minthorne, a well known staunch reformer of this riding, who indorses our opinion that it is of no consequence where the Liberal candidate resides if he can be relied upon to do the work for which we hope to elect him. As intimated in last week's Gazette, however, there is so strong a prejudice in favour of a resident of the constituency that it is advisable to get one if practicable, as, other things being equal, his chances of success would be greater than those of an outsider; but if a local candidate cannot be had, some one of ability and reputation must be looked for elsewhere. No doubt there are several individuals in North Victoria who would make very creditable and satisfactory representatives, but unfortunately they do not appear to be available, as some of them decline to run and others could not be united upon by the influential members of the party. Meanwhile precious time is flying, and if the elections are to be held early in June—which is probable, as the Conservatives are already at work—the utmost activity in the Reform ranks is imperatively necessary. We are glad to hear that the officers of the Reform Association in this riding are bestirring themselves, and that, as it has been ascertained that the President, Mr. Dickson, is not likely to return from Manitoba for several weeks, the Vice-President, Dr. Clarke, of Woodville, and the Secretary, Mr. A. A. McDonald, of this village, have very properly taken the initiative. The latter authorizes us to announce that a meeting will be held in Scully's hall on Tuesday evening next at 8:30 o'clock, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the general convention at Kirkfield, which will be held at an early date, probably before the end of this month. We have good hopes that the attendance of leading men from all the municipalities will be unprecedentedly large, and that the utmost harmony will mark their deliberations. As stated last week, we are quite in the dark as to who will be the candidate; but, whether he be a local man or an outsider, all should at once determine to give him their most earnest support, and, ignoring all private, personal or local jealousies, if any exist, do their very utmost to secure his election.

Protection.
The object of all laws is supposed to be to secure "the greatest good of the greatest number," but the N. P. is exactly the reverse. The advocates of the swindle, in their anxiety to defend it, frequently "give themselves away" most beautifully, and that is just what the Belleville Intelligencer did when it published the following paragraph:—"TRADE WITH THE NORTH-WEST.—An extensive retail dealer in furniture, from Winnipeg, has been in town, his object being the purchase of certain lines of furniture from Ald. G. S. Tickell. The result of his visit was that a car-load of furniture was purchased by him, and will be shipped to Winnipeg in a few days. The most gratifying fact about the transaction is that all the furniture to be shipped was manufactured at Ald. Tickell's factory here. Four years ago such a sale could not be effected, because the class of goods which were purchased are manufactured in Boston in immense quantities, and the Boston manufacturers could then rush them into the Canadian market at rates much less than they could be manufactured for here; but times have changed, and now the 35 cent duty enables Ald. Tickell to successfully compete with the American manufacturers, and to furnish goods at as low prices as are paid for the American goods. Ald.

Tickell is selling this same line of goods from Halifax to Sarina, and now this shipment to the North-West is the foundation of a trade which is unlimited in its prospect. Ald. Tickell frankly acknowledges that this vast improvement in the condition of the furniture manufacturing business is solely owing to the N. P.

The Intelligencer takes care to mention that Ald. Tickell can furnish goods at as low prices as are paid for American goods, and it takes equally good care not to mention what the price of American furniture would be but for the N. P. One of two things is certain; either American goods would be 35 per cent. cheaper than they are or Ald. Tickell is afforded more protection than is necessary to enable him to manufacture chairs, tables &c. and sell them at a profit. The N. P. is simply a measure to compel purchasers to pay a Canadian $1.35 more or less for an article than an American is willing to sell them for a dollar. Ald. Tickell is no doubt nearly tickled to death when he reflects on his benefits—to himself and a few others.

