Christianity.

what not? Perhaps, however, you are not,

tive to self-restraint and honorable conduct,

except their supposed usefulness, or the re-

SCIENTIFIC.

Good yeast can be kept in excellent condi-

of bisulphate of sodium.

the other ingredients.

escent powder secures luminosity.

TAR AND FEATHERS.

TARIO, SATURDAY, FEB. 3, 1883.

most cultured, and benificent of our (TO BE CONTINUED.

Canadian Churches. for centuries has been doing so much? There is none whatever. It is all fudge to say Primeval Man. Dr. Daniel Wilson delivered a very interger a tiny circlet esting and able lecture last Friday evening could purchase at at the Canadian Institute, Toronto, on his fastore, with a half vorite subject of primevalman. Man, it seems, colored turquoises, has been, at least, a million or two of years . The door opened, on the earth, is not likely descended from hin (there were no the gorilla, has rose rather than sunk in the have any regard for honesty, truth, upreet then) fell on course of years, and science and ceripture rightness, or honer? There is no reason, king woman, the are not likely to disagree on the subject, and if he is passably honest or true or upng at the window. seeing, in the doctor's estimation, both are right he is so not because of what he holds, snursery governess true. There is nothing which seems to give but in spite of it. People scmetimes speak en, for want of any a good many people more pleasure than the of an honest dog, but they never get the they were quite too fancied decay of Christianity as an intellection of a "decent" cow or a conscientious of Clara Novello, and of teaching. I remem- tual, moral and social force. That system calt. And why then a "decent" woman or ingston, and knew from many has become in their estimation a mere tradiand told me, how bitterly she tion which remains though all life and endifficult to say except that the permeating and honorable upright man? It would be difficult to say except that the permeating influence of Christianity and of Christian to an honorable upright man? It would be difficult to say except that the permeating influence of Christian to say the same and more elevated iff mind and heart, than and more elevated iff mind and heart, than the may make his ne cats, are culpable. But why she even tries to obey its precepts?" "Who is influenced by its threatenings?" "Who is but for the presence of that which they allured by its promises?" And they expect defame and the transforming influence of that every one of any intelligence and sense that which they repudiate. It would be a been written by the Austrian Archduchess will reply "not one," at least not one strange portent, almost upon the realm of whose adherence is either enlightened for valuable." Now, all such talk is in the last valuable. To would be a strange portent, almost upon the realm of is now engaged with a drama.

Valerie, who is only fourteen years old, and but not with a great amount is now engaged with a drama.

