HORSE
 rob, of Fenelon
 Mr. George Martin
 yond Haliburton, had a lose a horse by drowago. All we can lead to the accident is, that as were being driven across a la-stream the ice gave way beneath t and only one of them could be got of the water alive.

THE PULP MILL.—Some of the members of the company about to erect the pulp mill in this village were here a few days ago, and it is understood that preparations for building will be commenced almost immediately. In our advertising columns will be found a notice of the intention of the council to pass a by-law to close up and lease the portions of Water street on which the works are to stand.

THRESHING MACHINE ACCIDENT.— On Wednesday last, while a threshing machine owned by Mr. Henry Sackett was at work on Mr. Wm. McCullis's farm at Pleasant Valley, in Fenelon, the driving belt broke, a band on the cylinder burst, the cylinder flew to pieces and the machine was badly wrecked.
 Mr. Robert Nesbitt, who was feeding it at the moment, was struck on the side by a piece of board and knocked over, but was all right again next day, and all the other men engaged at the threshing escaped unhurt.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—The Lindsay Warder says:—Word comes from Dakota that Mr. Thos. Graham, formerly of Valentia, and Mr. Wm. O'Keefe, of Ops, were caught in a violent storm last week while drawing hay across the prairie, and lost their way. Poor Graham was frozen to death, and Mr. O'- Keefe was found almost with the last breath in him. Under the care of kind friends, however, he is gradually improving. The many friends of Mr.
 Graham through Maripasa will be sorry to hear of his untimely death.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—A resident of this riding, who returned from Toronto on Thursday, informed us that just as the Midland train was leaving the city a carter tried to drive across the track in front of the engine, which, though moving very slowly, could not be stopped in time to prevent a collision. The unfortunate man had an arm and a leg broken and received such severe injuries on his head and body that, though not dead when the train left, no hopes were entertained of his recovery, and the horse had one of its feet cut almost off.

$300 FOR FENELON.—Among a number of small grants made this week by the Ontario Government was one of three hundred dollars for the township of Fenelon, which sum is to be expended on roads, part on one side of the lake and part on the other. The grant will prove very acceptable, and as it was obtained in consequence of representations made by Mr. Peck, the member for North Victoria, his constituents in this part of the riding will no doubt share the opinion of those further north that he is the "right man in the right place," and that it would not be a wise thing to let him go.

IMPROVING.—We are glad to hear that Mr. Peter Juncch, who was so seriously injured by the blasting accident on the canal last week, is improving, and that his hands, though badly torn, will in the course of time probably be as useful as ever. From what we have since learned of the cause of the accident, it appears that the men had been directed to clean out three holes in which the druff had missed fire, and that when within about four inches of the bottom of the last one they ceased pouring in water, under the impression that the charge had all been removed, and an explosion was the result.

RUNAWAY.—Last Thursday evening a team of horses owned by Mr. John Junkin, of Verulam (brother of Mr.
 Henry Junkin, of this village) took fright at something while standing at Mr. R. C. Smith's blacksmith's shop, south of the river, and ran away. After crossing the bridge the sleigh to which they were attached collided with a load of logs, and the runaways then took the sidewalk on the east side of Colborne street and continued their career, tho' at no great speed, until they reached Moffat & McFarland's grocery, where, getting tangled up between the verandah posts on one side and fish barrels, &c., on the other, the off horse slipped and fell, and a number of men ran up and secured them. Two panes of glass and a sash were broken and a wash tub damaged, but no further harm was done.

The Forgotten Classes.
 The New York Herald says:—One of the remarkable consequences of the present tariff agitation promises to be a discovery on the part of Congress of the existence of several classes of people of whom the average legislator has never heard. There is, for instance, the innocent and patient consumer, who has never previously asserted himself in tariff debates and has been satisfied to pay twenty-five per cent. more for all the commodities he bought simply that he might have a quiet life. Then there is the dealer, who has a great trade in things that are made abroad, and is not inclined to give up that trade in order to benefit some small concern that has just set up a mill to make the same articles in this country and wants protection for an "infant industry." If the signs of the times are not greatly at fault the dealer, the consumer will be heard of before this fight is done with & a way to convince the manufacturer that he is not the whole American people. What classes there would be in favor of the Democratic party if every Democratic leader was not a born coward and imbecile.