Affairs in Manitoba.
During the past week several letters have been received from residents of this village who recently migrated to Manitoba, and although we have not seen any of the epistles, we learn that their contents show pretty conclusively that the writers' experience has not been such as to produce unalloyed rapture. This is only what might have been expected, for it was some time ago predicted that the supply of labour of all kinds would soon be in excess of the demand, and such now seems to be the case. One of our villagers says (we are told) that he can only clear three dollars per week over his expenses, and he could certainly do that in Fenelon Falls, all he has gained by the exchange is the gratification of his curiosity to know what the prairie province was really like. The rush to Winnipeg, Brandon and one or two other points is something fearful, and although distinguished persons are leaving at the rate of three hundred a day, double that number are arriving, increasing the jam and enabling tavern and boarding house keepers (who are all making fortunes) to charge what they choose. One of our returned villagers, whose stay in Winnipeg was portentously short, tells us that he could not live there in anything like decency for less than two dollars a day, and for that sum he got inferior board and very poor accommodation at night. Mechanics of all kinds are swarming into the cities by hundreds, and the consequence is that wages are no longer in proportion to the cost of living. Of course farmers who have unalterably made up their minds to settle in Manitoba or the adjacent territory will do well to secure lands as soon as possible, and the keen competition amongst merchants and mechanics will be to their advantage; but all occupations except agriculture and boarding-house keeping appear to be already overdone, at least for the present. Even farmers should think not only twice but a good many times before they decide to leave their present homes, for the "Land of Promise" has many drawbacks as well as advantages; and the following paragraph from a letter from Manitoba in the Peterborough Review is full of wisdom:—"Men who have good farms with houses, barns, orchards, (with no mortgages) in Ontario had better stay there, but men who are cramped and oppressed and driven to their wits' end to make a living, should lose no time in coming to a land which will give bread and to spare to millions."

A Monstrous Outrage.
A justly indignant commercial traveller has furnished us with the particulars of an outrage to which a carful of passengers, of whom he was one, were subjected last Monday on the Victoria branch of the Midland Railway. The mixed train, which should have left Lindsay at 3:10 in the afternoon, was detained from some cause for nearly an hour and a half, and when it had crawled to the junction a boy handed the conductor a piece of paper, the contents of which informed him that, as he was behind time, he was to wait where he was until the mail train from the north arrived. About forty-five minutes later it made its appearance, and as its engine had met with some mishap that impaired its usefulness, the engineer—appropriately the engine of the mixed train and went on his way rejoicing. The conductor of the mixed train telegraphed to the station at Lindsay for permission to take his passengers back until an engine could be got ready, and the reply was that he was to shunt them on to the siding and leave them there. This was accordingly done, and the officials of the train returned to town; but the unfortunate passengers, about seventy-five in number, were compelled to wait in their car, without either wood to burn or water to drink, for four hours and a half, while a coal engine was getting up steam. But this, though bad enough, was not the worst. In the smoking-car were several shantymen, all more or less under the influence of liquor, and when they found that there was no one with authority to restrain them, they crowded into the passenger car, where they smoked, swore and used the most disgusting language in a loud voice, although about twenty-five ladies and a number of children were present. Such are the facts as stated by our informant, who is fully corroborated by several residents of this village who were on the train; and if Mr. Cox, the President of the Midland Railway Company, do not ascertain which of the Lindsay officials is responsible for the outrage and make an example of him, he will be guilty of shirking one of the first duties of his position.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)
PERSONAL.—Mr. Eli Worsley is talking of visiting the prairie province during the summer.
COW LOST.—Mr. W. Bonny lost a valuable young cow on the night of the 5th inst. by hanging.
NEW BUILDING.—Our genial young friend, Mr. David Moynes, is making preparations for the erection of a fine barn, 56 x 36 feet, on his Green Gate farm. We are pleased to mark Mr. Moynes' prosperity. May Dame Fortune continue to smile on our friend.