Professor Palmieri, who has lived in an ing its lands at the high the farmer's season of rest. Our meetings in the farmer's season of rest. Our meetings in the woods were more frequent, once we met in a two storey school house a quarter of a like thing which could be mentioned. In like thing which could be mentioned. In stead of mobody believing in it, one can't stead of nobody stead of nobody believing in it, one can't stead of nobody st like thing which could be mentioned. In. So with anything of a really ameliorating giving his time to the study of the mountain bar that any justificat the character that could be mentioned. In the study of the mountain bar that any justificat the character that could be mentioned. treason because we knew our men and they look round or be in any decent measure actreason because we knew our men and they each other. An appeal to arms had been resolved on, we had many sympathiser among chose who stood well in Toronto society, the farmers thought the Country state of the North-West to districts of the North-West to district of the North-West to distr esty by all the commonly recognized truths no efficient motive power to give them eithwere to a great extent on our side. It is of Christianity, and even having their whole er consistency or power, and the result is seen true the loyalists had every advantage, they tone of thinking and feeling more guided in degraded morals and dishonorable live : and determined by its procepts and power. We do not preach, and is not at all in Herefordshire is his hobby, and gives him petted by government in every way. My Take away all that Christianity is doing for the intellectual quickening of the race, and what a mighty blank there would be! Strike out the whole sum of the morality, which is distinctively Christian, and must be allowed to wonder sometimes what which would have neither existence nor Pikes were manufactured in numbers, the narrow spear points scientifically constructof the Bible, and there is nothing else, as far as we can see, which would begin to as we can see the second to the seco Emmett's quondam followers from the Green fill the vacuum. No doubt, professed Chris in the ascendant as it is actually the re-Isle. The royal Lieutanant Governor, (the tians are not what they ought to be. There verse. Come now, you good master wisare among them some hypocrites, and not a dom-mongers of the "advanced thinking" order of architecture, Why are you honest, as now, that of a harmless purveyor of free few humbugs. There are others who are often very inconsistent, and who do but litand unright, and truthful, and chaste, and Sir Addle Head was fool enough to send the credit to the religion they profess. But, nearly all the troops out of the city. We after all this is granted as fully as any one should certainly have succeeded in capturing | could reasonably ask, there remains a mighty no-moral standard, and no constraining mo-Toronto, the country farmers would have amount of sound thinking, honest feeling, risen to support us, had we only marched and correct, honourable acting which can as down Yonge Street at the right moment. As unerringly be traced to the influence of Captain Cuttl: says, "the point of which Christianity as any physical fact can be atobservation lies in the application of it;" tributed to its so-called evident and unand we did not march down Yonge Street at questionable cause. Why are multitudes doing what is right? Not because they re-Mrs. Finch's spying expedition led to a gard it as useful, but because they believe highly colored report being given to her it is thus ordered by their Master and Lord. mistress, whom, like all the detestable race | What is carrying on the benevolence of the of domestic slaves, she fawned on and hated. world? A belief that those with means Clara knew something was wrong by the are "Stewards of Humanity?" No indeed lady's maid's toss of the head as she passed except, perhaps, here and there, with a more before her, a thing she always made a point or less pretentious crank, who thinks he tion if it is twice well washed and with iceof pressing forward to do, into the Colonel's must say something, but does not know ex- cold hard spring water and then dried and house. Clara slept that night uneasily, the actly what. It is the love of Christ which well pressed. This mass is afterward to be poor child dreaded a scolding, and confessed is still constraining, and promises to con- well mixed with malt dust and stored in to a confidential friend soon afterwards that | tinue to constrain. Let any one examine | closed jars in ice cellars. she was much comforted by lighting her the character of the benevolent schemes lamp for a moment to look at her turquoise which are maintained, say in Toronto, and he ring. How bright yellow the gold was! will find that it is almost, if not altogether,

How the turquoise shone cheerful as bits of | Christian. Let him inquire as to who are the mainspring of all such benevolent underfires amid some clearing in the woods. as she passed up states. I do not intend to left work in this rebellious Colis done is done by those who glory in the Cross, and permit it, especially in this rebellious Colis done by those who glory in the Cross, and some clearing in the woods. Those who met were mostly farmers, many of permit it, especially in this rebellious Colis done by those who glory in the Cross, and some clearing in the woods. "Very well, M.s. Stukely, I shall would be left would be scarcely worth mentioning. Sometimes it is said that Christians are not doing all they ought for the instruction of the ignorant, the replies," said the elder reclamation of the erring, and the upraising "I do not y conscious of some sarcasm, of the down-trodden and oppressed. Very womar she knew nothing of what was meant likely such is the fact. But in the meanac oss the country in company and to a speeches assumed a sterner and more determined to a mined tone; how often have I seen the eager of meat attac.

Some two hundred backwoods men as they listened: The bandlessness by Colonel Stukely. "Tell Miss Morris I arises? Where are their mission-by Colonel Stukely. "Tell Miss Morris I arises? Where even the ghost of machinery among such for benevolent efforts? Nobody in him and his hearers a firm resolve to reverse were detailed. some two hundred backwoods men or rather cool reflections on Clara's conduct ance and vice? Where are their mission- pected articles. in him and his hearers a firm resolve to re- veyed by Mrs. Finch, and thus rendered by should they? In the midst of cold, hard, her as she opened Clara's door without selfish negations, the human affections with-But I am not writing Canadian History, knocking, "The Colonel says as how yer to er and die. Why should any one help or

You Won't be Missed.

The snowflake in the river.

