From the March Century. THE morn hath not the glory that it wore. Nor doth the day so beautifully die, Since I can call thee to my side no more,

The choicest to thy grave.

- To gaze upon the sky. For thy dear hand, with each return of spring I sought in sunny nooks the flowers she I seek them still, and sorrowfully bring
- Here, where I sit alone, is sometimes heard, From the great world, a whisper of my Joined haply, to some kind, commending word By those whose praise is fame.
- And then, as if I thought thou still wert nigh, I turn me, half forgetting thou art dead. To read the gentle gladness in thine eye That once I might have read,
- I turn, but see thee not; before my eyes The image of a hill-side mound appears Where all of thee that passed not to the skies Was taid with bitter tears.
- And I, whose thoughts go back to happier days That fied with thee, would gladly now re-All that the world can give of fame and praise
- For one sweet look of thine.
- Thus, ever, when I read of generous deeds, Such words as thou didst once delight to My heart is wrung with anguish as it bleeds
- To think thou art not near. And now that I can talk no more with thee
- Of ancient friends and days too fair to last, A bitterness blends with the memory Of all that happy past.

Oh, when I ---

An Episode in the Life of a Fortunate Unfortunate.

CHAPTER XX.

It will have been perceived, that the events of the preceding chapter occurred cravat. during the second winter of Ben Hollins's stay at Hickory Hall. Acd now, to return pany with basilisk eye, and called out, "An tion; but I think we can take him. He thither, we have to note, that, as that winter advanced, most notable changes were go ing on within the instution.

Room after room was vacated. Many tearful and yet joyous farewells were uttered at the office-door; and carriages were al- | ti; f-" most every day rolling down the avenue with restored men and women who were going home again. It was something like gist; i-c, ic-antiphlogistic, oh, yes! ha, the breaking up of a school for the holidays. Now, these especially good seasons for the cure of the insane are strongly marked; but there is no known periodicity in them, no rule by which they can be foretold. The sive ! Ha, ha!" fact only is noted, put up for definition, and, -mark the prophecy !-some day it will be

In consequence of the many departures, therefore, and of the corresponding few ar rivals, a strange silence reigned in Hickory of Judge Blancy, of the Superior Court, Hall, The groups which gathered in the rang outgrounds, or walked upon the frosty avenues, became unusually small. The trio of mag nates grew sad, and were in danger of forgetting all about "general paresis," for and saying, "Not exactly in your line, lack of new patients to condemn to that dire Judge.

In the general shower of good which seemed to be falling, Ben Hollins was receiving more frequent; but remember! they were of contempt, almost of shame, overspread reading. Dr. Peterson began to take Ben out with of it. Had the gleam of well-balanced in- thrown again, and Ben's cure once more him in his carriage. He held the doctor's telligence, that indescribable something postponed. horse very reliably, when that functionary which some men have and some have not, had occasion to stop at one of the stores. Two or three concert troupes came that way, and Ben was made happy with the sound of up Ben's countenance as it did only a few sweet music. A stereopticon was brought years ago, the public would have made to the town ; and Ben was on a pinnacle of short work of the comparison. glory while the yellow palaces, the purple mountains, and other monstrosities floated Meantime, Dr. Peterson cared very little about the music of the "Protean Band," or Hall. the glories of Prafessor Photog's "unrivalled exhibition of the unsurpassed landscapes of Italy, France, and the land of William Tell." He sat through these second-rate performances for Ben's sake; and he made notes of test. A flash of doubt, of pity, instantly Ben's emotions, of Ben's sayings, and of his covered with judicial gravity, lighted up

In January two young men of the town | whispered to Dr. Peterson. The doctor stood called at the office to invite the doctors to up, to make himself heard more distinctly, attend a spelling-match at the town-hall, and said with all his voice, "No, sir; go on, adding, that, if there were any patient at if you please."

Not for all the world would Dr. Peterson the asylum whom they would like to bring they also would be made welcome. Dr. Peterson said, after these young men were gone, "Laidlaw, I shall take Ben." "What for ?"

"To spell."

"Yes. I have noticed that he is an authority on that subject. The men in the convalescent ward-appeal to him every day, bring the work of the evening to a close as and I have never known of his making one mistake.

"It is a risk," said Laidlaw. "Not a great one," replied Peterson.

"What if he should become excited?"
"I shall watch him. To tell you the at the schoolmaster and Ben. For ten minutes, however, they bore it well; until, in fruth, I am willing that he should be exfact, their success became monotonous. Some cited, up to a certain point," Dr. Peterson

"Is that point definite, determinable?"

asked Laidlaw. "As much so as the end of that line you are tracing with your pencil. And, in one ed a little, and thought. Perhaps his brain word, I am determined to try Ben. We was bewildered. So had Ben's been for a have been like watchmakers, you and I: we have had Ben here a good many months; we have taken him to pieces, so to speak, and put him together again. I propose to wind him up now, and see whether he will go, or not. If not, we must be patient. You this might grow, and building up in his soul

Laidlaw replied, "With the slightest hesitation, doctor, with the mere shadow of a doubt. You are far beyond the rest of us, however, in organization. Your diagnosis is always clear, your prognosis more often justified than any other man in the profes. yes! A word of Greek origin, I should of the preceding daysion. I speak of facts now, I am not bandy. | say.