Condensed News.
—Mr. George Matthews, of Lindsay, shipped fifteen tons of side pork and bacon to Brandon, Man., last week.
—Mr. Joseph Gould's new hotel at Boboyeagon is nearly finished, and will be ready for occupation by the end of next week.
—A female pugilist in Port Hope thought she could thrash a young fellow named Clancey, who easily defeated her and two others who went to her assistance.
—Mr. George A. Cox, of the Midland Railway, was at Belleville last week, making arrangements for the erection of the mammoth elevator which is to be built there.
—Captain Batten's steamer, the Essex, has been thoroughly repaired and refitted, and the gallant commander, like everybody else, is impatiently awaiting the opening of navigation.
—Mr. Robert Staples, of Palestine, who had long suffered from a bad rheumatic contraction of the right foot, had the entire front of the foot removed a few days ago by Drs. Clarke and McKay of Woodville, and is now doing well.
—Messrs. R. & G. Strickland, of Lakefield, the purchasers of the Dominion Bank limits in the county of Victoria, have taken out during the past winter 6,000 pieces of timber and enough logs to cut up into 10,500,000 feet of lumber.
—Mr. Meelan, of Lindsay, when resigning his position as assistant constable, a few days ago, said that he had many times, when on night duty, put out incipient fires which had been the result of carelessness in people depositing ashes in boxes and barrels.
—The usher of St. Mark's church, Port Hope, tried to stop the egress of a number of persons who wished to leave as soon as the rite of confirmation had been performed; but a spunky girl said: "I don't care. I don't want to wait for the service and I'm not going to. That settles it." And it did.
—The rope attached to the valve of an engine in the upper story of the Cobourg car works passes a short distance of its course above the roof in the open air, and the rain on the night of the 6th inst. caused the rope to shrink sufficiently to open the valve. The result was a sudden shriek of escaping steam, which increased as the cord tightened until the whole neighbourhood was alarmed and a crowd gathered. The rumour and consequent excitement had continued for nearly half an hour before the cause was discovered.
—A pair of handsome Shetland ponies, and one day last week, as Miss Kate Boyd was preparing to help her father (who is an invalid) from the carriage to which the ponies were attached, one of them kicked at a dog and then tried to run away. Miss Boyd, with great courage and presence of mind, jumped on to the step of the carriage and caught at the lines, one of which she managed to seize and retain, and when, a few seconds later, she was shaken off by the heads of the ponies were pulled towards a fence, which stopped them. Miss Boyd was slightly bruised and her father escaped without injury.
—Last Saturday night a man named Samuel McElroy, aged 73 years, was run over and cut into mince on Campbell's bridge by the 6:45 train from Peterborough to Port Hope. Portions of the body were found on the bridge and others had fallen through into the creek. One theory is that the old man's death was the result of accident, and another, that he committed suicide. Nothing was known of the tragedy until the return of the express, when the engineer and fireman, looking out for the "bad joint" which they thought had caused the jolt during their previous trip, saw blood on the track and telegraphed to the driver of another train to see what had been killed. McElroy lived at Garden Hill, a bout half a mile from where he met his death. A coroner's inquest was not thought necessary.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Mr. J. Neelds, dentist, of Lindsay, will be at the McArthur House, Fenelon Falls, on Monday next, the 17th inst.

PERSONAL.—Mr. David Arzue, who four years ago left Fenelon Falls for Port Severn, was here on Saturday, Sunday and Monday visiting his friends. He holds a position of trust in Dodd & Co.'s mill, and, judging from outward appearances, is evidently prospering in the world. He was heartily greeted by his numerous acquaintances, who were glad to see him in such good health and spirits.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Wm. Swanton, of Fenelon, met with a very serious accident on Wednesday morning last. The branches of a tree which he had felled on his own farm struck him on the head and shoulders; and, though the blow itself inflicted no injury, he was thrown with such force across a fallen log that two of his left ribs were broken and another partly detached from the breast bone. Dr. Lowe, who is attending him, does not think his patient is hurt internally, but of course he will be laid up for some time. The accident could hardly have happened at a worse time than just at the commencement of spring work.

THE WEATHER.—The past winter was certainly a very peculiar one: about one half of February was so mild that it appeared as if spring was close at hand, and now, two months later, overcoats and fur caps are at a premium. During the present week the weather has been most exasperating, one or two slight rises in temperature having been followed by keen winds and cold nights that caused many of the newly arrived insectivorous birds to incontinently scot southward, and put a stop to the ploughing which some few farmers had commenced. The fall wheat, which is the great object of everybody's anxiety, has not, as far as we can learn, suffered to any very considerable extent, as there have been two or three slight falls of snow and the frost has been tolerably steady without being very severe. The farmers are impatient to be at work and are only prevented by the winds, which are so cold and blow so persistently that the sun's benevolent attempts to soften the surface of the earth are completely frustrated. To-day (Thursday) there is a change for the better, and we hope to be able to announce in next week's issue that spring ploughing is proceeding merrily.

Goldwin Smith on Irish Affairs.
Prof. Goldwin Smith writes to the Times that if the British Legislature and people would handle the Irish question with vigour their determination would be applauded by nobody more than the great mass of the American people as distinguished from the politicians. Mr. Smith recommends the abolition of jury trial in agrarian cases, the collection of fair rents by summary process, the suspension of representation of the rebel districts, the suppression of a numerous press, and special legislation concerning foreign emissaries, they and their Governments being given to fully understand their position and the liabilities they incur.

Another Sinecure.
Winnipeg Free Press:—We observe by the Windsor Record that Edward Barrett, of Windsor, and brother-in-law of Hon. John O'Connor, has been appointed to a position in the Winnipeg post-office at a salary of $2,500 per annum. What particular sphere of labour Mr. Barrett will occupy in the post-office isn't very clear, but we surmise that the intention is to make him walking boss of the new and elegant lean-to. The Winnipeg post-office is not suffering for want of any $2,500 ornaments, even if the ornament be a relative of Hon. John O'Connor. What it wants is an adequate staff of working clerks at reasonably good salaries, and plenty of room in which to operate them. With these and those immortal lock-boxes we dare say the post-office will get along very comfortably.