Wearing of this Sort of Dress. disappears. And the biggest man is not to a Chronicle reporter to-day, "don't know soon think of getting down on all fours and they may clearly conclude that the I heard the whole story. Miss McMillen much more. "Get along without him! what a terrible punishment tarring and taking a spellat grazing a la Nebuchadnezzar. Our good friend always invented some trans- sent a message by one of our boys the Mon- We would just smile! Tennyson says' feathering really is. They suppose that it parently ingeniou - reason for leaving us alone day after my company's drill night. She that if the best loved man, or, perhaps, the is nothing more than a badge of infamy, cutter be began kicking, and did not stop till tea, that delightful tea, which partaken had gone to Bishop Strachan's Church for greatest, were coming back from the grave, rather uncomfortable, perhaps, but not painof by those who love and trust each other in morning service; Clara was then alone. Mrs. he would in all likelihood be looked on as ful unless it gets into the eyes. This is a secreey and danger, was conveyed into the Strachan at home nursing her young ones quite de trop, even by those who had great mistake. I helped to daub Jones. parlor from the inner regions, hot biscuits, sick with a surfeit of their national plum- mourned for him most sincerely, and had He was a disgrace to humanity, and deservfresh cool butter, and, you may be sure, pudding. Mrs. Finch, engaged in gossip most acutely missed his presence and his ed all he got. But I had no idea till I saw plenty of our hostess' best preserves. The with her "Missus" about "thore drefful love. Of course, that would not have been that fellow plastered what a tough deal it don't insist on it. The chances are that she "And I may as well smash that; if you are old house has long vanished; a monster rebels, which a gallows is too good for sich," the case with the poet himself, had his was. We painted him all over pretty thick can't. going in for looks you'd better get your brewery covers its site, but never did that and Clara told all her story after church. youthful friend again re-visited the pale with a broom, and some enthusiastic vigilbrewery manufacture a beverage so exhilar. During the bishop's sermon she wrote me a glimpses of the moon. At least, so the ante poured a few gallons af tar over his quite right; he didn't arrive. His intentions themselves disappear. An ating as I used to find those cups of tea! few kind words in pencil, "she would never survivor says. But who knows? It is just head. Then the feathers, taken from a big were all right; but they failed to success. they? There is no possi Then a quarter of an hour's talk alone in forget me, she would keep her dear ring, as well in such cases not to be too sure. pillow, were dusted over him, and he stood fully combat the bull-dog that was screened such things which will the twilight before parting. Our love had always." But it was unsafe for me even to Lincoln had not been in his grave a year, out, white and fluffy, in his starlight, like in the moon-kissed shrubbery. long ago been avowed and pledged, Clara write to her, she would leave her present nor Garfield either, till-till what? Till a some huge and grotesque-looking bird. He every year stealing before the counter. The had been my school-mates, and amongst every year stealing lefter the counter whom greatly from Father Chird's teaching. The had been my school-mates, and amongst every year stealing lefter the counter whom greatly from Father Chird's teaching.

sight, and his poll shone in the light of the car lamps like a black rubber ball just dipped in the water. The poor fellow was

What constraining power is to take the Gossipy I place of this strange love of Christ which | People V The wif that "it is best" and "most useful" to be Blunt, is kind, benevolent charitable, and so forth; All the for the answer will always be ready and is berlain a unanswerable, "That may be your opinion six Cambi but it isn't mine, and my word is quite as | Miss Tre

> just succeeded with his wife, su Mary Cowden Vincent Novello, cal studies in Europe.

als than any other man in England. Captain Mayne Reid's farm of sixty acres enhanced prices demanded?

blind to the weaknesses, the foibles, the a fine living; he still receives an income from follies and the sins of many who call them- his boys' books. Owing to the re-opening selves Christians, but it must all the of a wound received in Mexico, he is ob> and soldierly bearing; he has large, dark, a judicious amount of good food and plenty sympathetic eyes, speaks with a great deal of fresh sir. I have paid much attention to of gesture, and is decidedly aleader of men. diseases in all parts of the world, and I have His wife, Dona Margerita is a mistress of always found they have a cause, and that A coffin was discovered, while some potter over effects. It is amusing to hear excavations in the nave of St. Patrick's doctors talking of stamping out London Cathedral, Dublin, were being made, con- small pox by vaccination, when they know and little wonder if such is the fact, for with a manuscript was sealed, which it is thought | most as fetid as the Black Hole of Calcutta. may contain something of interest.

