A Brilliant Scene of Wealth and Beauty.

-New York's Millionaires Enjoying Themselves.

(Harper's Bazar). It is rarely the case that an entertainmen is so widely talked about and so long and so eagerly anticipated as was this-a ball which had even invited a rumor so disagreeable, meant to attack the house and to sack it, with its immeasurable wealth of jewelry, bilt's famous fancy ball.

The guests on arriving at the white marble doorway in Fifth Avenue were told to order their carriages at four o'clock. All around the neighborhood a black dense mass of figures waited to see the guests alight. large force of policemen kept back this crowd, which looked dangerous. Whether the great question of wealth versus poverty, which agitates all minds now, was uppermost in their minds, or whether it was mereturesque contrast-the cold gloomy night at every turn. without, the unrivalled light and luxury

As one entered the spacious hall, and was led by a powdered footman to the wi

A SENSS OF VASTNESS overcame the gazer. It was like Milan Cath edral, this wilderness of white marble and stained glass. The broad staircase, like that in a feudal chateau, was wide enough for a troop of cavalry to ride up, and with its gradual ascent, broken by frequent turns, it might be ascended by horses. Indeed, a charge of the light brigade of hobby-horses was made later down its splendid extent. The ladies were shown into a grand state bedroom, where a four-poster hung in tapestry stood at one end-just such a bed as one sees in palaces abroad, or in the pictures by Lacroix. Out of this apartment opened a fairy-like dressing-room, all mirror, painted over with apple blossoms, and with an alabaster bath tub fit for Undine to take her swim in. Beyond this room another magnificent apartment opened, where sat a little nun writing, a regular "bonne sœur de bon secours," very pretty, and her black dresses which constantly arrived acters of the opera bouffe, ready to go down when the time came. It was eleven o'clock before the company descended to the superb French drawing-room-a room a la Louis Quinze-where Mrs. Vanderbilt and Lady Mandeville sat to receive their guests. They had been standing long, and were worn out. Both were in Venetian or Italian costumes, Lady Mandeville wholly in black, Mrs. Vanderbilt in light colbeing one of the most becoming dresses a sel joked with Joan of Arc and with Moncially so. As the Lalla Rookhs, knights, princes, and courtiers, dukes, kings, queens, came enchanting. The next move was to and late revellers. the grand dining-room, with its wonderful beautiful windows, and its extraordinary quite unprecedented, and creditable to host height. It is a banqueting hall of the and hostess. Middle Ages, and is unusually magnificent. Its great extent, the wonderful carving, the mediaval fire place, the carved buffets, all made it a fitting spot for a fancy ball.

down. First the Hobby-horse Quadrille, of two hundred men, annually leave the floor. elan of this dance, in which

and elegant; the powdered wig-like the seal. The maximum catch of seal is about axe. the evening. After it came the Star Quad- two trips, and some three-by the end of rille, a dance not so striking as the last, but | April. very pretty; it was danced by young ladies, each adorned with a diamond star on the forehead, and with wands tipped with stars. The electric light intended to lend its radiance to this quadrille had to be abandoned as a too uncertain guest.

were Cardinals of the Holy Roman Empire, Garde, noblemen of every age and country, gold, the hood and short cape, was

ONE OF THE MOST DISTINCTIVE DRESSES. of modern times, into which he has brought | truth of these details. - St. James Gazette. the learning, thought, and culture of all the striking. Then came the eccentric costumes -Fire, Ice, Snow, and the Comet. Black the Senate rejected her petition. ers of gold radiating. Mrs. Cornelius Van- longer to dub them useless.

derbilt was very charming as the Electric MURDERED Light. Fire was illustrated by a curious gleaming red substance which flamed up the skirt and around the neck;

IT WAS AN IMPRESSIVE DRESS; and the lady wore those now rare old-fashioned deep orange topaxes which our graudmothers loved. Snow is, of course, always simulated by eider down and the frequent in erpolation of crystals or diamonds. Amongst these impersonal dresses one to resemble Music was most ingenious. A dress of white satin, trimmed with five rows of black velvet like the music staff, had here and there musical notation; the bodice, cut low and square, was trimmed with little brass musical instruments; a music scale was even so frightful, as that the Communists embroidered on the bodice; the cap of red satin was trimmed with triangles, bells, and balls. The Lady carried a Spanish mandobric-a-brac, silver and gold, and objets d'arts lin. Then came Autumn with her grapeson this eventful evening. It is seldom that a beautiful dress-Spring with her app'e such an entertainment goes off so serenely, blossoms, and a lovely dress called "Cherry without accident and without a single un-toward event, as did Mrs. W. K. Vander-and the "overhanging bough" were all realized in flowers and embroidery.

