CHAPTER XXI.

For some days after the interview with the detective Sidney Daunt lived in a suggested. pitiable state of excitement and restless uncertainty and suspense, which was which she struggled hard to conceal un- with a little bitter laugh. der an appearance of gaiety, which more than once was on the verge of becoming a slight smile. "But it is a natural ashysterical.

She was wretchedly unstrung and ex- lar trouble?" cited, far fuller of fear than hope rewhom she could go for advice or assist. persecuted!' Christine Greville of Frank's nocturnal visits, and her endeavors in his behalf; Stephen Daunt had been thrown from his butter that she had been sorely inclined to innocent," Sidney concluded bitterly. unfortunate young man which had escap subject, "is that momentous question of wonder at the meaning of her words. her in the moonlit summer-house, and it costume decided yet?" seemed to Sidney that her heart would proved.

He had not urged this upon her in the | "With much pleasure." second interview as he had done in the cal sentences that he had spoken which observation. she did not clearly understand, but the detective; night and morning how- next moment she had risen, grasping the ever, as the post-hours drew near, her table for support and trembling in as he had been for Sidney-ay, and for court. heart beat wildly, and she turned sick every limb—the note was not there! her husband—a few minutes before, he and faint with anxiety and suspense and For the space of a minute Sidney stood was doubly sorry now; and although it dread. Sometimes she feared that her spell-bound, unable to move in her agony senses would fail, that her brain would in terror; then, recovering herself by a the truth, he could not help filling in for diminishes in a ratio more rapid than the infant Rhesus monkey, is collared by a around her. Sometimes she thought that ing in deep thought by the table. she could bear it no longer, that it would . "I have lost something," she said, too kill her, that she must give way under it unnerved to conceal her agitation—" a not resist attempting to prove the inno- air at these heights is subject to rapid force him into his sleeping cage, Jenny Bess mor Steel sola. Chair Bed & Springs and let herself drift to that world where letter. I must have dropped it. Not a she might find peace. But at such times | letter-a note.' as these the thought of Frank's loneliness and helplessness animated her courage, and she struggled against her des- the curious look he gave her. pair and took up her weapons to fight and gay chatter, with which she managed note. successfully enough to deceive Dolly, and partly to deceive Stephen, but not in any of paper that he held. ney was beginning to dread and shrink guid, calm manner. "Thank you, thank as he feared, shipwrecked his life by mar- is much exposed to the action of the south "Great numbers of these baboons," says from, as if they had the power of reading you. her very soul.

But even if this arsenal of hers could not conceal the change in her appearance which could not fail to ensue from such intense, ceaseless, if suppressed, excite-middle of the room, her hands holding and see him "made the happiest of men," ment-the violet shadows so deep and tightly the slip of paper that she had ta- and the look of earnest passionate love in dark under the sweet eyes which had such ken from him. a feverish lustre, such a restless light, the hollows in the pale cheeks, the pathetic read what is written there,"he said grave elapsed, and they were estranged and droop of the sweet mouth which was so ly. "I did so unintentionally in lifting cold—and they had all their lives to against the indiscriminate employment of and the Yucatan peccaries will come to infinitely touching and sorrowful. And the paper from the floor, where I suppose spend together ! Stephen Daunt, noticing all this, felt sad you dropped it." and heavy-hearted for the woman for whom he would have laid down his life, but to her whole form seemed to shrink and colwhom he was unable to give happiness.