verse, it is not surprising if many conclude The diminutive size of the late Louis that it is most useful to be base, and that Blane, who was once mistaken for a page, the man who does not take all the pleas- and once for Tom Thumb, was accounted ure, and of the grossest kind, he can get, for by his brother Charles, who used to say even though at his neighbors' expense, is a | that it was caused when they were at school mighty silly fellow, if not an absolute together at Rodez, by Louis sacrificing to himself, his younger brother, half of his own small rations of beans and boiled beef.

Reading. In cold weather the air contains more everybody have the power of becoming ac- do much better than the one in Milwaukee moisture, than in hot. In fact no amount quainted with what is in books. Like a of warmth in the atmosphere will dispel its good many blatant talkers about the rights if a fire once got head way? Not so very moisture, and the simplest way to obtain of man, and the glories of freedom, who Lyan could not make Policious good respectively single formers who met were mostly farmers who met a farmer who met at the farmers who met were mostly farmers who met were mostly farmers who met were mostly farmers who met wer "What are you doing with a light at half- takings, and the same reply will have to be dry air is by means of sold. The moisture have flourished in the past, they would con-Straw to be bleached must be soaked in a solution of soda and moved about in a bath containing two ounces of permanganate of that the best and most faithful coachmen containing two ounces of permanganate of that the best and most faithful coachmen say that things are as bad as they were potassium to one gallon of water. When the the Bible to have sayed their lives to while with the six story coffin of Milwaukee, but straw has acquired a light brown color, it is the Bible to have saved their lives; while they are bad enough in all conscience and washed first in water and then in a solution | their most accomplished cooks were guiltof the twenty-four letters of the alphabet. Great disinfectant and antiseptic action is In spite o all such nonsense, not Dutchman from the Northern States. As to-morrow, before school hours." Here was ever heard of an Agnostic society for feed- per. M. Burga recommends treatment of the Northern States. avelling it became evident that no fair play could be a prospect, but youth is light-hearted, and ing the hungry, relieving the widow, or re- infectious diseases with salts of copper, the of the West, all people of sense are pretty then they got from those in power, Mr. Makenzie's the turquoise gems were bright and meant covering the lost? Who ever heard of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the conviction that it is an expense of the wood of nuts with the wood of nuts with copper much agreed on the A Wolf and speeches assumed a sterner and more deter- hope and constancy. Clara soon fell asleep. self-sacrifice of the infidel in the slums of sulphate, and the application of copper to immense advantage for all to have the "But with the morning cool reflection came," city life, or amid the desolations of ignor- infected furniture, clothing, and other sus- power of reading, and, that it is a wise and The following compound for general use some books for those who have the faculty memory of the great national bard of Scotand the sense to make use of them. It is the Chemist and Druggist-Castile soap, in shavings, four ounces; carbonate of sodiumtwo ounces; borax, one ounce; aqua ammonia, seven ounces; alcohol, three ounces; poorest and worst kind, that their intellects that day has to such an extent to passsulphuric ether, two ounces. Soft water enough to make one gallon. Boil the soap in the water until it is dissolved, and then add Paper in a variety of forms, which shall they been deprived of that amusement? dust rise in solemn protest. Every poor ed every ounce of the meat and sighed for them care of Miss McMullen, a maiden lady peeted of being a rebel; in England young such conditions, does it matter? A man be both luminous and proof against damp, is Besides, the remedy lies not in refusing to thirsty soul who has a taste for, and is so more. He was sighing with satisfaction when who had been a shining light and leading women did not think it modest to be alone would be a fool to trouble himself with the made up of the following substances: Wat- let the lower and laboring orders learn to far a judge of good whiskey today, has on a sudden pain reached his body, and in a singer in the choir at Father Caird's church with young men. Clara explained her visit concerns of those who, in that case would er, ten parts; paper pulp, forty parts; read, but will be found in supplying them that great natal day a chance of getting a phosphorescent powder-by preference slak- with better books than they have been ac- goodly allowance of the barley brees, and ed for twenty-four hours-twenty parts ; customed to. A young man who has con- at the same time get credit for literary taste gelatine, one part, and saturated solution tracted a taste for reading, will in that and for a profound admiration of all that is of bi-chromate of potash, one part. The have a very strong safeguard against the best in Scottish genius, and all that is loft-