Aborigines Framing Laws.
 HALIFAX, Jan. 29.—A mass meeting of Mic-mac Indians took place at the Indian settlement about four miles from Shubenacadie in February. Representatives of nearly all the different settlements throughout Nova Scotia and from some sections of New Brunswick are expected to be present. The object of the gathering is to frame a code of criminal laws respecting crimes committed by Indians, and to appoint representatives of their body to meet with the Minister of Justice at Ottawa with a view of having the said laws passed at the coming meeting of the Dominion Parliament. They claim that the present criminal laws of the Dominion do not apply to them, and attribute a large number of the present crimes which thrive in the forests, qualified his cold refreshment by a "nip" of rum. Shortly afterward he died in excruciating agony, and a post mortem examination showed that his internal organs were literally scaled up with India rubber.
 He had imbued the sap of Mimosa
latifolia the juice of which coagulates and hardens in alcohol, and the gum had had its usual effect in the poor man's stomach, with necessarily fatal results.

time for preparation is very short, as the nominations are to take place on the 20th inst., and the polling on the 27th.
 The proclamations for North Victoria will be printed at this office on Monday next and circulated as soon as possible thereafter throughout the riding. Of the result of the contest here we have no doubt, Mr. Peck's numerous services to his constituents and the popularity of the Government he supports being sure to give him a decisive victory.
 Active preparations for the contest are being made by his friends in every municipality, and he will have the vote of every advocate of Provincial rights and Provincial liberties who has a vote to

THE PRICES OF GRAIN.
 If quotations given by a leading grain merchant in Montreal are a true index of prices in Ontario and the States, then the farmers of Ontario are receiving on an average ten cents less per bushel for wheat than is paid in the States at the same distance from shipping ports. This is attributed to railway amalgamation, whereby the Grand Trunk is able, in the absence of competition, to levy higher rates than are paid in the States.
 If this be so, the Ontario farmer is labouring under a great disadvantage as compared to the farmer in the States, and one at which he may well grumble.
 For the Grand Trunk has received many millions to aid in its construction. Can Government not protect the agricultural interests of the country and secure lower rates from the company it has so largely supported, or will it become a necessity to build competing lines? The Midland and Grand Junction can only compete in summer with the Grand Trunk, and the same is the case with canals. Might it not be better, then, to buy it out and run it in the interests of the country than to spend more money in constructing new routes? The too general practice of one competing line buying out another and then raising freights should lead Government to either fix rates on all railways they aid, or else stipulate that they shall not sell out or to buy any competing line. It seems that this has not been guarded against in the case of the Grand Trunk, and hence the agricultural interest of the country is at its mercy. Whoever is to blame, one thing is certain, and that is that the interests of the farmer are at present being sacrificed in order that the Grand Trunk railway may be enriched.

The condition of the wheat market in the States and Canada—setting aside the alleged Grand Trunk monopoly—reveals the fact that, if the protective duties of both countries were abolished, there would be no imports of any consequence from one or the other—nothing, at least, to affect prices materially. If any traffic sprang up it would be in fall wheat from Ontario, which being of better quality than that grown in the States would command higher prices there.
 Free trade in wheat with the States just now would not only be mutually beneficial but would be a wholesome check on the traffic rates. Both countries would gain by free trade, from the want of which both are now suffering. Should the action of the Grand Trunk lead to a breaking down of the shortsighted policy that injuriously affects them, Ontario will be delivered from what now operates as a serious drawback to her prosperity.