on his head was completely healed, al- as if she were about to speak; but no white brow and an occasional headache each other in an awful silence which he was its consequence, and his arm was pro- would not and she could not break. gressing in the most satisfactory manner. Lloyd Milner's visit was drawing to a close; and while his host was most unwilling to agree to his departure and Dolly's pretty blue eyes grew wistful and sorrowful at the thought of it, Sidney felt a most inhospitable relief, for which she chided and, if Lloyd Milner had not seen them herself in vain. If he were gone, and move, and had not known there was no Dolly were to return to Lambswold, she one else in the room, he would not have mills, to which he gave daily more of his strained sound as the words fall upon the in the neighborhood. time and attention, have time to collect stillness. her thoughts and leisure for the relief of "Yes, I have read it," he answered, in tears she dared not indulge in now, how- a low tone, feeling pained and grieved at ever much her eyes might ache and her the humiliation her tone and manner extemples throb. And, oh, how glad she pressed, as she stood trembling in every would be to escape the scrutiny of those limb. Every shade of color had faded keen gray eyes which haunted her even from her face, even her lips were white ; n her sleep and made her wake up some- and, save for the passionate burning eyes times in an agony of terror, her brow it might have been the face of a dead damp with perspiration, her hands burn- woman, so colourless and immobile was their gaze one morning as she addressed but her voice failed her, the words died spoke, the intense nervousness under terrified dilated eyes. which she had been laboring would be no-objection to my inviting Miss Greville to stay with us for a few days?"

"Objection, Sidney?" he returned. "No, indeed! Why should I have?"

Sidney unsteadily.

The color rose slightly in her face. She breakfast." believed in Stephen's justice and kindness in all things but in this one-his beief in Frank Greville's guilt.

"She is very ill," Sidney answered im- note is the unfortunate young man her "Hush!" he said gently. "You speak petuously-"dying, I fear; but the change brother." might do her good.

blue cashmere and velvet.

rister said, with some feeling in his tone. 'Has this young lady seen much trouble erable in its loveliness.

"Yes, very terrible trouble," Sidney answered briefly.

"I will tell you," Sidney answered, algarding the result of Hopgood's inquiries most with passion. "She had one brother and full of a vague terror as to her own -one whom she loved as dearly as, ay, share in instituting them. The poor girl ten times more dearly than many women was so utterly alone in her sorrow that it love their lovers-and he was unjustly they cannot bear alone?" was no wonder her anguish was doubly accused of murder, and sent forth into increased thereby. There was no one to the world a miserable outcast, hunted and but she repudiated the notion as impru- suddenly, and speaking with unusual bit- seen that he does not-he would not help dent, for the poor girl was in wretched terness, as he thought how the memory me in this." health, drooping daily like an unwatered of this man stood between him and his flower in the anguish and uncertainty re- wife and held them asunder so cruelly. Lloyd Milner said earnestly. specting her brother's fate, and "Even before the Coroner's jury had givthat she would by en their verdict he had disappeared; and her agitation and distress betray since then he has successfully eluded purthat something had been heard and suit. I think there was no one in Ash-horse and his wife had driven to meet "They could spare no sympathy for a only. Frank Greville at Lymouth, the latter man unjustly accused and sent out into had asked Sidney so piteously if there the world, like Cain, with the brand of a Lloyd, watching her, saw how she was the least hope of his seeing his sis- murderer; but, who, unlike Cain, was trembled, and how, but for the support of risk the danger. That interview with her "I think I remember the case," Lloyd have fallen, At any other time he would old friend and former flance had been far Milner said hurriedly, recalling the Ashmore painful than the first one. Gray as ford murder, and regretting his questions. last words had startled him even beyond the day was, she was enabled to seeby "It was a very painful one. Well, Miss his own powers of self control, and he never cease aching with a dull coarcless on the first?" Dolly said nervously. "Well "you don't know all. Frank loved her, pain which it was impossible to forget I am not sure. I am to have some more and Stephen; but Mr. Rutledge was even for a moment; and she had vowed engravings by this evening's post; and wealthy, and she married him, and they to herself then that she would leave no perhaps, if you have nothing better to do were miserable. She," she went on, with over those I have ' Stephen went away that morning-for her. first. One or two disjointed sentences the first time since his marriage-without "As you say, I do not know all," he had escaped his lips : but he had uttered his customary farewell to his wife; and answered gravely. "I remember reading entreaties that she should endeavor to Sidney went up to her rooms too much the case at the time; but it slipped my have the murder sifted, although he had absorbed in her own thoughts to note the memory. Stephen was not even a witness seemed even more downcast and dispirited omission. Dolly followed her up stairs I think," he went on meditatively. "If the light, shade their faces with hats and despairing. Mingled with the despon- making some trifling remarks about the he had had anything to say, probably I and cover them with veils, as if the comdency was a strange resignation foreign ball; and while the girl went to her room should remember it all the better on that Having locked the door, she sat down lady here?' which seemed to say that if his inno- before her pretty writing-table and put cence were proved it could onlybeat some her hand into the pocket of her cashmere desperately. "He was engaged to me." terrible cost to her. "To you!" he said, in intense surprise, She had heard nothing further from that morning's post had brought her. The -"To me."