Then came the religious orders. Mr Hurlburt, of the World, had an especially correct and beautiful costume as a Spanish Knight of Calatrava, a sort of religious Knight Templar order, with long white cloak, with black satin hood, red cross on the arm, and a black yelvet suit of the seventeenth century, with collars and cuffs of old point de Venise. This was one of the most striking of all the dresses. Capuchin Friars ly curiosity, one cannot say. It was a pic- and splendid Cardinals elbowed each other

The stage, of course, afforded the ideas for the greatest number of fine dresses. Mr. three daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Turnure were splendid as Huguenots. Miss Townsend, as the Fairy Queen in Iolanthe, wore a very handsome dress, white embroidered in gold. Madame Nilsson came as

Marie Stuart. The opera bouffe, as we have said, sent they found that many representatives. The Comte de Brie, HER HANDS WERE CROSSED AND TIED TO-Charles Surface in the School for Scandal, Romeo, the Huguenot Count de Mole, Marguerite in Faust, and Harlequin all had Columbus, and Charleses I., II., and IX. all were in order. Henri Deux is the most picturesque of kings to copy. There were no classical dresses, no Greek, Roman, or Neo-Greek white draperies; the absence was conspicuous. There were some very fine knights afterwards. in armor, especially one, Mr. Hoyt, who married a daughter of Chief Justice Chase; his dress of chain-armor of the time of Edward the Black Prince was very much adrobes a contrast to the gay and glittering mired. Mr. Butler Johnstone, the owner of the Raphael at the Museum, personated, Here gathered Mary Stuart, Lady Washing- in a beautiful dress of the age of Louis XII. ton, Mother Goose, Mary Quite Contrary, dead gold satin embroidered in gold, gray Carolina Cornaro, a Gipsy, and all the char- hat, and white plume, the Marshall Tr bulzi of Milan. But

ALL THIS GLORY WAS BUT HUMAN. and needed supper. Ascending again the grand staircase to the third story, a banqueting hall was discovered in a large room called the Gymnasium. Here the walls were lined with roses, and the most fabulous floral display made this room as redolent of nature as the lower rooms had been of art. Here sat a lady in the dress of Madame ors, with a Milan bonnet covered with Thermidor, of that eccentric dress of the diamonds. The student of costume will find French Revolution (not quite the Incroyathis Milan bonnet in Shakespeare's play of bles, but as eccentric), looking delightfully the kitchen. A broken pane of glass in the back. One night last week, at about S All's Well that Ends Well, in Knight's Pictorial Shakespeare. It radiates from the tian of 1450 and to Don Carlos. Blue-Beard face like a halo, and is very becoming. Mr. and the Phœnix took a glass of champagne Vanderbilt, the host, wore a superb copy of together, and two of the most extravagant were endless. The supper was luxurious in the extreme, fairies, peacocks, pheasants, and opera and it was long after daylight before the bouffe "Monsieur le Diable" and "Madame superb French chateau of Mr. W. K. Vanle Diable" came in in groups, the scene be- derbilt had been cleared of its motley troop

It was the best-ordered, the most cool, stained-glass window of the "Field of the delicately lighted, and enjoyable ball ever Cloth of Gold," and other almost equally given in New York; and for magnificence,

The Newfoundland Seal Fisheries.

A letter from St. John's, Newfoundland,

That Same Old Tragedy Again. A peculiarly sad and shocking domestic tragedy is reported from the town of Batyn, in Hungary. The keeper of a crossing on the East Hungarian Railway, near that town, The ball now began to present a saturnalia | happened to win a few days ago some hunof color like a picture by Alvarez. There dreds of florins in a lottery. The poor fellow who had never seen such a large sum of Eastern Fakirs, and officers of the Cent money in his life, took the bank notes home and amused himself in turning them over, him at the door. and Commander Gorringe as an Arab Sheik forming plan upon plan for their disposal. in his best clothes. The women were re. All at once a train was signalled, and he splendent in diamonds. A Joan of Are rushed to his post, leaving the precious roll walked about in full armor; an Egyptian | behind him. As ill-luck would have it his Princess with a gold Sphinx on her head little daughter was playing in the room at maintained all the royal state of Queen Ha- the time. Struck by the peculiar appearshop, sister to Rameses I. Birds and hor. ance of the notes, having rarely if ever seen Salem. He had been living at Green Haven, nets, butterflies and fishes, mingled in the one before, and not knowing anything what- N. Y., but left there on Monday, and went far to have paid me that five cents, wouldn't kill time" will find out to their sorrow that crowd. Yellow, that deep color of beaten ever of their value, she proceeded to use gold, was seen in profusion. Miss Fish them as a plaything, and presently flung wore the beautiful pointed cap of Mary of them into the fire, where they were burned Burguudy, and the long regal cloth of gold. to asbes. Just then the father returned, Mrs. Paran Stevens in a red wig was magni- missed the notes and learned what had becent as Queen Elizabeth. Mrs Pierre Loril. come of them. In his fury he struck the lard wore a resplendent dress as a Phonix child a violent blow, which stretched her arising from its ashes. Mrs. Elliot F. Shep- lifeless on the floor. The mother, who was ard was very gorgeously arrayed as a Vene- giving a bath in an adjoining 100m to her stop there. He said he knew Mrs. Sundertian Lady in high pearl collar. All the Van- second child, an infant, rushed in on hearing lin very well, and had called at her house derbilt ladies were splendidly and correctly the disturbance, picked up the little girl on Saturday afternoon of the previous week. and tried to restore her to consciousness. at 1 o'clock, when she gave him some bread One of the most effective costumes was Her efforts were vain; the child was dead. that of Richard M. Hunt, the architect of She flew to the bath in which she had left stains were found on Riley's clothes. He this beautiful house, as Cimabue, from the the infant. Another shock awaited her; the was taken by Sheriff Crofut to the Putnam child was drowned in its bath. The child- county jail. painting by Giotto. It was a happy thought, child was drowned in its bath. The child-county jail. for the early Florentine dress of white and less mother, distracted and desperate, rushed "Frank Bowman and his wife and daughout of the house and hanged herself on the ter said that Riley came to their house in the branch of a tree. The wretched father, afternoon of Wednesday, the day after the present. How pleased must have been this overwhelmed with misfortune-his fortune murder. The Bowmans had not seen him man of genius to thus stand amid his gone, his wife and children gone-seized a for a week before that. Riley had an axe thoughts, new expressed in deathless marble, revolver and put an end to his existence, and to see a pageant pass far finer than any. The artistic completeness of this tragedy thing since the palmy days of Lorenzo de' gives it a certain air of unreality, but the Medici, in one of the most gorgeous houses Hungarian journals vouch for the exact