When a lady who has been taking music it would be a change, at any rate, and lessons for the past eight years hangs back | might be looked on as quite ref shing from and blushes and says she really can't play, its frankness, if from nothing

Parson (to ne'er-do-well)-" What's this continually. They bel I hear, Giles-that your wife has left you! least defensible kind Ah! this is what I-" Giles -"She might make those who are

"If you would be truly happy, my dear," said one New York lady to another, "you will have neither eyes nor ears when your hus. five thousand dollars & year boldly band comes home late from the club. "Yes, I as by law they are entitled, to have to at having taken a hand in the job. You see as she held it unopened before her. Giving three days, but who had been paying atten- own taxes, but a share of those of o Besides the smell of the tar turns the tion to a prominent belle, wanted to pro people as well. They might as well good as yours." Why should a man who ter of the 1 believes neither in God nor in morality of Millais's "

Lord Houghton is interested in sugar planan honorable upright man? It would be ting in Jamaica, and his Florida estate con > au allowance from the private purse of the that it is just as we Emperor of Brazil, that he may make his musi- should not occupy Some poems in the Magyar tongue have observatory built on the cdge of the crater may be very true, and the same be true to its name on all subjects, and liged to walk on crutches.

taining a box which held the skulls of Dean as well as I do that there are streets in Swift and Stella, and a glass bottle in which | London crowded with inmates in rooms al-The diminutive size of the late Louis not be done, and the doctors know it cannot

Let it never be forgotten that reading is a great and most beneficent factor in modern civilization. To be sure, some of those who pose as Liberals, "advanced thinkers," and mantraps as that which has secured in its what not, are rather dubious about letting of the hotels in Canada of any size would stance, a distinct remembrance of the fact panie were to arise? How many schools. less of any acquaintance with even the first prudent thing to provide good and whole all very easy to say that the great mass pottle deep as usual. Might not be an of those who read, give themselves so up improvement to give the weary world a rest to the perusal of novels, and these of the from the shrill scraunel-piping which on are weakened and their hearts polluted in muster for eloquence? The way poor the process. In the first place, it is not the Burns is every year be-drivelled and befact and then, secondly, though it were, is it drunken is enough to make his bones stir in not possible that those who read even the cheap novel might have been worse employed had disappeared, it is enough to make his very gelatine resists the damp and the phosphor- temptations of the tavern. He very speedily lest in Scottish character. It gives a good forms habits of thought which render him rousing debauch quite an aroma of respectuncomfortable in the dram shop. The dull ability to have it associated with some great gossip, the brutal horseplay, the unmitiga- occasion, some popular saint or some unted animalism of such places, have no power | doubted genius, and no mistake. Many Some of the Discomforts that Attend the to charm one who has a liking for the silent | will on the 25th that is coming, as on many what am I to do with my nose ?" A Boston woman received a telegram, groaning, and I couldn't help feeling mean and her face blanched and her hand trembled

FLASHES OF FUN.

A very such blace between a saw half ight, lately box blace between a saw half ight half an hour after a man has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorry he wasn't hanged. The of the city should be too hasty. The cloves the city should supply them with has been coated he must feel mighty sorr the changes and years. The popu Carlos De Mesquita, the pianist, receives | becomes the object

> The Duke of Manchest. is being defended with mor all reasons that they can have handed over large tral to make those who purchase from the feel that they are getting full value for