Schoolmaster looked foolish. What would ing compliments. If you take Ben, I would he not have given for a knowledge of Greek like to go with you. roots and forms, for a procession of Greek The evening came, and the town-hall was filled with old and young. Hundreds of ing him to spell that dreadful word. faces were uplifted toward the stage, in an-"Spell it, then, my dear fellow," said the ticipation of the glee to come. For the highest and best in the town were to be judge kindly and patronizingly. 'Oh, yes!" said Ben, "I'll try. I've neve there, and show themselves off. The two been kicked by a goose yet.' The spectators tittered, and Ben began-coming candidates for Congress were in the ranks; the politicians who could not spell at all sat among the audience, trembling lest these gentlemen should injure their chances by the introduction of this new element into the discussion of personal merits. But oh ! lucky chance! they both went down in the vain endeavor to thrust an finto " phlebotomy."

There were lawyers, clergymen, doctors, school-teachers, editors, merchants, barbers, mechanics, reporters, and young men and maidens from the high school, from St. Brazennose's College, and from Madame du octosyllabic, words beginning with an x Enna's "French, Italian, German, Spanish, which had succumbed, in pronunciation, hends, and devours everything, including victors. words and definitions. His long, thin body and limbs indicate the dryness of his daily, would be if thou hadst spelled "bullsfoot" door.

hourly sustenance. His jaws are always in with three f's. And more's the pity that a "Misther Fully, wud ye do me a kindness?" of unnumbered words and definitions. His brought to such a pass ! skin is, in color and substance, precisely like | Awake, science! Spend no more time an old monastic volume; one look at him and strength in petty fightings over this address, leaving Folliss nothing but the pest-will convince any doubter that the legend theory and that. Coolly test the theories ! mark and the stamp to look at. of the use of the human cutic'e, in ancient Cast out the rubbish, and keep the gold ! "Hick-hick-o-ville,-must be Hicktimes, for manuscript purposes, is not Press on toward the-light! Shall revela- oryville, but it is very indistinct; the State merely possible, but entirely practicable.

The vocabulary of law, theology, anatomy, the respective commerce, politics, astronomy, in the future's womb, who shall discover United States stamp." mythology, botany-in brief, the whole ver- the pulse of the mind, the mental vaccina- "An' where is dat, Misther Fully?" grasp. He stood between the two long lines After returning to his office, and seeing my good woman. Hickoryville is very uncolemn speech, announcing the rules of the down a volume of records, and house the rules of the down a volume of records, and house the rules of the down a volume of records.

spelling-match, and giving good advice. fully at all he had written there respecting | Carney put the letter into her pocket, and This was simply sharpening his scythe, so case No. 2,361. He compared old entries retired to her own quarters, where she sat to speak. Then, with a reaper's whirl, he with newer ones; he looked at lengthy are cogitating, until the da kness reminded who had been ill for over two years, and sent a word among the spellers. Down rays of facts in cases of other patients, and her of her evening duties in the halls be- had tried many other medicines, became they went, one, two, three. From that brought them into close view by the side of low. point, the contest went on briskly, and the the facts in Ben's case.

One solitary colored brother was in line, near the foot. As he solemnly, but confidently, fill the bill in Cincinnati or 'Old Bluegrass,'"

A politician spelled five wards correctly.

him-"Corruption." The speller's eye happened to light upon the burly form of an office-holder who had added several mills to the local taxes of Hickory County; and without hesitation he sacrificed himself

thus: "M-i-k-e, cor; E-a, rup; g-a-n, tion

-corruption." The "ins" hissed, the "outs" applauded; Mr. Eagan himself finally quelled the riot by laughing until he was Suddenly the audience became aware that the climax was approaching. Of all the spellers there remained only a judge of the Supreme Court, an Episcopal clergyman, the principal of St. Brazennose's, two very bright young ladies-and a queer-looking creature who stood with his arms dangling, his head moving about as if purpose and attention were unknown to him, and who

The clergyman took it up, "A-n, an ; t-i,

A sweet voice responded, "A-n, an; t-i,

"A-n, an; t-i, ti; p-h-l-o, phlo; g-i-s-t, t, looked at poor Ben, then at poor Mr.

Episcopal Minister, and burst into a respon-

Another soft soprano suggestively, almost

Proudly and promptly the diapason tones

"Next," exclaimed Judge Minturn,

The schoolmaster spelled the word corectand which is marked upon men's faces in an infinite scale of degrees-had this lighted

As it is, however, a chattering lady ex-she said te her neighbor, "Isn't it absurd?

their necks to see and hear th coming con-man to throw away the opportunity.

of the audience even went out.

"Time is up," said the judge.

"H-y, hy; g-r-o, gro, s-p-

All eyes turned now upon Ben.

" H-y, hy; g-r-o, gro; s-c-o, sco; p-i-c O Ben, Ben! for shame! But it was "the

The judge waited a moment for the en-

What words! where on earth did they come from? Words heptasyllabic, words

Yes, Ben, thou art a gentleman, and would be if thou hadst spelled "bullsfoot" pic; i, i; t-y, ty,-hygroscopicity. Ha, ha,

Giant's" fault that you made this slip.

what a devil of a word !"