give way in her terror and anxiety, great effort, she flew, rather than ran, himself the blank parts of the story. pressure of the atmosphere. When we stranger, Jenny jumps forward with a that she would fall ill, and in her delirium down stairs to the dining-room. Her Sidney, he thought, had married Stephen reach an altitude of 6,500 feet we have force almost sufficient to snap her stout Drain Pipes, Portland Coment, Vent Li betray the truth to Stephen and those has and's friend was there alone, stand- when her first engagement came to an below us one-half of the total amount of wire chain, but even her rival, a vicious

She was bending down hurriedly, look

the battle of life-her weapons of smiles | ly. " It can hardly be called even a they acted with utter disregard of self, the cold-that the keep at bay-yet stinct of fear that she will fly at the way to decoive the keen-eyed lawyer, whose gray eyes, kindly and almost compassionate as they were sometimes, Sidpassionate as they were sometimes of the following the first states of the following they are sometimes, and they was they were sometimes, and they was they were sometimes, and they was th his voice arrested her steps. "Mrs. Daunt!"

Her hands sank helplessly to her sides, lapse, and a terrible look crossed her He himself was about again. The wound ghastly face. Twice her pale lips moved though it had left a scar on his broad words came, and they stood looking at

CHAPTER XXII.

"You have read it?" The words came slowly and as it were unwillingly from Sidney's pale dry lips :

It was no wonder then that she avoided "And-and," she said breathlessly

"You would ask me if I understand the purport of your little note?" he said "Stephen," she said, "have you any gently. "Is not that it, Mrs. Daunt!" "Yes," she breathed, rather than ut-

"How can I answer you?" he said, with some heeitation, pitying her intense an "Many of her old friends have shunned guish, yet angry with her for the decepher since she has been in trouble," said tion she was evidently practising towards her husband. "The few words written not been supplied by the conversation at fore I conclude that the writer of the either.

Sidney's head dropped. She was calm- are saying. Why should I betray you to "What is her illness?" Lloyd asked, er now, with the calmness of despair. Stephen? I have no wish to add to your French candy is in this case. glancing over at Dolly as she sat opposite Doubtless all was lost. This man who had unhappiness and to his; it is sufficiently to him in her dainty morning dress of pale discovered her secret would betray her to great, Heaven knows! Mr. Greville is safe herhusband; it would be found that Frank from any interference of mine; but the course.' "A very common one," said Sidney, had been in the nesghborhood, and he risk he runs by coming here is a very suddenly looking across at him with un- would be arrested, and she whom he had great one, and his wisest plan is to do as ported." happy defiant eyes, "although some medi- trusted would be the cause! The thought he suggests here-go abroad while he has cal men will tell you that it is a myth-a | was almost unbearable agony. She raised the opportunity. And your wisest plan, her hands to her head with a little des- Mrs. Daunt," he added almost coldly, "is candy; do the ingredients come from "If medical men call it a myth, we in pairing gesture, and pushed back her hair to give up your desire of seeing him France?" in our profession are often forced to ac- from her forehead feverishly. The young cleared and to run no further risk. It is knowledge its existence," the young bar | man, watching her, thought he had never a wonderyour imprudence has notalready of Paris does."

seen a face so lovely in its misery, so mis- brought about the result you dread so

"Were no efforts made to prove his in- heard how cruelly and bitter'y Stephen More than once she thought of telling nocence? How did he escape punish- spoke; you see how convinced he is of as she went lest she should meet any of Frank's guilt. Even if he loved me-"By flight," Stephen said, breaking in | and you, who sees so much, must have