Libri, who stole the manuscripts which Another effective and well-carried-out Lord Ashburnham bought, was a distincostume was that of a Chinaman. A veritable Indian chief's dress, fresh from the held him in high esteem until he was found plains, was very effective. A "Daughter out. He was condemned in 1850 to ten of the Forest," with the skin of an animal years' imprisonment for his pilferings from wrapped ground her, with ferns and butter. | the national libraries; but he fled to Europe flies and jewelled lizards, was exceedingly before the trial. His wife, under the second empire tried to get him rehabilitated, but and cream-colored was the Comet, with A horsey young Earl has become a pro-streaks of gold thread artistically woven prietoreof a hansom cabs in London, and through, and an embroidered comet on the horses them admirably. If our golden you th skirt; the hair, wild and flewing, had stream- will give us cheap cabs, no one will dare any noon the next day Mrs. Rogers went over to prurient matter from this wound. Dr. a new way to arrange the hair. Millions the house to see her neighbor. She Chalmers averred that vaccination was a are expended for artificial appliances which found the curtains drawn and the front delicate operation, and that he should not on only make conspicuous the fact that emaciadoor locked. A back door was unfastened, his own responsibility have felt it right to tion, nervous debility, and female weakness and by this she entered the kitchen.

Found Dying With Her Hands Tied-

Arrest of the Murderer.

THERE WAS NO SIGN OF LIFE.

without entering the bedroom. to her neighbor's residence to see if she were proved in this case. No evidence was ad- covery" cleanse the blood and system thus yet at home. On hearing the visitor's foot- duced to show that death was caused by preventing fevers and other serious diseases, steps the cats again ran from the bedroom. Young Mrs. Rogers entered it. Mrs. Sunas King Lear, with his mind, and with his derlin was lying on the side of the bed, might have been caused by exposure when breathing heavily and bleeding. The young woman ran into the street, screaming, and the elder Rogers and his wife came over. They found Mr. Sunderlin undressed, and with stout twine. They cut the cords and unconscious. Dr. Wheeler, the village protect the offender. In the interests of the the proceeds. Sir Walter Raleigh, Don Carlos, Christopher | physician, was called and found that Mrs. | suffering poor I venture to hope that through Sunderlin's skull had been crushed in by a your impartial columns you will allow me to hours. The blow had apparently been struck legislation. I am, Sir, while the woman was asleep, with her head on her pillow, and her hands had been tied

The news created great excitement in the village, and a meeting was held that night to take steps for the detection of the murderer. Supervisor Henry Mabie and Revenue Officer James E. Tower were appointed a committee to procure detectives. a mere optical illusion, being the result, They came to New York and returned with perhaps, of a diseased condition of the eyes, a Pinkerton detective next morning. Mrs. happened in Cheyenne during the past in a bonnet." Who ever saw bonnet with-Sunderlin had died without regaining con- week. In one of the great battles fought sciousness. Robert l'inkerton said to a re- during the rebellion a certain person.

the dress of the Duke of Guise, the trank. Incroyables walked and talked with my hose, long silk tights, and puffed sleeves, Lady Washington; a dignified Queen's Coungentleman ever wore, and in this case espe- sieur le Diable, and so on; the contrasts were taken. On the table in the dining- shook him by the arm and said, "Wake up."

