

WITTICISMS

confidence—failure of a savings bank. A humane equestrian will never stir-rup his horse. One swallow may make a summer, but a swallow-tail coat does not necessarily make a gentleman.

FENELON FALLS, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1883. NO 17.

A Serenade. Lady mine, 'Tis thy lover who calls on thy name, In the moonlight, when the stars are dim...

Rich uncle to his physician: "So you think there is hope for me?" "Not only that, but I can assure you that you are saved."

Woodstock took her decision, it must always remain a dead humiliation to her. For, if he acquitted her of mercenary motives...

young lady declined all offers of dry clothing. "I must get home at once," she said pitifully.

KITTY'S "FATE."

CHAPTER VI. When Miss Marjoribanks and Mr. Woodstock met the next morning, the young man showed no recollection of what had happened...

Penetrally at twelve the next day, old Mr. Smylie, the lawyer, was in the library with his papers. As Kitty came in, holding her mother's hand and hanging her head...

Perhaps no one knew so well as handsome Angus how little substantial progress he was making in the good graces of the heiress.

Angus had a few words with his cousin before he left. "Kitty," he said in his low legato voice, "I am going away without finishing the point..."

FACTS ABOUT WOMEN. Vermont has two lady letter-carriers. A Pinta princess has just married her twentieth husband.

With the money given her by relatives and friends, which she has saved since childhood, a young woman in Texas bought two milch cows, paying $31 for them.

FASHION NOTES.

Light qualities of flannel are desirable for mountain expeditions. Satinettes with a glossy finish are of great importance this season.

Black velvet neckties are worn high about the throat and fastened by diamond studs.

Fans are to be worn suspended from the waist and in suite with the costume.

In the miserable times which were known as the "Radical years" in Scotland when Castlereach ruled like a tyrant...

A Clergyman's Bad Memory. The Rev. Arthur Maxwell, of England, says that his own father was one of the most impassioned and powerful extempore orators...

It is a long time to be banished from your presence, Kitty. Pity me for doing what my duty, rather than follow my heart's desire.

How lovely she looked, the young man thought, and how sweet her pale and agitated face appeared in the moonlight.

Stephen Woodstock to his Partner. Well, it is all over, old fellow, and Miss Marjoribanks is, as she has a right to be, her mother's heiress.

CHAPTER VII, AND LAST. So poor little Kitty had been true to herself and to the promptings of her heart, and this was the result.

He was making in the good graces of the heiress. It seemed impossible to bring Kitty to the point, but at any rate she would not consent to marry him.

It was not so easy, returned Kitty quietly. She thought, with a kind of wonder, that she could not even feel angry with this man whom she had once imagined that she would marry.