"He would help you-only ask him,

"I have asked him. I have entreated him to do so; but he will not. Ah, if you remember the circumstances you will not wonder at it!" she went on, with inseen of the unfortunate accused. And yet ford who did not sympathise cordially coased and passionate bitterness. "She on that rainy October day on which with his unhappy father and sister; was so beautiful-so beautiful, andand Stephen loved her-not Frank

She had striven to speak calmly; but a chair on which she leaned, she must have tried to soothe her distress; but her its light much of terrible change in the Dolly," he added abruptly, to change the could only look at her in amazement, and

"You don't understand," she said, "My costume for mamma's fancy ball striving to steady her trembling lipsstone unturned until his innocence was this morning, you will help me to look sudden fierceness-"she is the one who deserved to suffer; she was the cause of it all, not Frank, whose only fault was loving to his nature, which Sidney could not to get the pictures as to which she had account. But am I mistaken in the notion understand; and she found herself more asked Lloyd's advice, Sidney went to her that Mr. Greville, who was supposed, I than once in the act of recalling enigmati- boudoir, where she she was secure from think, to have eloped with the murdered man's wife, was engaged to some young

"No, you are not mistaken," she said

end, as so many girls married, for wealth and freedom, and, having these, she could tain. The hygrometric condition of the with impunity; and if I attempt to cence of the man she really loved, even changes. A fog, with its cold and damp, at once serves an injunction by grabbing though she believed him in love with an- will often be dispersed in a few minutes my shirt sleeves and uttering a sort of other woman. Young as Lloyd Milner was by a whiff of warm air. Local cases may, coughinggrunt. She has the boldness of her ing under the table, and she did not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the however, render to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experience of the how to not see he had had a large experien the curious look he gave her.

world, and he knew something of the than others of the strangeness of womankind—how often the Great St. Bern ont complain of altruism so entirely supersede the inand just in the opposite manner to that in they suffer so my from rheumatism threat of a deer-hound or any similar NIBIO RAWBONE & CO Shestood up eagerly glancing at the bit | which they might have been expected to act. | caused by the clouds that roll almost con- | brute, who she would hardly dare to defy That Sidney was terribly unhappy he did stantly round the Hospice, that after a in defense of her personal rights. Judgriage with a woman whom he did not love wind, which comes charged with moisture he, "lived on an overhanging cliff, and no conjection with the old stand. Note change of ad-She was about to leave the room, when and who did not love him. And yet sure- from the north Italian plains. Health came some distance from their stronghold dress. Sand 6c for new ill. Caralogue. RAWBONE & Co., Shafter but ly he loved her ! thought the young bar- must be sought at a lewer altitude than early in the morning to the Kaffir mealie rister, remembering the few earnest words 8,000 feet. his eyes as he had stood by Sidney on his hisassistance,"Lloydsaidearnestly. "Mrs. Daunt. spare yourself any more pain and humiliation-for you must feel ashamed wildly, and you do not know what you

"It will not need much cleverness to She made no reply. Her excitement guess that for some time you have been was fading away now, and with it her in communication with Mr. Greville," he strength. She sank down upon the near-"Some disappointment, I suppose?" he said quietly. "For some days past I have est chair, breathing quickly, her pale lips unwillingly been forced to conclude that parted like a person in pain. Suddenly "Does your professional experience tell you had some secret which your husband Dolly's voice was heard in the hall withyou that a girl's trouble must of necessity did not share, and I was grieved to think out, and a gleam of terror crossed her likely to tell greatly on her health, but be connected with love?" Sidney asked it. Believe me, Mrs. Daunt, the course ashy-pale face. Lloyd made a slight reyou are pursuing can bring you only re- assuring gesture with his hand, and hur-"No, certainly not," he rejoined, with morse and trouble. To deceive a man so ried out of the room; and Sidney heard generous and true and trusting as Ste- his voice speaking lightly to Dolly, saysociation, I suppose. What is this particu- phen Daunt is can give you only remorse ing how long she had been, so long that at best. Why not have told him that you he had thought she must have been mak are anxious to do what you can to prove ing the sketches herself. Then came the innocence of Mr. Greville, and ask Dolly's sweet soft voice and gay laughter, forehead, evidently made with some his help? He can advise and help you and his again sounded suggesting an ad- blunt instrument. The body was taken and take from your shoulders a burden journment to the library. Then all was to Troy, when it was recognized as that quiet; and presently Sidney raised her-"Why not?" she echoed bitterly. "You self to her feet, and dragged her tremblremember what passed in this room half ing limbs up-stairs to her room to pre- Troy. an hour ago, and you ask that! You pare for her drive into Ashford to see Chrissie, shading her face with her hand

