The Toronto Convention.

Judging from the tone of our reform exchanges, and from quotations in the Globe from reform papers with which we do not exchange, the Liberal Convention which is to be held in Toronto on the 3rd and 4th of next month, in compliance with a call from the Hon. Oliver Mowat, will be one of the largest political gatherings ever held in that city. In last week's issue we noticed that, by an arrangement with the different railway companies, properly accredited delegates would be conveyed to and from Toronto for one fare ; but it has since been officially approunced that single fare tickets to Toronto and return will be issued at all stations to DARRISTER-AT-LAW, Lindsay. Office any persons who wish to purchase them D on Kent Street, next door west of Keith's on the 2nd, 3rd or 4th of January, good until the evening of the 5th, affording, in fact, an opportunity for a general excursion at half rates. Irish Affairs.

DUBLIN, DEC. 16 .- Intense excitement prevails in the city in consequence of the arbitrary action of the police. who to night made a simultaneous raid on several of the well-known public houses which were suspected of being the resorts of members of secret societies. All the inmates were temporarily taken into custody, and a thorough search made for suspected parties who | SIR .it was believed were concealed on the premises, but no arrests were made. No resistance was offered, but the owners of the houses protested against the outrage. A strong force of marines guarded the streets in the immediate vicinity of the houses raided during the search. Forty rounds of ammunition were served out to the troops when they were detailed for this duty. The Government has off red further rewards for Park murderers. It is supposed raid was planned by the Castle authorities upon information furnished by informers. Westgate now flatly denies that he ever made a confession implicating himself in the Phonix Park murders, or that he knows anything whatever about the crime.

> DESTITUTION IN THE WEST. The accounts from the west of Ireland are most deplorable. Clare, Galway, Mayo, send to-day terrible accounts of the progress of the famine scourge. Sligo is not unaffected by the presentiment of distress, and there seems to be nothing to inspire confidence or hope of relief. The worst accounts come from the seaboard of Donegal. There the people are hopelessly and helpessly destitute. Some accounts say they have nothing but Indian cornmeal to subsist on; but the weight of representation is that, even if this food, never acceptable to the Irish people, could be calculated on, there would be comparative satisfaction, but even the Indian meal is not forthcoming, and seaweed or boiled "dhillesk" is the only food at command. The season of the year has again come round, at which time we wish our readers "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." Christmas is the time when we have a fine opportunity of making up the quarrels and differences that we may have had with each other during the past year, and make a fair start in friendship for the next. This custom of expressing good will towards each other at this season is as old as Christianity itself, and is founded on the fact that at this season, when the Saviour of mankind was born, "tidings of great joy " were brought from heaven, and "peace on earth, and good will to men" were first proclaimed to mankind. We all agree in keeping Xmas in some way or other, and we are