THE HAMMER BORE NO MARKS. due to Mrs. Sunderlin for interest, and a salutation was repeated with the same re- disease to use this remedy. present of ten pounds of beefsteak. After a sult. Not feeling particularly pleased over says: Newfoundland is now preparing for long search we found the money and the the situation, he went to the door, which Soon the groups began to wander to the her great undertaking-the seal fishery. steak in a kind of secret closet, almost con- was still locked as he left it, and passed grand staircase to see the quadrilles come About twenty steamers, with average crews | cealed by the stairs leading to the second down and out. Bob Ingalls, the policeman wonderfully funny. The horses and artifi- principal ports of the island to engage in | "The suspicion of the neighbors was fast- reporting that no one could be found. The cial outside legs of the riders, who were in this industry, which thus gives employment ened on two men, one a colored farm laborer next night the ex-soldier repaired to the the pink coats of the hunting field, the long to about six thousand men. In St. John's living in the neighborhood, whom Mrs. room, hoping to see again that which he by skirts of the lady riders, and the energy and at this season, thousands of men from the Sunderlin had occasionally employed, and this time was convinced was nothing more outports throng the streets and collect in the other a simple-minded Irishman who nor less than an optical illusion, as he is not crowds around the office doors of the sever- lived a half a mile away and worked on the a believer in ghosts and hobgoblins. He themselves in that way. The taking a few but with no avail whatever. Any person who were laughably attempted, gave the ball that spirit of fun which should ever open an to be "signed," others have been "signed," other that spirit of fun which should ever open an to be "signed," others have been "signed," negro, with an axe, had been found by John sight and immediately recognized it as the entertainment. After these energetic riders and others again are looking for "berths." W. Utter asleep in Augustus Birch's barn at picture of Gen. Lee as he appeared that let's not endure. (15) had galloped off, the Mother Goose Quad- The captains of the vessels have the ex- Patterson at 4 o'clock on the afternoon be- bloody day down on the Rappahannock. To rille entered. This was a very pretty sight, clusive rights of giving the "berths." The fore the murder. Subsequently we learned be satisfied, the ex-soldier undertook to lives. as all our old friends, Tom, Tom, the Piper's | captain choses his crew and brings them to | that a negro of the same description, with | take hold of the figure, but there was nothing Son, with the pig under his arm which he the office of the merchant, where each man an axe in his hand, had been seen by Mrs. to take hold of. In about a minute it disfeloniously hod captured, and the Grenadier, "signs." When the men have "signed," Helen Holmes to pass the house on the sppeared entirely. This may seem incrediand the Old Woman in a shoe, followed each they receive notes for their "crop," as their morning of the same day. A farmer in the ble to some, but there are hun ireds of cases without it. other through the mazes. Then came the outfit is technically termed. This outfit, neighberhood said he thought from the de- on record somewhat similar to the one above Opera Bouffe Quadrille, too mixed in color usually worth about $12 or $15, is to be paid scription this man might be James H. Riley, related, which is strictly true in every parto be quite as effective as that which follow- out of the proceeds of the voyage, the risk | who formerly lived in the cottage near Mrs. | ticular. ed it, the Dresden China Quadrille. All in being undertaken by the merchant. The Sunderlin's house. On Thursday last we purest white, in court dresses, with the men have each an individual interest in found that Riley had removed to Danbury. little mark of the two crossed swords hang- their success, as they are not engaged for Conn., where he was employed in Sam ing on their breasts, these imitators of Dres- the voyage with a fixed pay, but each man Rundle's stables. Supervisor Mabie and den china made an effective sweep of white receives an equal share of the seal taken, Mr. Towerwent to Danbury to watch Riley gate, and, not seeing the vatekeeper, went bago. It is neatly put up by W. A. McColcolor in the midst of medley. They were the merchant buying the seal at current while our men followed with Utter and into the house. Finding no one, he began lom, Druggist, Tilsonburg, and sold by Drugall very handsome and effective people, the prices. The merchant receives two-thirds Mrs. Holmes, who were certain they would a general search, and finally discovered the gists and Merchants at 25 cents per bottle fit for service; one Shorthorn bull, young. Address of white satin and brocade very pure of the scal and pays the captain 10 cents per recognize the pegro whom they saw with the gatekeeper out in the field at work. Aldresses of white satin and brocade very pure of the seal and pays the captain 10 cents per recognize the negro whom they saw with the gatekeeper out in the field at work. Al- or five for $1.00.

one worn by Frederick the Great-was most 40,000 for a steamer of 450 tons and 350 "It was arranged that Rundle should send away, the gentleman went into the field to becoming, and the dance was stately, ele- men. The fishery begins on the 10th of Riley with a note to the house at which Mrs. | the old man, and said: gant, and refined. This was the success of March, and is over-all steamers making Holmes and Utter were stopping. If she recognized Riley it was agreed she should lay the note, after reading it, on the mantel. Utter and the detective were in the next room, and the door was ajar. Mrs. Holmes opened the door for Riley.

HE STARTED BACK AT SEEING HER, and was turning away after delivering the note, when she insisted that he should wait for an answer. Mrs. Holmes opened the note and laid it upon the mantel, saying, 'There is no answer.' The negro turned again to leave, but the detective arrested

"He said at Sheriff Crofut's office that he table?" had not been in Patterson on Tuesday, and had had no axe. On Tuesday and Tuesday night, and for two or three days before, he said he had been in the house of his brother-in-law, Frank Bowman, in North to North Salem, where he remained until you?' Saturday, when he went to Danbury. The only time he had been away from Frank passed through West Patterson, but did not kansas Traveller. and pie to eat. Spots that resembled blood with him when he came, and left it at the house. This axe we got. There was fresh rust on it. A splinter had been knocked off the helve, close to the blade of the axe. At this point and in the eye there were reddish | Permanent Cure is effected in from one to stains. On Saturday a Coroner's jury returned a free on receipt of stamp. A. H. Dixon & verdict that Mrs. Sunderlin came to her Son, 305 King-St. West, Toronto, Canada. death at the hands of James H. Riley, and that her death was caused by a blow from the flat side of an axe, struck while she was ice and fell heavily, breaking his leg. asleep. Justice Perry of Patterson committed Riley to await the action of the Grand Jury. The citizens of Patterson have engaged a lawyer to assist in the prose-

The Fourth Hussars (British) has twenty cures. gentleman troopers who have joined in the regiments contain a great many.

The St. Pancras Vaccination Case. To the Editor.