A LINDSAY VICTORY.
 Happening to be in Lindsay last Tuesday evening, we witnessed the triumphant return of the members of the curling club who, at the recent bonspiel at Montreal, had the good fortune to defeat all competitors from both Canada and the United States. There were bonfires on the main street, a grand torchlight procession headed by a brass band, fireworks &c.; but the banquet, for which we heard great preparations were being made, was not to take place until Wednesday night. The trophy which the curlers brought home with them is a splendid tankard, that would hold about a pint, made of solid silver beautifully chased and richly gilt inside. Including the lignum vitae stand, it is about a foot high, and half way up the stem, on a projection or shelf made for the purpose, are four golden brooms and an equal number of silver curling stones—if we may use the expression without being accused of making a bull.
 The tankard, which was on exhibition in Messrs. Dundas & Flavelle Bros' shop window on Wednesday morning, attracted a crowd of admiring gazers, who found no difficulty in believing that it was worth the $125 it was said to have cost. The members of the Lindsay club who achieved the "famous victory" were Messrs. S. A. McMurtry, Wm. Needler, J. D. Flavelle, J. Matthew, J. W. Wallace, T. E. Bradburn,

A Bereaved Bride.
 HALIFAX COURT HOUSE, Va., Jan. 28.
 —Last night Mr. Jas. Guthrie, a prosperous young farmer, was married, and a large number of guests were present, at the wedding, which was solemnized at the residence of the bride's father.
 Owing to bad weather the guests remained at the mansion all night. This morning when they had assembled at the breakfast table it was remarked that the bride and groom were late coming. Suddenly the shrieks of a woman hurried into the hall, where they met the bride of a night, who cried, "My husband! oh, my husband!" When she awoke this morning she found her husband dead by her side. She is almost insane from grief. His funeral will take place to-morrow from the house in which he was married. His four roomsmen will act as pall-bearers, and the minister who married them will read the burial service.

Singular Accident.
 Last week at Halifax an attempt was being made at the Marine and Fisheries' wharf to place on board the tug steamer Goliath a new boiler weighing fifteen tons, when the derrick proved too weak and the boiler fell on the edge of the dock, tilting the vessel and knocking four men into the water, the boiler with them. The men were all soon rescued, one of them, Andrew Hillman, a ship carpenter, was slightly injured, the doctor remains at the bottom of Terrible Explosion of Molten Iron.

 ADRIAN, Mich., Jan. 31.—On Tuesday afternoon a terrible accident occured at the Peninsular Car Works here.
 Two men, carrying a ladle of molten iron, were going through a covered passage-way separating two buildings. The slippers, was icy and one of them was thrown upon the ice. It instantly slipped and with terrible effect, and the men plodded with terrible force. John Ray, a young man, was lifted and thrown by the force of the explosion through a window ten feet from the ground.
 His backbone is laid bare, and the flesh peeling from it, while he is badly burned about the breast and abdomen. Adelbert Smith, another man, is injured, and his injuries will very likely prove fatal. He is horribly burned. The building was set on fire, but the flames were soon extinguished. Another man was badly burned about the head, but not fatally.

An Earthquake Shock.
 BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Reports from Welland county, Ontario, say a severe shock of earthquake was felt about 6:30 p. m. At Port Colborne it was quite distinct, and it was supposed that another nitro-glycerine explosion had occurred on the canal works between that place and the stone bridge.
 An enquiry from the telegraph office at the latter place indicated that it was unfounded. At Thorold, about twenty miles distant from Port Colborne, the shock was felt distinctly, but no theory as to its cause could be advanced. Intermediate towns report feeling it more or less distinctly. It was supposed that the shock had followed the course of the canal, but a report just received from Drummondville states that in that village the shock was felt with considerable distinctness. Welland, Allenburgh, Port Robinson and other points report feeling the shock.

Extraordinary Death of a Traveller.
 An extraordinary fatality has occured in British India, where an inex-perient traveller, having, as is the custom in tropical countries, taken a refreshing draught from the stem of one of the many water-holding plants which thrive in the forests, qualified his cold
 literally scaled up with India rubber.
 He had imbued the sap of Mimosa
 stomach, with necessarily fatal results.

 wonderful success in the cure of consump-