A retired naval officer writes from Pl mouth :- "I am happy to say that I have never been vaccinated myself, nor have any of my children-four in number, the eldest being now nearly fourteen years old. I have Don Carlos, for so long a pretender to the | no fear of them catching small pox-or, insort of a place this Ca ada of ours would be if | Spanish throne, is a man of towering statue | deed, any other disease—as long as they get until the cause is removed it is in vain to How is it possible to stamp out small pox so long as such quarters exist? We know it canbe done; and further, they know and we know that if it were possible to provide - well drained and well

isonyoar from americ

Londoners, not only which small pox is a member. The Milwaukee horror may well make the authorities of every city on the continent bestir themselves, for there is not a single place of any size from this to the gulf of Mexico which has not some such many as some would imagine, How many factories? Any one who has gone up the especially Sunday ones! We do not if a movement in the way of remedy be not speedily set about some will be grievously to lame. Surely a word to the wise is enough. Yes, but the misery is that so many are not wise, and that so many more are so short-sightedly selfish, that a make them move in any scheme which inclves more or less of personal expense. The 25th of January is at hand, when the land will, of course, be toasted in potations companienship of the printed book. He that have passed, comfort themselves with "Most people," said a prominent Renoite such resorts. Indeed he would nearly as toddy, and so do they, and, therefore, that kindred spirits with the mighty peace. bard. If they could only be honest for once and say, "We want a good guzzle, and don't care a brass farthing either for Robert Burns or for the Cotter's Saturday Night,"

The vexed question about taxation, for this, that, or consideration : they are the poor man pay the clergymen? Lien with three know," answered the other weatily, "but of all municipal conveniences, for which body has to pay, without money and out price. The whole system in every wetail is a rotten one. It is based on falsehood, and carried out in every case with cannot but specially remark on the matchless effrontery of those who call themselve ministers of Christ forcing poor midenes industrious mechanics to pay, not only t at his way, ...und those tead of a newer light, to heard with patience all he had to say And then dismissed him with a cold "Good

t ere he went one whispered in his car, If Truth indeed so fully dwell in thee, , seek our Senators, for much I fear They need thy presence, stranger, more than

But scarcely was his voice a moment heard In mild rebuke upon the Senate's floor, fhan men grew wrathful at each gracious And rough hands hustled him without the

Then scorned the spirit the unhallowed ground There, as celestial hearers gathered round, He told his story, and the angels wept.

Out With Mackenzie in 1837.

Or Econes in the Life of a Canadian Gil

BY FLORENCE FAIRFAX.

CHAPTER IV.

It was a time of much excitement; all my past training and experience disposed me to In the beginning of a certain New Year sympathise warmly with the liberal movement motherly old Goose felt it her bounden which I soon discovered that Mr. Makenzie uty to do something for the betterment of was urging onward by other means than his he World. She therefore took a strolldown editorials in the Colonial Advocate. Some of o the Swamp and sought an interview with my writings, ardent as they were in the Patriot cause, attracted his attention; I "Well, what's on hand this morning?" saw much of this remarkable man whose undeniable eloquence and singleness of pur-To-day is New Year's, if you remempose drew me strongly towards him. He on the other hand seemed pleased with my boyish enthusiasm, and often chose me for It is the day on which all Fowls and Beasts should solemnly resolve to break off sked Reynard as he came to the front.

What What

"Oh! I'll let up on the Hares this co.

Don't ask a man to stop chewing to

PLAYING THE HOG.

CLIPPED HORSE.

until he had demolished the outfit.

that " aske I the owner.

mation.

And heate her on the half shell.

A Wolf and a Fox were year and go for the Geese !"

and become a drunkard.

his companion in long rides to the country f you could not make parts good research to the parts of Upper Canada. Many a meeting have I attended, held by light of blazing pine trunk U. E. Loyalist belongings, disgusted with the ony!" arrogance of the small family clique which governed us, with the injustice shown to Robert Gourley and all who exhibited the the curfew was enforced slightest leanings to popular claims, above yet." all at the greed of the States Church and "Old Jock Bishop Strachan," as they had