SIR,-The evide ce disclosed at lengthy hearing of the charge against Dr. Dunlop, before a crowded court of painfully, Mrs. Hannah B. Sun terlin, a widow, 60 interested listeners, for having caused the years old, lived alone in a farm house a mile death of Ada Lilian Williams, vaccinated from the village of Patterson, in the northern | under an order from the Local Government part of Putnam county, on the line of the Board, six days after birth, at the St. Pan-New York and Harlem Railway. She was cres Workhouse, London, will not tend to supposed to be a rich woman. She lent allay public anxiety concerning the hazardmoney at interest to some of her neighbors, ous nature of vaccination. It was deposed by and was believed to keep considerable sums | the two medical witnesses (both of whom were in the house. Her nearest neighbor was avowedly warm advocates of the Jennerian John P. Rogers, a farmer, who lived across practice), that the post morten examination the road, a few rods to the north, and disclosed no signs of disease except a vaccine with whose family she was on intimate | ulcer on the arm, two inches by one and a quarter, of hour glass shape, with sharply-At sunset on Tuesday, Mrs. Rogers from cut edge, and much inflamed, which was across the street saw Mrs. Sunderlin s and | spreading at the time of death, and that the ing at the door of her house. Shortly after | meningitis was due to the absorption of the latest Parisian style of dress and bonnet; She went into the large front room adjoin- child weighed seven pounds, and was healthy as directed, art can be dispensed with. ing. Mrs. Sunderlin's two pet cats sprang at the time of vaccination; and the Magis- will overcome those diseases peculiar to fefrom a door at her right, which opened into trate dismissed the case on the ground that males. By druggists. Mrs. Sunderlin's bedroom, and flew past the evidence had failed to substantiate so her. Mrs. Rogers called to Mrs. Sunderlin, serious a charge as manslaughter, observing hotel keeping. but no one answered, and she went home that no doubt any medical man would be responsible if he had reason to believe that An hour or two later Mrs. Rogers sent the child was unhealthy at the time he vacher daughter-in-law, Mrs. Heman Rogers, cinated it; but this allegation was not gative Pellets" and "Golden Medical Dis anything other than the vaccination, though and curing all scrofulous and other humors Dr. Pepper admitted that the meningitis Sold by druggists. vaccination the child suffers trom an acute specific disease." It was perfectly clear, however, that the mischief had been done lying as if she had not moved since going to before the doctor's services were required. bed. When they put aside the bedelothing According to this decision medical men, fact accounts only in part for its enormous ation to unhealthy children, may with im- best blood medicine ever devised by man. (13) rations as a crew transmings. punity vaccinate healthy children six days old into their graves. The Vaccination Acts. lifted her into an easier position. She was therefore, not only compel the offence, but Yours faithfully. WILLIAM TEBB.

Devonshire Clnb, St. James'. London, March 24th, 1883.

A Ghost Story from Cheyenne. A curious case of what might be termed now a resident of Cheyenne - then "When I learned the manner in which Union scldier-could have shot and killed Mrs. Sunderlin's wrists had benn tied to- the rebel General, Robert E. Lee, Lee having gether it reminded me of Chastine Cox's dismounted and with a single orderly for a work, and suggested that the murderer companion waded through the grass almost might have been a negro. There were some up to the Union skirmish line, where he things which indicated that he wasacquaint- stood for a moment with his hat in his left ed with the premises. A man's footprints | hand, taking a survey of the Union batterled over the soft earth to a closet window, a ies, which had not yet opened fire. The few feet to one side of the kitchen door. No soldier alluded to pointed his gun at him, footprints led away. This closet opens into but did not fire. Lee turned and went window had recently been replaced by a pane o'clock, this former Union soldier, desiring fastened on from the outside with tacks. to take a quiet smoke, went to the office The man had evidently pulled the tack out and, after smoking for a time, fell asleep in to avoid making a noise, and, after removing his chair. Before this, however, he had climbed in. An impression of the tracks time he was awakened by some one who room was part of a mince pie, the greater | This, however, might be pure imagination part of which was missing. The neighbors but what followed was not, though, or said that Mrs. Sunderlin frequently made course, a mere optical illusion. Thinking mince pies to give away, but never ate them | that it was the gentleman who has his herself. On the floor, under the table, was office in the same room, the ex-soldier backa heavy hammer, which the neighbors had ed up to the stove for a moment without was sent at once to the room, but returned,

Too Much Honesty.

though the old man was quite a distance

"You are the toll gate keeper, I believe?" "Yes sir," the old man replied, turning and leaning on his hoe handle. "Well, I want to go through the gate."

"Ain't the gate open ?" "Well, why don't you go through? It my business to be there.'

"Because I wanted to pay you." "And you came all the way out here to pay me five cents?"

"Yes, sir," said the gentleman, proudly looking the old man in the eye. "Coul.in't you have left the money on the

"Yes, sir, but I wanted you to know that I paid you. "You are an honest man." "Yes, sir," replied the gentleman, while pleased expression spread over his face. "You would have walked three times as "Yes, sir, I would."

"Hers. John," the old man called to a Bowman's house was on the day of the boy that lay in the shade, "call the dog and Cures scrofula, erysipelas, salt rheum, piles murder, when he visited Charles Bowman, go along and watch this feller till he gets and all humors of the blood. Cures dyspepa brother of Frank, who lived midway be- away. Bet a hundred dollars he steals | sia, liver complaint biliousness, constipation, tween North Salem and Brewster's. He something 'fore he leaves the place."-Ar dropsy, kidney complaints, headache, ner-

> A stand fell down with a crash, A number of men it did mash, But the entire ten Were soon well again-St. Jacobs Oil cured every gash. A baker who lives in Duluth, Went crazy one night with a tooth, He rubbed the gum boil With St. Jacobs Oil, It cured him, and this is the truth.