"Fugist," called out the judge.

inquiringly, offered "F-u-g-e-"

" F-u-g-e-

"Next," said the judge.

the house roared.

black in the face.

fun waxed warmer and warmer. The ranks | But to say that Dr. Peterson came to any ning can be called coincident with that high- it's use, after several physicians had failed to thinned with more rapidity than Casar conclusion by means of these studies, would er exercise of reason. Turn the facts over do her any good. Yours truly, solemnly assures us those of the Goths be to say what is not true. The true phy- and over in her mind as she might, she could did when his light horse bore down upon sician, whether of mind or body, does not see but two of them with any clearness. So simple a word as "Atticize" slew ready to proclaim his theories, and call onto with regularity, probably once a week. scores. "Foreflow"—a word which any one them facts. A conclusion is a very easy Secondly, as the letters always look alike—can spell, even in public—was treated to a thing to him, prophecy mere child's play. she had noticed the color of the envelopes parti-colored coat which made it unrecogniz- Unhappily, there are some quacks with re- they must be from the same source always.

able. F-o u-r was impossible, f-o-e-r the gular diplomas in their possession. same, f-o-a-r no better; and the spellers | But Dr. Peterson did not derive a great | Ben, and they might not. "The might not, even floundered about with ph for a handle satisfaction from the review of Ben's case. | was far away from Carney's thoughts, Mac. | Dr. Pierce's "Pellets" (the original "little ts their word. Down they went, and the Nest day he studied his patient with even rae's crime was so indelibly impressed upon newest comers turned their bewildered wits greater care than ever; and not that day her, that she leaped to the conclusion that he sick or bilious headache, sour stomach, and to the second syllable. F-l-o, f-l-o-e, f-l-o-h, only, but constantly.

were pronounced in succession. Next day It was plainer and plainer that nature was States, and that somewhere was-Hickory- vial. any inhabitant of Hickoryville could have doing much for Ben Hollins-Hallowell, as ville. spelled that little word correctly ; but some- they supposed him to be at Hickory Hall.

one who could do it that evening was found. wisely said Dr. Peterson. gave it as his opinion that " F-c-f-l-o would tried to make use of it, as he sought to employ any and every indication of mental activity, encouraging and stimulating in one very next week she was on the watch. Again direction, diverting in another. With dethe factitious exercise of his faculties.

Not a week after the spelling-match an attendant called the doctor from one of the other rooms in Ben's ward, and requested him to go softly to Ben's door. The door was slightly ajar, and Dr. Peterson saw Ben whisking about the room with a pillow. One moment the pillow would be up in the air, the next moment it and Ben went tum bling and rolling about upon the floor, sometimes Ben uppermost, sometimes the pillow. At last, after great exertions, Ben seemed to have conquered this pugnacious adversary, and laid the pillow upon the bed; then wiping his perspiring face, and breathing hard, he turned to address imaginary occupants of the room :

"Well, me dear friends (like a true son of had unbuttoned his vest and untied his the Dominion, he never said my), I had me giving letters to anyone but himself. doubts at first, thinking, in fact, that your if the letters are meant for your missus, tell The judge surveyed this scattered com- son ought to be sent to a different institubrought him into the ward, but that was only natural. At all events we can try him here Going through the public room, where men, for fifty or sixty years; and if he doesn't for the most part ill-favored ones, sat drinkimprove by that time-I may as well be candid with you-there will be no hope for him. No hope-no hope," continued Ben, slowly and musingly. Dr. Peterson watched him, as he came out of the room and sauntered away down the hall. Again and The andience, struck with the humor of again Ben was repeating softly to himself, looked at poor Ben, then at poor Mr. "No hope—no hope," his head bent downward, his carriage indicative of a mental struggle towards the comprehension of hope

> Dr. Peterson touched Ben slightly, and asked, " Doctor, is there no hope for your new patient? The reverie, the struggle, that is, with memory—just such a struggle as any man may fall into, any day, only in Ben's case it was more difficult than in yours-was broken. Ben stood irresolute one moment, exclaimed, "Oh, I was near forgetting him !" poking his finger at his learned brother, and bounded off to his room. Ben's room was in a short side passage, which stood at "Come out of dish, an' I'll tell you," she a right angle with the main hall. Thither replied. Dr. Peterson followed him, in the interests ly, as a schoolmaster ought, and plumed him-self visibly. Next moment he glauced across of science. But at this moment Ben's torsufficient to make Drs. Peterson and Laid- the stage. His only competitor was that mentress seemed to consider hereelf neglectlaw rejoice. Flashes of intelligence grew strange-looking creature; an expression ed, and as Ben reached his door she whisponly flashes. The element of permanence the schoolmaster's face. The spectators took whipped the air with both arms, exclaimwas still lacking. Lightning is very bright, up the contrast between these two, and the ing, "Now don't you do that again !" and but not a good thing to depend upon for schoolmaster was looked on as the easy victor scampered back into the hall. At the angle he ran full tilt into Dr. Peterson. There St. Jacobs Oil. The young fellow got mad of the evening. Nevertheless, in physical appearance, Ben had unmistakably the best | was a terrible upset; science was over-

