Selling Eggs by Weight. There seems to be no good reason why the general practice of selling eggs by the dozen should not be superseded by the more rational one of selling them by weight. There is from twenty to thirty per cent difference in weight of eggs, yet the custom is almost universal in the eastern markets of selling them by the dozen at a uniform price. Even ducks' eggs, which are much larger and regarded by some as richer, bring no more than the rocks whose surfaces are now almost rived from the surveys of the engineers In California, eggs, fruits, and many other articles that are here sold by the times women were often employed in the manudozen, the bunch, or by measure, are sold by weight. The practice, says the American Agriculturist, is a good one, and works beneficially for all parties, especially for the producer. It operates as a premium upon the cultivation of the most productive varieties of fruits, vegethe largest weight in eggs has a fair reward for his skill and industry. It will do you good, apart from the coportunity you have of obtaining a valuable reward in addition to TRUTH which alone is good value for the one dollar. It consists of 28 pages of choice and pure reading matter for the home circle—something to inter st every the home circle—something to inter st every member of the family. The publisher could not afford to give these valuable rewards usless he was certain of your patronage in years to come, and you are almost certain to become life subscribers to TRUTH if you take it for slx months, it is such a splendid, weekly (not monthly) magazine. Special Club Offer to Yearly Subscribers. If twenty-nve pe sons join and send $50. each one or the twenty-five whose answers are correct will get their choice of a solid-rolled gold brocch, new and elegant design, worth at etail two dollars; a Chambers' htymological Dictionary, worth about same amount; a World's Universal Cyclopædia, or & volume elegantly bound of Shakespeare's Complete Works. of course, each of the club will have the same opportunity of gaining one of the rewards in the regular list (in addition to the certainity of one of the prizes aforesaid), as though they had sent in singly. This is timply an extra inducement to clubs, The rewards in tast competition were very widely scattered over Ontario and Quebec. In fact, every province was represented in the last, not excepting British Columbia. A great many also went to the States. No information will be given any one beyond what has above been stated. So den't waste time by waiting, but send in your answers and money now. If you happen to be too late for the first, you may be fortunate too late for the first, you may be fortunate too. The first is a send of the f enough to obtain a middle reward, and that is for Ramsay's, and see that you get them. Apply to where the biggest ones are. TRUTH directs your local dealers. special attention to the fact that clergymen are not permitted to compete, neither are persons who in previous competitions won prizes ex-ceeding one hundred dollars in value, and as no Torontonians are allowed to compete, the field is now open for a fair and square race for these rewards to any one, on the habitable giobe, cutside Toronto. No money will be received by telegraph, or in any way but through the postoffice or by express. One dollar only required. Try your skill. You are sure of good value for your money anyway.