Sun-showers must always be counted among raining beauties. CATARRH-A New Treatment whereby a three applications. Particulars and treatise

Recently Mr. W. J. White, police magistrate, of St. Thomas, slipped on a piece of VEGETINE.-The great success of the VEGETINE as a cleanser and purifier of the blood is shown beyond a doubt by the great numbers who have taken it, and received immediate relief, with such remarkable

Pride to the poor man is like a "stick" to hope of working up a commission. Other a lemonade .- [Hiram Green.] That's sour opinion. Squeeze, old man!

To Consumptives. "Golden Medical Discovery" is a concen rtated, potent alterative, or blood-cleansing remedy, that wins golden opinions from al who use it for any humor, from the common pimple, blotch, or eruption to the formidable scrofulous swelling, or ulcer. Internal tever, soreness and ulceration, yield to its benign influences. Consumption, which is but a scrofulous affection of the lungs, may, in its early stages, be cured by a free use of this God-given remedy. See article on consumption and its treatment in Part III of the World's Dispensary DimeSeries of pamphlets, costs two stamps,, post-paid. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

The jar of a railway train is not hermeti cally scaled.

A Lady Wants To Know vaccinate so young a child. Mr. Besley, on exist. Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" the part of Dr. Dunlop, contended that the is sold under postitive guarantee. If used

Inn-competency-Fortunes derived from

What's Saved is Gained. Workingmen will economize by employing Dr. Pierce's Medicines. His "Pleasant Pur

A poet says: "Can not a man be wis without a beard?" The old Hairy; he must beard-arn fool if he couldn't.

Thousands upon Thousands Of dollars have been spent in advertising the celebrated Burdock Blood Bitters, but this while responsible for injury done by vaccin- sale. Its merit has made it what it is—the "Storied earn and animated bust"-Telling a lie for a dollar and getting drunk on

HAVE YOU TRIED IT?-If so, you can testify to its marvellous powers of healing, and reblow. He said that she could live but a few bours. The blow had a protest against the continuance of such cruel legislation. I am Sir dysentry, cramps, colic, sickness of the stom-

> The cork is the article that often gets in a tight place. PETROLIA, Pa., Jan. 5. 1879. MESSRS. KENNEDY & Co. :- My hair is growing out so fast that I can almost see it plaints. I am, yours truly, PERCY PERDON, growing myself, through the use of your Agent Great Western Railway." J. N. SUTHER-

D. NIXON. We frequently hear the expression "bee out a B in it?

Important. Baggage Expressage and Carr 'e Hire, and Central Dep ot. 450 elegant ou itted up at it. Burdock Blood Bit ers is the grand a cost of one million dollars, :educed to $1 and | specific for all diseases of the Blood, Liver upwards per day. European plan. Elevator. Restaurant supplied with the best. Horse cars, stages and elevated railroads to all depots. Families can live better for less money at the algebra class said when the teacher wrote at the Grand Union Hotel than at any other a hard equation on the board. first-class hotel in the city.

A bald-headed eagle is no more the harbinger of spring than a bald headed man is of a missing heir.

Headache.

Headache is one of those distressing complaints, that depends upon nervous irritation, H. R. STEVENS, Esq.: bad circulation, or a disordered state of the stomach, liver, bowels, etc. The editor

Two years ago I suffered with Rheumatism. I was helpless and so bad that I was not out concluded was the instrument with which looking up at all. When he did so, close of my chair for seven days and nights only to his side stood the figure of a large, when helped. I could not lie in bed for powerful man, with gray hair and beard, pain. I took eight 25-cent bottles of Rheu-The day before the murder Peter Baldwin, a holding his hat in his hand. Somewhat as- matic Repellant, and was cured, so I had no nephew of the murdered woman, had sent | tonished, the ex-soldier said: "Hello! how | return of it. I worked hard on farm ever his daughter to the house with $41 in bills, do you do?" There was no response. The since, and advise all troubled with the horrid

A certain shoemaker of Lynn having been H. R. STEVENS, Esq., Boston, Mass.: divorced four times has just married his fifth wife, and people are now advising him to stick to his last.

"Grunt it Gut." senseless. You can't "grunt out" dyspepsia | comfort, which I was deprived of for over three nor liver complaint, nor nervousness if they | years. The best medical men of Toronto have once get a good hold. They don't remove every kind of medicine I have ever heard of

A "wild cat" mine has more than nine

A RUN FOR LIFE.—Sixteen miles were covered in two hours and ten minutes by a lad sent for a bottle of Briggs' Electric Oil. Good time, but poor policy to be so far from a drug store without it.

Which I consider is worth its weight in gold. Hoping that those who may give VEGETINE a trial may receive the same benefit that I have, I remain, Yours Respectfully, Funny, isn t it, that you always see the night-fall before any stars begin to been in use for the last 13 years, and proved the most reliable specialty ever discover-A gentleman stopped his horse at a toll ed for curing Rheumatism, Sciatica or Lum-

Lady Blessington says a woman should STOCK BROKER. GEORGE W. good, sound, useful, stem-winding watch not paint sentiment till she has ceased to Member Montreal Stock Exchange, 13 Hospital for $5. Ladies' Solid Gold Watches from inspire it. That is, until she has become Street, Montreal. an "old master," so to speak.