Ah, well! it is seldom anything serious happens at Hickory Hall. Dr. Peterson lay upon the floor, laughing so heartily over his rencontre that he was obliged to call up some self-control, or he would have screamed outright, and that is not allowed in the con- readily the first time trying as the second. valescent ward of Hickory Hall; and over the doctor stood Ben, blushing, confused, pressed the public sentiment, probably when full of regrets and apologies. He stooped to lift the doctor up, and it occurred to him Why, that is one of the patients from the to say, "You went down, sir, as if something had struck you. You must have been kicked And even so, a great hush fell upon the

by a goose, sir." audience and the defeated spellers. Men "Yes, Ben," replied the doctor ; " and a and women grew very grave, and craned pretty powerful goose, too." "Ha, ha!" said Ben; "but you can't spe Hyros-what's this now?"

Judge Minturn's face, and he turned and the scene now; and "Merry," always proud of his powers, took up Ben's words. "Spell what?" he asked, with a sniffle.

"Hygroscopicity," answered Ben.
"Pshah!" snarled "Merry." "I could spell that standing on one leg! Pshah! You have withdrawn Ben from the match at that moment. To his mind, a principle of menforwards, crossways, any wav you liketal science was struggling towards first syllables in the middle ! Pshah ! I was revelation. He might not succeed in grasping it, but he certainly was not the marshal of the city of New York when I was

" Now, don't you do that again !" cried Judge Minturn raturned, therefore, to his Ben, hurrying away. task. From the character of the words he "I shall do it again, if I wish to," replied now took up, he must have intended to 'Merry" angrily, throwing the words at Ben's retreating figure. "I can be marshal quickly as possible. He became a very of this establishment, if I say the wordcatapult; and it would seem an impossibiliand if you, doctor, will only let me go down ty for child, woman or man, to stand long town, and get my teeth fixed !" before the shower of verbal bowlders huried

CHAPTER XXI.

BROUGHT TO BAY. The day following Carney's second dis-Then the judge called, "Hygroscopiccovery of Thomas Macrae in Toronto, she brought the paper upon which Bly Folliss It was the schoolmaster's turn. He fidget had written at her request, and asked that gentleman to read it.

"It's dhat haird fur me to remimber " Next," said the judge; and the school it, like an honest man?' master sat down, wondering whereupon With this exposition Carney went off, re- in drugs.

peating to herself, "Hollyhill-Holly-ull, a bitter grudge against that abominable science, or art, or whatever it might be-At the post-office, whither she betook herself at once, she courtesied gravely to the clerk, and, doubtless by way of refreshing I know there ain't." "Oh, yes !" said he, "you want to catch his memory, opened fire with her questions imagine. Hygroscopicity ! Oh.

"Has me masther been here the day? Dhe missus is dhat hasty for dhe letthers, she druv me out, she did.

"Your master? Oh! you mean that dark characters dancing before his eyes, and help. man ?" queried the clerk. "Yis, indade, I do!"

"Let me see, what was his name?" Carney hesitated, but was she lost? People who hesitate always are, the proverb says. | they have made them of value to themselves. Not so with Carney "It's yersilf dhat has a right to know dhe name," she said. " What do ye kape a letther-office for, but to have all dhe names in creation afore yer very eyes?" The clerk had found E. P. Hallowell's name by this time, down in the depths of a General Delivery memory, and turned to whirlone of the great revolving stands around thusiasm of the audience to subside, and until he came to H. It was easy enough grandpa. Amen. then called order, saying, "the rule is-five then to find Ha-and next Hal. That box

"No letters," he called out to Carney. "Good-day to you, thin, and thank

The next day, and the next, and the next, Good old Judge Minturn had been requested to "give out the words." The judge announced Judge Minturn;" and Judge "No letters." But in a week there came a Blaney's side, and Mr. Hallowell, are the change. The clerk gave her a letter in a blue Carney was at the window for her " masenvelope. With haste she returned to "The Alderney," and knocked at Mr. Folliss's alight motion, as of one who chews the cud gentleman, nay hundreds of them, should be Tell me where is dhis lether from?" she asked. She cunningly held her thumbs over the call theories conclusions The quack is ever First, Macrae was receiving letters at Tor-Now, these letters might have reference to had Ben in keeping somewhere in the cleanse the system and bowels. 25 cents a how it required many attempts before the "And I am nature's servant and assistant," incognita, as far away practically as Africa, per cent of the estate. to be classed in her geography with Aus-Ben kept up that solemn farce of the pro. tralia or India. Her reasoning, therefore, fessional medic; and Dr. Peterson even came to an end, very much like the road in Si Kimber's.

Not so her persistence, however. The came a letter, and Carney received is from

The next week came another. Carney concealed and guarded the three treasures which had fallen into her hands, looking at them daily, as if they might take voice, and tell her what she had not the power to extract from them.

The fourth week-it was now the carly part of March-she appeared at the window "Mr. Hallowell has been here himself," said the clerk. "And a precious row he kicked up too. What's the matter between him and 'the missus?' "Didn t I tell ye dhat she was just drav to death wid him?"