"Well, we'll the even up." sist to the bitter end. "Not my friend, I have the But I am not writing Canadian History, knocking, "The Colonel says as how yer to er and die. Why should any one help or longest omach, and must therefore have a thing nobody has done as yet, but the history go to his hoffice immediate." Clara told care for a weak, suffering man any more the left share. I will cat what I want tory of one St. George Rogers, compositor and her quietly to close the door, she would be than for a lame dog or a sick monkey? No what is left will be sufficient for journalist. I was able to correspond freely down presently. The interview was not, body, on non-christian grounds, could say with Clara Morris. I sent my letters not after all, so terrible, the Colonel said that why. There is no motive to kind action, The Fox being the weaker party had to to the Artillery Barracks, where Colonel he had been seen in the com- there is no constraining power to awaken sit and lick his ch p while the wolf devourmoment more he knew that he had been near which he lived; it had been unused to Miss McMullen's. "Well, that is no be better dead. "Well, well," mused the Fox as he saw and the woor old church windows were all ners are rather free in these matters. But the other struggling with death; "one doesn't always miss a Good Thing by here dealt more gently with good Miss Mac. ition of some safety and value in a place like some one else gobble up his Dinand upper lip. Like most who had loved ers to one of my domestics." Father Caird's teaching, the little old lady ned a fine Horse had him was stout for Canadian Nationalism and I or, and the shivering onihad won her heart by sending her every live me of my coat in coming too deeply compromised to wish and did not mind it-much. to make a daisy of you," was the Clara to be remarked as being my friend. As soon as the Horse was attached to the "What on earth possessed you to do "Because a duisy of a Ho se would look had before a cheap Cutter," was the reply.

Hostler to hold the reins behind me. -De-Titled Kleptomaniacs. In an interesting book on the "Grands knew-what did she not know about position soon. Meanwhile, if any danger great many of the loudest ranters about the had to put his clothes on over the whole Magasins de Paris," M. Pierre Giffard gives me!—that I was an officer, holding rank as came, any defeat, Miss McMullen would tie loss were not slow in both thinking and mess, and then he was ridden on a rail for Magasius information about the ladies Captain and Aid-de-camp to our leader, a ribbon which Clara gave her on a certain saying, "Well! Perhaps it was all for the fifty yards or so, and we put him on the do worse than that, sir." Parson (shocked)— and most offensive who are tempted and who fall during their that my company was and is the best armed out-of-the-way-palisade of the outer fence. best." A few may cry out, "Oh, for an west-bound train at midnight with instructions that my company was and is the best armed out-of-the-way-palisade of the outer fence. best." A few may cry out, "Oh, for an west-bound train at midnight with instructions that my company was and is the best armed out-of-the-way-palisade of the outer fence. best." A few may cry out, "Oh, for an west-bound train at midnight with instructions that my company was and is the best armed out-of-the-way-palisade of the outer fence. best." A few may cry out, "Oh, for an world look for every morning hour of Oliver," or for the wise thought and tions not to come back the impudence of the outer fence. This Clara would look for every morning hour of Oliver," or for the wise thought and tions not to come back the impudence of the outer fence. who are expeditions. He says that no few- and most intelligent, made up mainly of the shop ing expeditions. He says that no few- and most intelligent, made up mainly of the shop ing expeditions. He says that no few- and most intelligent, made up mainly of the shop ing expeditions are caught young man of that young man of the says that no few- and most intelligent, made up mainly of the grain !" shop, mg the thousand women are caught young men of that very neighborhood who early.