Every Person to be a Real Success. In this life must have a specialty; that is, must concentrate the abilities of body and mind on some one pursuit. Burdock Blood Bitters has its specialty as a complete and radical cure of dyspepsia, liver and kidney complaints, and all impurities of the blood.

How frequently the question arises in the heart, and how unwilling are we to discuss the ment, and the question also suggests itself, "is there no remedy?" To this question there is answer, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.
"the great corn cure," will give prompt and painless relief. No danger of failure. Putnam's Corn Extractor. N. C. POLSON & Co., Kingston, proprietors.

These fellows who write poetry "just to time will not be murdered by measure without retaliating.

Burdock Blood Bittors vousness, fema'e weakness and general debility, when used in time. (16)

The motto for the stamping clerk at the post office-Wherever you see a head, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Sprains, Bruises.

Burns, Scalds, Frost Biles, AND ALL OTHER BODILY PAISS . OFF Contra bottle. Direction & CO.) Baltimere, NA., C. S. A.

FOR THE KIDNEYS, LIVER AND URINARY ORGANS

THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER. There is only one way by which muy disthe cause-wherever it may be. The great medical authorities of the day declare that nearly every disease is caused by deranged kidneys or liver. To restore these therefore is the only way by which health can be se-eured. Here is where WARNER'S SAFE OURE has achieved its great reputation, It acts directly upon the kidneys and liver and by placing them in a healthy condition drives disease and pain from the system. For all Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles; for the distressing disorders of women; for Malaria, and physical troubles generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concections For Diabetes ask for WARNER'S SATE DIABETES CURE.

For sale by all dealers. H. H. WARNER & CO., Toronto, Ont., Rochester, N.Y., London, Eng.

The jovial yachtsman speaks of the grog

From Mr. Percy Perdon, the oldest Mail Clerk pension Bridge and Detroit: "About 18 months ago in conversation with you, I mentioned that my son Arthur was a great sufferer from rheu-matism, being so bad that for months he had ever, I am happy to say, effected a permanent cure, as my son has never suffered from rheumatism since, although the past winter has been a most trying one. I may add that the medicine had the effect of improving his health in every way. Make what use you like of this testimo-I can thoroughly recommend your Rheumatine to all suffering from rheumatic com LAND, Esq., Niagara Falls, Ont English sparrows are said to be good on toast. They are pretty good on bread-

Mr. J. R. Seymour, Druggist, St. Cath arines, writes that he finds an ever-increasing When you visit or leave New York City, save | sale for Burdock Blood Bitters, and adds that he can, without hesitancy, recommend, 147 King Street East, Toronto

"You are setting us a bad example, ' as a hard equation on the board.

Vegetine CURED ME.

Dear Sir-I have suffered for the last three or four years with Liver Complaint and Kidney and proprietor of the Canada Presbyterian was cured after two years of suffering with headache, and now testifies to the virtue of Burdock Blood Bitters. (17)

Poverty of invention—Being unable to take out a patent.

Mr. Tilton of South Norwich writes:—

Mr. T done me so much good I have recommended it to several, and they have all been greatly benefited by its use, Respectfully, Respectfully, C. J. SMITH, 21 S. Francis St.

Place of business, 72 West Avenue, Mr. Smith is a well know dealer in stoves and inware, for many years in business in Rochesits Weight in Gold.

Sir-Having been persuaded by a friend o mine to try VEGETINE for Kidney Discase, with which I have been troubled for four years I consented and have given it a fair trial and am happy to say I am relieved to such an extent The above is an old saw as savage as it is | that I can attend to my work with ease and Kidney Disease. I am able to work at my two children and myself, through Vegetine,

CHAS. COOKE, 106 John St I gave Mr. Cooke the medicine, and know this statement to be true.

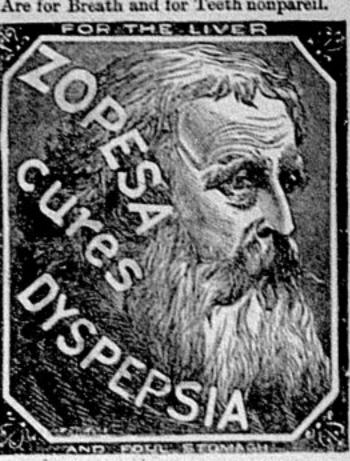

JAS. D. MERIDITH, 35 Adelaide St., W Rheumatic Repellant, an internal remedy has Vegetine is Sold by All Bruggists. LACROSSE STICKS-BUYERS OF FIRST quality only-order at once of the maker. ENTIRE HORSES FOR SALE-YOUNG British Ensign; one Norman Percheron.