"He was pretty mad when I told him that | ing is done with the intention of cheating the you had taken out his letters; and you must not come any more. He has forbidden our her to have them directed to her."

"Thank you, sir; dhat I will." Musing as what step to take next, she set out for "The Prince of Cumberland House. ing and talking, Carney entered a little sittihg-room, affected of an evening by Mrs. Brannigan, the proprietress. Glancing about her. Carney saw that the room was occupied, not by her crony, as usual, but by two men, one of whom she recognized as Tim, Mrs. Brannigan's youngest son, and the other, to her amazement, as Thomas Macrae.

Carney, not for any great length of time. One minute of surprise sufficed on this occasion; and she burst upon the couple with swered the witness. the exclamation-

"You here, Thomas Macrae?" Macrae had hardly looked at Carney as she entered; thanks to her new bonnet and gown, and her generally bettered condition, he did not recognize her. But he was start. Joints, Pain Inflammation &c. 23. led at the sound of her voice.

"What in-merciful goodness! Who are

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

A Toothsome Morsel.

This from the Madison (Wis.) Democrat conveys its own moral :- Hold on! We are cognizant of the fact that an aching tooth was last night cured by the application of over his raging tooth in the ball room, and rushed straightway to a drug store where he applied the good old German Remedy; in ten minutes the toothache had gone.

Practice makes perfect. True, but a man can contrive to drop a hot horseshoe as Extract from a letter just received (December, 1882,) by Mrs. Thos. Murray, from her husband, Mr. Thos. Murray, who was for many years' Bridge Conductor for the Great Western Railway at Niagara Falls, afterwards one of the contractors on the enlarged Welland Canal (Section 12), and is now in Northern Michigan. looking after his timber interests in that country. He writes: "Tell Sutherland I am now starting for the woods with 36 men, where I will be all winter, and that I am now without ache or pain in either my knees or arms (something I have not Some of the patients were gathered upon- known for years), thanks to the two bottles of Rheumatine which I procured from him before leaving St. Catharines.

It has long been claimed that using cof fee and tea caused nervousness, and now entirely. The real cause of the greatest disappeared as by magic. We can cheerfully nervousness among married men is the exought to hear daughty spell-backwards, pectation of finding their wives awake when Kingston. they come home late.

Each bottle of BRIGGS' ELECTRIC OIL will nereafter be accompanied by a corkscrew, as it is important that the cork should be preserved and the bottle well corked when not in use to retain the strength of the medicine. It cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Lidney Complaints or of the Urinary Organs; cures complaints arising from Colds, such as Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Diptheria, Cough, Asthma and Difficult Breathing.

A New Hampshire man tied a four-pound stone to the end of a cow's tail to keep that member quiet whlle he milked her. After they got the fragments of teeth and blood, etc., out of his mouth and put arnica and a bandgage on his jaw, he stated that he would never repeat the experiment as the end of the tail naturally hit as hard a blow as he cared to endure. The soft and silky appearance given to the hair by the use of Carboline, the natural names, sir," said she. "An' such a name as ha'r restorer and dressing, as now improved dhat! Wheriver did dhe man get it? An' and perfected, is the subject of general rewhy isn't it Mac-something, an done wid mark by all who have witnessed its effects upon the human head. Sold by all dealers "I do wish you would come home earlier, said a woman to her husband. "I am afraid to stay alone. I always imagine that there's somebody in the house, but when you come

ELECTRIC OIL NOT ECLECTRIC OIL. The two words have very different significa-tions, as will be seen by reference to Webster. The Eclectric Oil has no claim to Electric properties only by the picture on the wrapper, which looks like begging the question. The popularity of Briggs' Electric Oil is such as to induce unprincipled persons to appropriate all Briggs' Electric they do lay claim by right, as

A little boy who lives in our town, say the Rome Sentinel, went to Oswego the oth- found myself entirely cured, and had not er day to see his grandpa. On retiring for another attack of scrofula for nine years. the night he was told to say his prayers. He knelt, and, folding his hands reverently, and I have not had a third attack. I am sixtythus unburdened himself : " God bless mamma, and the chickens, and grandma, and the horse, and the cows, and the bull, and

Sciatica, Lumbago, HEADACHE, TOOTHACHE, QUINSY, SWELLINGS, SPRAINS, 6 Soreness, Cuts, Bruises, BURNS, SCALDS,

> and pains. FIFTY CENTS A BOTTLE. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. Directions in 11 languages. The Charles A. Vogeler Co. men.A. TOGELER & CO.) Vegetine is Sold by All Druggists.

And all other bodily aches

"Became Sound and Well."

R. V. Pierce, M. D.: Dear Sir-My wife sound and well by using your "Fav. rite Carney was a logician only as far as cun- Prescription." My niece was also cured by THOMAS J. METHVIN.

Hatcher's Station Ga. Evansville has a girl who e n fairly make a piano talk. The other evening she played the "Ice King," and everybody in the room got up and went to the stove to warm their liver pills") and no pain or griping. Cure

No Trouble to Swallow.