mania while examining the fashions is most Patriot sympathies were strong. in re lible. Among the most recent culprits were a Russial princess, a French know I sympathise with the patriot cause, discourse against a sin called "Schism," or silence. prits well an English duchess, and the St George," she said to me in one of those as the preacher pronounced it, "Skism." c united aughter of a bigning sovereign. As fifteen minutes of tete-a tete; "I hope," MyCompany's duty on the night of the arule, these more disinguished offenders she wou'd add, "that I know my own outbreak was to cut down the bridge at the are let off on the pay ant of a round sum heart aright in assuring myself that I am Don, and stop the Kingston mail coach. for the relief of the poe; and when the in no way influenced by any slight or infor the relief of the poe; and when the in no way influenced by any slight or infor the relief of the poe; and when the in no way influenced by any slight or infor the relief of the poe; and when the in no way influenced by any slight or infor the relief of the poe; and when the in no way influenced by any slight or insult offered to our Country and the Patriots hoplifter is known to b rich the sum exsult offered to our Country and the Patriots hoplifter is known to b rich the sum exin the family where I live; I hear quough of And Sir Add the Patriots
And Sir Add the Patriots
hopping the relief of the poe; and when the in no way influenced by any slight or insult offered to our Country and the Patriots
hopping the relief of the poe; and when the in no way influenced by any slight or insult offered to our Country and the Patriots
hopping the relief of the poe; and when the sum exsult offered to our Country and the Patriots hopping the relief of the poe; and when the sum exin the family where I live; I hear quough of the relief of the poe; and the relief of the relief of the relief of the poe; and the relief of the reli shoplifter is known to a rich the sum ex-shoplifter is known to a rich the sum ex-shoplifter is known to a rich the sum ex-shoplifter is known to a rich the sum ex-in the family where I live; I hear enough of them from maid and mistress. "Nay, said volunteers, who had no uniforms and looked I, stopping her lips by a method not perhaps no better than we did, and he went about serious encounte arising out of dying. And you must not report what is I now look back on these days of fierv said in the enemy's parlor or servants hall to zeal with the cooler crit cism of old age. a snowball fight, lately took place between two regiments at Canterbur, England.

nad taken Me Mullen's And before Clara

CHAPTER V.

The busy Fall was passing into Winter, society, the farmers thought the Country were drilled into regiments, armed, and own Company of Toron'o Patriots numbered over a hundred, every man armed with a rifle and many with roughly made short swords which for (street fighting would be better than bayonets.

office was then one of supreme power, not, lunch to the flunkeyism of the city.)

blue heaven, full of hope!

the irreverence to name "My Lord." The Dy "Curfew." "And I can tell you the time, they are doing all that is in these

Stukely resided; no! you may guess! I sent | pany of a young man who was strongly sus- even kind thought. After all, what, on since the soldiers' raid on my guardian's house, affair of mine, only I think Canadian manbroken by loyalist stone throwing. Time if you desire to remain in my service, a pos-Mullen, the roses had indeed quitted her Canada, you will not seek such company face, leaving a few thorns about her chin again. I cannot sermit treasonable follow-

Clara bowed and withdrew. "A domestic. "followers" "young woman," such wer the taunts of this military "swell" to a lady week the Advocate. We met now and then as well born and better-bred than his purse of titled ladis seized with klepto- whom, greatly from Father Caird's teaching, my evenings with Clara, I went once to hear comes or who goes after the funeral rites with his head on his arms on the back of the Dr. Strachan at St James'. No Clara in the have been duly celebrated and the last seat in front of him. The tar was so thick Clara was heart and soul with us! "You place, and I listened disconsolate to an hour's echoes of the funeral orations have died into on his head that it covered the hair out of

Is there anybody so great that the world sensibly misses him after he is away? The answer to such a question is very humbling to human pride. The mighty forest does not miss the falling leaf :

at Miss McMullen's house, for I was be. proud wife. But Clara had a high spirit, does not cause a great sensation when it guiding hand of this one and that, but the ed.

> 'Marchioness the word of a sautleman is as good as his bond," Although I consider the discovery of Vac-the body is covered with short hairs and it to her daughter, she said: "Read it." exemptions is a very significant one, and in when the tar hardens a little the slightest. The girl obeyed. "Papa has broken his leg the end has resulted not in the interest of ance, yet I cannot simagine any ircum- movement causes acute pain, as if one's and gone to the hospital," she said. The the exempted. In the meantime, Trurk stances whate- ... that would induce to beard was being pulled out with pinchers, mother's face brightened, "Thank heaven follow up the most favorable report crits hair by hair. Then there is the stoppage of it is no worse," she said : "I feared he might

I, stopping her lips by a method not perhaps no better than we did, and he went about original, but very effective; "there is a third armed with two swell rifles for his own estimative in warfare besides conqueries or pecial shooting.

Inch there is the stoppage of infallication, which would soon kill a man if alternative in warfare besides conqueries or pecial shooting.

A gentleman who had been in town only Fifty years ago there was scarcely a