The Manitoba Craze.
Some idea of the immense quantity of Manitoba and North-West pamphlets that are sent out from the House of Commons to the various constituencies may be formed from the fact that 500 large mail bags, each containing an average of a hundred pounds, chiefly of this kind of literature, have been despatched during the session. This would make in all twenty-eight tons, and of late the quantity has equalled a ton and a half per day. The white paper on which these pamphlets are printed alone costs some $4,000. Several members have sent one or more copies of a pamphlet or document of some kind relating to the North-West to nearly every elector in their ridings. All this tends to make that country better known, but also in many cases tends to unsettle persons who had better remain where they are now doing well.—Globe Corr.

The Parliamentary Term.
The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Globe says:—"A new political project has been mooted of late, which is nothing less than to extend the term of the Federal Parliament to seven years. Tory ministers and many of their followers affect to be intensely English, and make this an excuse for copying the English system in this respect. Hoping to carry the coming elections through by a small majority, and this under a delusion, some of them are foolish enough to indulge the hope that if the parliamentary term were extended in the way referred to, it would mean an additional two years of power for the present Government. As is well known, the present term of five years is fixed by the British North America Act, and could only be changed by Imperial legislation. It is therefore proposed that the Canadian Parliament shall pass an address to the Queen, praying that the Union Act may be amended in the respect mentioned. It remains to be seen whether any action will be left over to the new House, in which, if there is a Conservative majority, such an address could readily be passed. It is stated that there is an English precedent in which a Parliament elected for a given term of years extended the term, which was made applicable to the existing Parliament. This is what many Canadian Conservatives would like to do, and an English precedent would no doubt be found quite a sufficient justification."

Humbus Advertisements.
The time never has been and never will be when the people of this or any other country can buy a gold dollar for seventy-five cents. Neither can you, dear reader, purchase an organ worth three or four hundred dollars for $20. This is all nonsense. Still we have no objection to other people doing their business just as they see fit. We are selling a good, honest made Piano at from $185 to $375, and a good honest Organ (not all stops) for from $48 to $175. All our goods are made upon honor, and we send to any part of the world on test trial, and if no please no keepee, as the Chinaman would say. For the past ten years we have sent both Pianos and Organs to every part of the world, and our instruments give the most universal satisfaction, you wish to get an instrument, one that will always last you, we shall be pleased to send you our catalogue and prices; and if you purchase one of the Thomas Brothers' Silver Tone Instruments you will get what you require, and one instrument sold in a neighborhood always sells us more. Address, for prices, etc., JAS. H. THOMAS, Successor to Thomas Brothers, 5-4, Catskill, N. Y., U. S. A.

COMMUNICATIONS.
To the Editor of the Fenelon Falls Gazette.
Sir,—
I hope you will give me space in your paper to inform your word of warning to the reformers of North Victoria to get themselves in better position as soon as possible. If the general elections are brought on in June, as well informed persons say they will be, it is to take advantage of the farming community, who will be in one of the busiest seasons of the year. In a constituency such as North Victoria, where the farming, lumbering and mining interests largely predominate over other industries, it is not probable that a full expression of opinion will be given at the polls; and North Victoria may be taken as a criterion of most of the rural constituencies, whose interests the present Government seems to ignore. In cities and thickly populated centres the work can be done at one season of the year as easily as at another, and when the country is busiest the city is the slackest; so it would seem that the convenience of the latter is to be preferred, and it is to be given the advantage of every circumstance in its favour. With reference to the candidate—if a local man can be got to represent us in parliament, so much the better; but whoever the person is he is expected to express our views and look after our interests, so the difference would be that the local man would be better acquainted with the constituency. But as anything that affects the producing classes affects us, we want a representative well posted in matters of trade and who will be watchful over the interests of his constituents. If we can elect a man who will do our work satisfactorily, what does it matter whether he is a resident of the constituency or not?
Yours &c.,
A. L. MINTHORNE,
Fenelon, April 11th, 1882.

The following is the common sense treatment for a loose and inflamed tongue. We know of none so safe and effectual as Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They act directly on all the secretions, their purgative action carrying off all impurities from the system, they invigorate the Liver and Kidneys, purify the Stomach, cleanse the Bowels, and give strength and tone to the whole system. Try a course of this valuable, safe and reliable vegetable preparation, Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. Nugent, Agent for Fenelon Falls.