"Sweet are the uses of adversity," ex-But the States were to Carney terra claimed the receiver as he pocketed sixty

"Their Occupation Gone." R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y. was attacked with congestion of the lungs, s meness over the liver, severe pain in the joints, a burning fever, and general giving away of the whole system. Falling to find relief in remedies prescribed, I tried your His turn coming once more, the judge gave light he saw Ben's scope enlarging, even in the hands of the willing and unsuspecting "Golden Medical Discovery." It effected my entire cure. Your medicines have only to be used to be appreciated. If every family would give them a trial, nine tenths of the doctors would, like Othello, find their occupation gone. Yours truly.

> L. B. McMILLAN, M D., Breesport, N.Y. Keep it in your family. The best remedy for accidents and emergencies, for Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Soreness, Sore Throat, Croup, Rhoumatism, Chilblains, and Pain or Soreness of all kinds, is that marvellous healing remedy, Hagyard's Yellow Oil. 19 good intentions," and it's the only place of which we ever heard that is. Generally pav-An exchange says it makes a woman sick

An old sdage says: "Hell is paved with to keep a secret. He must have guessed at it, as it has never yet been put to a practical

A Suro Thing

In the treatment of Chronic disease with that great system renovator and restorative. Burdock Blood Bitters, there is no uncertainty as to its action, its curative powers are speedily manifest by its marked effect upon the Liver, the Bowels and the Kidneys. Every dose performing its work in a perceptible manner. 24.

A witness who had been called to give evidence as to the defendant's character, ality, and adds that he hears very favorable testified that he always moved in good soci-Speech sometimes became impossible to cty. "What do you mean by good society?" asked the court. "Society in which it is fashionable to speak evil," promptly an-remedy for Croup than Hagyard's Yellow Oil taken internally and applied according King-st, East, Toronto. Portraits in oil life size. to the special directions, this is the great household panacea for Rheumatism, Stiff healthy when the blood is diseased. Vegetine is composed of substances identical with healthy blood; and when taken into the system for the cure of disease, it is absorbed, and replaces the deficiency which caused the disease.

When a certain bachelor was married, the members of the Bachelor Club broke him al up by sending him as a wedding present a copy of "Paradise Lost."

A man should never tell his wife that he is called away on some, "pressing" business. He should always use the word "urgent;" it sounds better.

A Wiso Maxim "A stitch in time saves nine," nos caly in naking garments, but also in mending health. lungs might be avoided, that neglected, rapidly develope into irreparable Consum-

The average age of a hog is only fifteen years. This always consoles us when we see a man spreading himself out over four seats in a railway compartment. HOLD ON: HOLD FAST .- Patience is genius.

Count not the failures. Keep heart and try again. Failure after failure comes upon us, and t is then despondency comes and urges us to give up. Corns came soon after the early badding time of youth and hung on as firmly as the love for the almighty dollar. In vain experiments we nearly chipped and burnt our feet off. Fortunately as a very last experiment we commenced the use of Putnam's Painless Corn Ex- & CO.; Steam Printers, Toronto. Try it, friend. N. C. Polson & Co., proprietors

There is many a rich man who is no better | Toronto off than his impecunious brother. The latter has no food for his stomach, and the former no stomach for his food

Daughters, Wives, Mothers, look to your health! The many painful and weakening diseases from which you suffer, despairing of a cure, can be remedied by that unfailing regulator and purifying tonic, Burdock Blood Ask your druggist for proof. 20. Important.

When you visit or leave New York City, save Baggage Expressage and Carriage Hire, and stop at GRAND UNION HOTEL, opposite Grand Central Depot. 450 elegant rooms, fitted up at a cost of one million dollars, reduced to $1 and upwards per day. European plan. Elevator. Restaurant supplied with the best, Horse cars, stages and elevated railroads to all de- value ; $2,500 down ; balance on easy payments. pots. Families can live better for less money at the Grand Union Hotel than at any other first-class hotel in the city.

"Enquirer:" "What is the precise meaning of the word intermittent?' Did you never try to flirt with a woman in a rocking chair at a window? That's it.

Vegetine.

Superior to any Family Medicine. DOCTORS GAVE HER UP. VEGETINE CURED HER.

MONTREAL, P. Q. Oct. 22, 1879 MR. H. R. STEVENS-Dear Sir. About fifteen years ago I was troubled with Scrofulous Humor which settled on my lungs and brough the law will allow them to do. The proprie- on a severe cough. I consulted five or six of tors of the Electric Oil have no claim to the the best physicians in Boston, but they gave words Eclectric or Thomas; but to the words up treating me, said there was no hope of a cure, and they could do nothing more for me, A friend who had used Vegetine in his family recommended me to try it. I procured three bottles, and before finishing the third bottle After that period I had to get some more Vegetine, but it quickly restored me to health again, nine years old, and since becoming aware o the virtues of your medicine, have given it to my children and grandchildren, and have recommended it to my friends. The results have been invariably all that could be desired. Previous to my first trial of the Vegetine, I had a cancer removed and scrofulous sores broke out on me, but none have appeared since, and I believe it superior to any of the Family Medi-

> MARIA J KIMBALL. I can youch for the above statement in every particular, and consider Vegetine the best Family Medicine now in use. MOSES KIM-BALL, Husband of MARIA J. KIMBALL.