> HANNON PERFECTION LETTER FILE for $1. and Transfer Binding Cases; also the Standard File and Pen Puller. The most per-DEVLIN, Manufacturer, 122 Yonge-st, Toronto. | Watch and Jewelry Manufacturers, fect letter file invented. Agents wanted. J. B. DAIRY SUPPLIES-ENGLISH SALT, AN-

PARK & SONS, 161 King St., West, and 41 to 47 St. Lawrence Market, Toronto. A queue-cumbrous thing—A Chinaman's FARM FOR SALE - BEING LOT 106 Landing 212 acres, Northern R. R. Station situated on corner of this Lot, the land is high rolling clay loam Brick house frame Bank Barn. J. W. G WHITNEY, Estate Agent-

25 Toronto-st. Toronto.

Draw a fresh fragrant Breath and be merr Fear no dental display as you smile; For the virtues of famous "TEABERRY" Are for Breath and for Teeth nonpareil. FOR THE LIVER

Will you exchange a chronic case of Dyspepsia, or agree to break up a Bilious Temperament-to give your torpid Liver activity, and thus strengthen your Digestion, regain energy, comfort, health and spirits, all for 75c? A single bottle of Zopesa will do this. A few doses surprise those who try Zopesa. For Biliousness and Dyspepsia in their many forms it is a Panacca, and is warranted to cure them. It acts speedily and pleassantly. Try a 10 cent sample, APPARATUS Fire Extinguishers, Second-Hand Steamers and Hand Engines for sale. Charges for Eureka, Fire-King and Babcock Extinguish ers. Celebrated Double Jacket and Eclipse for Hose. Samples on application. Send for circular. Fire Extinguisher Manufacturing Co. 35 & 37 QUEEN ST., EAST, TORONTO.

The superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism were long ago discarded by THE SUN. It reports in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way all the news of the world, and it says exactly what it thinks about men and events. Subscription : DAILY (4 pages), by mail, 55c. a month, or $6.50 a year; SUNDAY (8pages), $1.20 per year; WEEKLY (8 pages), $1 per year. I. W. ENGLAND, Publisher, New York City.

"RELIABLE" descriptive and priced annual catalogue or a

"Cultivator's Guide" for 1883, sent free on plication. Address, J. A. SHIVERERS. RELIABLE SEED HOUSE.

E. & C. GURNEY & CO. TORONTO.

DON'TFORGET When visiting Toronto, to pay a visit to the one of the great attractions of the city. The increased patronage, that has been extended to this house for the past few years, has, of necessity, caused an enlargement of the already spacious building, to nearly two-thirds more than its former size. The immense new stock of Gold and Silver Watches. French and American Clocks of every description, Diamonds loose and mounted, Fine Gold and Silver Jewelry, Silverware, Musical Boxes. Cutlery, Spectacles, Opera Glasses, &c. Selbug at marvellously low prices is worth inspection to any intending purchaser. A gent's $10. One Day Clocks, reliable timekeepers, KENT EROS.

WHOLESALE & RETAIL, line of Provisions and Canned Goods. JAMES 168 YONGE ST., TORONTO AN SIGN OF THE INDIAN CLOCK "OR

N.B.-Send for Price List. WATCHMAKERS WANTED First-class; Highest wages; constant employment. KENT BROS.

168 Yonge Street, Toronto.

TEMPERANCE COLONY.

The Temperance Colonization Society, Limited. Incorporated 14th March, 1882.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: Geo. MacLean Rose, President; J. Alph. Livingstone, Manager of Sales and Contracts; John N. Lake, Arthur Farley, Rev. Dr. John Potts. (Montreal,) Daniel Rose, J. B. King, W. Pemberton Page, Manager, David Millar, Henry O'Hara, G. W. Grant, D. S. Keith, J. W. Cheeseworth, Charles Turver, G. A. Schram.

CAPITAL, - $2,000,000, IN SHARES OF $100 EACH.

Farms for Sale in the Beautiful Saskatchewan Valley, N.W.T. For sale, on easy terms of payment, splendid Farms, at prices ranging from $2.50 to $10 per cre-10 per cent. in cash and the balance in nine annual instalments, with interest at 61 per cent, on unpaid balances. Choice homes can be secured at small cost and on easy terms of

A LARGE PARTY with their freight, household goods, implements, etc., left for the Colony on Thursday, April 5th. Others will follow soon. Intending settlers in the North-West can secure in the Temperance Colony good homes, where they will soon have all the advantages o

A GRAND EXCURSION Is being arranged for, to leave early in May for the Colony. Several of the Directors of the Company will accompany the Excursion. (Time and further particulars given in a future issue.)

SASKATOON, The proposed Metropolis of the Colony and destined Principal City in the Saskatchewan Valley.

THE TEMPERANCE COLONIZATION SOCIETY, LIMITED Now offer lots in the above named city at the following rates and terms of payment: -$60 its. lot; corner lots, $80 each; twenty per cent, in cash, balance in two equal annual installed its, with 61 per cent, interest. These lots will be sold by subscription (choice according to subscription). Make your applications early and secure an early choice.

The city site is beautifully located on the South Saskatchewan river and during he compound the companies of the Colony. The large number of guaranteed settlers on the Companied rapid growth and conting season assure the city's commercial importance, and sequent advance in value of property.

Besides the many guaranteed settlers as far of them taken up, ensuring an immediate latige settlement in the city itself. For the placing of a considerable number of hoses in the The company is now new spring. These will be sold to actual settlers at cost vice. city as early as seed. Filement attached to the lots offered for sale.

No settler particulars address the head office. Maps on application.

4 AND 116 KING ST., WEST, TORONTO. W. PEMBERTON PAGE, GEO MACLEAN ROSE,