NEW GOODS

And new facilities at the City Store. Practical experience gives new ideas, and new ideas, when collected with bright intellects; sound judgment and refined taste, concoct new styles, new designs and new material for beautifying the better halves of humanity and so elegant and beautiful are the new goods this season that it places the buyer in a quandary how and where to begin to make her selection for a becoming outfit at a reasonable price. Where to get the best and most fashionable goods for the least money is the real question at issue. To those who are constant patrons of the City Store the question solves itself, but to those who are strangers to us we invite you to come and see us, examine our goods and prices, ask us all the questions you like, test the quality of our goods and get quotations of prices, and we venture to assert that in every instance your verdict will be in favour of the City Store, the leaders and promoters of lowest prices and renewed styles. We invite all, promising to treat you with courtesy and politeness, whether you buy or not. We will show you our goods with pleasure. Come and test us.

Sootheran, Cathro & Mark, CITY DRAPERS AND CLOTHIERS, No. 2, Dobson's Block, 2nd Door West of the Post Office.

Merchant Tailoring.

The City Tailoring House of Lindsay beg to announce the arrival of New Fall and Winter Suitings and Overcoatings, all the newest novelties that home and foreign markets can produce, which for beauty of design and elegance of finish have never been equalled in former years. The patterns of our Scotch tweeds are confined exclusively to ourselves in Lindsay, no other house can show the same styles. Our English, French and Irish Tweeds; Suitings, Overcoatings and Trouserings will arrive early next week. Canadian Tweeds are now in stock, and for quality, design and pure stock are very much in advance of previous years. The City Tailoring House of Lindsay has made such rapid strides and the public have patronized us so very liberally that we have been compelled to enlarge our premises, which we are glad to say are almost completed: With our increased facilities, renewed vigour and augmented enterprise we purpose giving this branch of our business more attention than ever. Our Mr. CATHER, who is a practical cutter, gives the Tailoring Department his undivided attention. He has a double interest in pleasing and suiting his patrons. One suit scientifically and artistically cut, skillfully made, fitted with accuracy and precision and substantially trimmed, is worth two suits made in the ordinary way. Try us; and be convinced of our superiority.

Laws Regarding Newspapers. 1st.—Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post-office, whether directed to his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the payment.

2nd.—If a person orders his paper to be discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3rd.—If subscribers neglect or refuse to take the periodicals or newspapers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills. Sending numbers back, or leaving them in the office, is not such notice as the law requires.

4th.—The Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