RHEUMATISM, FOR SKIN DISEASES TORONTO, July 25, 15, 2 H. R. STEVENS, Esq. :

Dear Sir-Having been troubled with a bad skin diease, breaking out into little sores over my face, etc., I was recommended to take VEGETINE. I am happy to inform you that it has completely cured me after taking three bottles. I can highly recommend it to any one who is troubled with skin disease.
Yours faithfully, CHAS. E. BUTT. We hereby certify that the above testimo nial is true, the man being in our employ at the time he was sick WESTMAN & BAKER, 119 Bay Street, Toronto.

Vegetine H. R. STEVENS, Toronto, Ont.

FOR THE LIVER AND URINARY ORGANS

THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER. There is only one way by which any disthe cause—wherever it may be. The great medical authorities of the day declare that nearly every disease is caused by deranged kidneys or liver. To restore these therefore is the only way by which health can be secured Here is where WARNER'S SAFE CURE has achieved its great reputation. It acts directly upon the kidneys and liver and by placing them in a healthy condition drives disease and pain from the system.

Forall Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles; for the distressing disorders of women; for Malaria, and physical troubles generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concections said to be just as good.

DIABETES CURE. For sale by all dealers. H. H. WARNER & CO., foronto, Ont., Rochester, N.Y., London, Eng.

The dew of compassion is a tear. - Byron. St. Catharines, May 4th, 1882. Dear Sir,-I have been for the past year uffering from "Sciatica." I was-recom ed by a neighbor to try your cure "Rheumatine." I did so, and am glad to say it completely cured me, and I can now thoroughly recommend it to any one suffering from the same complaint. Giving you the liberty to use this as you may think fit. I remain, yours truly, N. B. CLENDENING. Mr. Clendening is a farmer living in Louth A cross eve is really aristocratic, and owes its position to caste. W. T. Bray, Pharmacist, Wingham, Ont., writes that the sale of Burdock Blood Bitters has very largely increased in that locopinions expressed regarding it, and, if time permited, could send many names of benefited parties, 22.

PROFESSIONAL.

MISCELLANEOUS. S5 PER DAY can be made by agents, male or female. C. W. DENNIS, Toronto. XXXATCHES repaired. Trade work a specia VV ty. A. BALLABEY, 8 King St. E., Toronto. TOUBBER STAMPS .- ADDRESS R. H. COX

1 King St. East, Toronto. Agents wanted. Vegetine.—"The life of all flesh is the blood thereof." And no one can possibly be Other Society Jewels, 154 King E., Toronto. A UTOPHONES, $6.50. INCLUDING FOUR tunes. T. CLAXTON, dealer in Musical Instruments, Piano Music, Band Music, &c. Catalogues free. 197 Yonge St., Toronto. PRICE TICKETS, SHOW CARDS, WIN-DOW SHADES. Newest designs. Send for price list. F. WILLIAMS, 4 King E., Toronto. WATCHES. Send for free illustrated cata-logue to RYRIE, the Jeweler,

WIRE WINDOW GUARDS, WIRE CLOTP, and Wire Goods at the Toronto Wire Works, 116 King St. West, T. G. RICE. 100 Choice selections for the Autograph Alcent stamp, The CALL, Mattapan, Mass. If Hagyard's Pectorial Balsam were used in the earlier stages of Colds and Coughs, many a "stitch in the side" and many a case of torn C. POTTER, 31 King-st., East, Toronto. CARDS. Valentine and Easter; in $1,82.81 H. J. MATTHEWS & BROS., Toronto. MARMS IN MARYLAND-IMPROVED

CHAMBERS, Federalsburgh, Maryland, U. S. R. S. WOOD & CO., OAKVILLE-MANU FACTURERS of outside and inside Blinds, Sash, Doors, and Mouldings. Send for prices. Oakville, Ont. DOOFING MATERIALS, CARPET LAND Building Papers, wholesale and retail, at low price, at HODGE & WILLIAMS, 4 Adelaide St., East, Toronta. Patent evelet, smooth surface. AUD. new price list. J. G. WOODLAND lowest prices, and terms of payment. J. W. G. WHITNEY, Estate Agent, 25 Toronto street, TIMOSE WISHING TO DISPOSE OF OR purchase a business of any description in the city or elsewhere should call or send particulars to C. J. PALIN, 53 a nd 55 King-street

East. Business Agent and Valuer. Settler the north of sec 1. Tp. 12 R. 29 W. is offered for $3.00 per acre, 6 years time. Soil the very best, only 2 miles Elkhern Station. main line C. P. R. Apply to A. BOW ERMAN

Box 49, Winnipeg, or J. H. MACMULLEN 419 BROS., Whithy, Ont. FOR SALE-WATER POWER SAW MILL Shingle, Lath, and Cider Mills; also grain crusher, in good order; business well built up large stock of logs; dwelling house (new), and Oriental Cream, or Magical ten acres of land just south of the pine ridges : to enable us to accept an offer in the West, we offer the above for a short time for less than Apply on the premises, or by letter to Gormley P O. W. & I. LEARY, Proprietors.

BUSINESS CHANCES. TRUG BUSINESS FOR SALE IN CITY of 16.000 population, doing cash trade of $6.500 annually, stock about $1,500. MACKIN-TOSH & PETERS, Toronto.

MERCHANT TAILOR'S BUSINESS FOR sale in Toronto-first-class stock bought for cash about $1,200, all available for spring trade. MACKINTOSH & PETERS, Toronto. MILLINERY AND FANCY GOODS BUSIof 10,000 population; stock about $1,400; flist-class shaper MACKINTOSH & PETERS, DLUMBING AND GAS-FITTING BUSI NESS for sale in live western town lof 5,000 One bottle will last six months, using it every population, having its gas works (water works day. Also Poudre Subtile removes superflous now being built), stock and tools about $1,000; hair without injury to the skin rent low. MACKINTOSH & PETERS, Tor- MME, M. B. T. GOURAUD, A ILLINERY AND MANTLE BUSINESS western village of 1,000 population, with a good trade. MACKINTOSH & PETERS, Toronto any one selling the same.

Boys, women, men and girls. TROPHER BRIDGER

Use "TEABERRY" and you will find

Twill fragrant make the Breath of all,

Your Teeth become as pearls :

Near THESONBURG, UNT.,

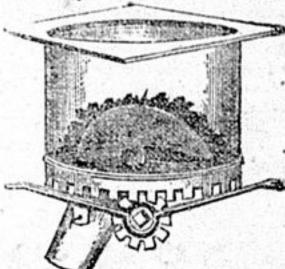

Dec. 14, 1881 I have been ailing for years with Biliousness and Dyspepsia, and was reduc-ed to a mere skeleton. Last fall I weighed only eighty-six pounds. I was induced to try Zoresa by Mr. Thomson (of the firm of C. Thomson & Co., druggists, of this place), and, many thanks to him, I am now an entirely new woman and weigh 124 pounds, through the use of this new compound.

ICENSED HOTEL FOR SALE-NEAR Lake Rosseau-frame, 20 rooms, 97 acres land, price $1,000; $1,000 cash, balance to suit purchaser at 6 per cent. ApplyHOTEL Ash-

MENERAL STORE AND STOCK FOR SALE T in lumbering district-business about $15,000 per annum, principally cash; can be largely increased; reason for selling, owner has other business. TRUTH Office, Toronto. ONTO. Students can enter from October until January. PROF. SMITH, S., V. Edin.,

Principal. Fees, fifty dollars. TORK JARMERS COLONY, N. W. 1.-Free Homesteads with preemptions add ed now open in this fertile tract. For list of present settlers, improvements now going on, and full information address Head Office, I Victoria St., Toronto. Intending settlers wanted as agents. JAS, ARMSTRONG, Managing

NEV With Fertilizer Attachment

AT Send for testimonials showing the profits WE ALSO MANUFACTURE THE Best Single Drill. Single Seeder, Drill and Sceder Combined Sulky Horse - Rake, and Spring - Tooth

Brantford, Ontario.

FOR SALE.

STALLIONS, with extra bone and style; also, an imp, mare and a few home bred fillies. All registered and prize animals. JEFFREY inguished Dr. L. A. Sayre, said to a lady of the haut ton (a patient) :- " As you ladies will use them, I recommend 'Gourand's Cream' as the least harmful of all the Skin preparations."

Sole Proprietor, 48 Bond St., N.Y. For sale by all Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers throughout the U.S., Canadas and Europe. Also found in N. Y. City, at R. H. country around, would sell out this branch of Macy's, Stern's, Ehrich's, Ridley's and other

.Our Great Sale is fast drawing to a close; our improvements will be completed about the 15th of March, when we will show a complete stock of New Goods in all the Departments, and we have no hesitation in saying that our stores when finished, will be second to none on this continent.

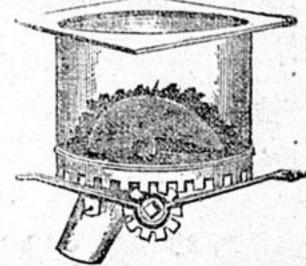

TORONTO.

AN ENGLISH VETERINARY SURGEON AND CHEMIST, now traveling says that most of the Herse and Cattle Powders sold here are worthless trush. He says that Sheridan's will make heas

MRS. CAROLINE FORBES, Wife of Mr. R. G. Forbes.

RUSSIAN MULBERRY - INTRODUCED from Russia : perfectly hardy throughout Ontario; bears when two years old, and so densely as to exclude the leaves; price, packed and delivered at railroad station-2 feet high, 60 cents; 3 to 4 feet, 75 cents; supply limited; orders booked in rotation as received; also grapevines, both old and new varieties, at very low rates. Send for price list. J. W. JOHN-STON, Campbellford Nuseries and Vineyard, resulting from the use of Artificial Manures. Ever introduced in the Canadian market.

BRANTFORD SINGLE DRILL

far Send for Descriptive Circular giving full J.O. WISNER, SON, & CO.,

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

of 30 years, and is so harmless we taste it to be sure the preparation is properl made. Ac his business; stock about $800; at 40 cents on | Fancy Goods Dealers. As Beware of base imdollar; largely available for coming season's itations. $1.000 Reward for arrest and proof of