Mr. Milner had been pitiful, angry. Would it not be wiser to take his advice and give up this miserable attempt? But it was too late now; the matter was no longer in her hands; she could do nothing now-nothing, save suffer and tremble, what was to come.

(TO BE CONTINUED.

Why Mountain Air is Healthful.

degree centigrade.

The two great advantages of a mountain climate are the freshness of the air at the trial, and about noon an effort was and the intensity of the sun's action. The made to seize the criminals and mete out starp for their treatise on catarra.—Montreat second of these influences, as touching summary vengeance on them; but the ofthe human organism, is no less import ficers succeeded in averting the attack. ant than the first, for the solar radiation The result of the preliminary trial was penetrates our clothing, comes in contact the release of William. The other with the skin, and acts on the blood. A brother and father were remanded to few weeks' stay at a height of 3,000 or 4,000 feet above sea level brings back color to the pallid face and dyes the cheeks a healthy brown.

But young women, someting even countenances to the healthful action of her head off with an axe. cate and wholesome tint which comes of late hours and an indoor life. Where can who in the days before the big tunnel, wild black cattle, are apt to brave death used to keep the St. Gothard road free in the interest of a wounded comrade. from snow, and spent his life at an elevation of from 5,000 to 7,000 feet above the sea. Their complexions were finer ma baboon, who defends her fellow than that of any fashionable beauty who monkeys from all real and imaginary

A Good Word For The Turk.

This brings me now to a subject on their comrade off in safety, barking savwhich I must appeal to the public sense agely." With a similar disregard of of justice and fair play. I must protest personal safety the Javanese wild cows the word "Turk," whenever there is occa- the rescue of a wounded relative ; and "Mrs Daunt," he said earnestly, "I sion to mention any case of misgovern- the hunters of the selvadas generally find am an old friend of Stephen's, and, for ment, oppression, or cruelty in Egypt. It it the safest plan to shoot hogs from the his sake, I should like to be yours. Be- will probably surprise the reader very much river, as they come down the bank to lieve me when I tell you that nothing to hear that, speaking generally, there are drinks. In such cases only the stoutest but misery can ensue from any such de- few, if any, Turks in that country. If old boars will carry their bravado to the ception as this. It would be better-far proper inquiries were made about these degree of swimming after the boat, and better, to entreat Stephen for his assist- so-styled Turkish Mudirs, and Turkish once in the river, have, of course, no ance-he will not refuse you when he sees | soldiers, who are so often referred to in | chance against powder and lead. how your heart is set upon it-than to terms of indignation and opprobrium, it keep up this system of deception which would be found that they are mostly must be-indeed I see it is-so distaste- Egyptian natives, and although some few may have a dash of Turkish blood from "Do you think I would have tried it," a former generation as part of their inshe cried passionately, "if there had been heritance, they have nothing in common any other alternative? There is none. He with the Tuck, as he is understood in will not help me. He hates Frank, and, England, except their Mohammedan if he knew that-" She paused sudden- faith. Very different are those men to would be more free. She would, during believed that she had spoken, so harsh | ly in terror, afraid that she had betrayed those who serve the Sultan in the Euro-Stephen's long absences every day at the and changed, so unnatural did the husky to this keen eyed lawyer that Frank was pean or Asiatic Provinces, and it is un-"I think, if he knew how much his criminately confounded in name. Turks wife was interested, he would give her there were in Egypt in the time of Mehemet Ali. Their presence and service was the essence of his strength; and it Belial. was with their assistance that he built up and humiliated by this continued decep- his power, and was able to bequeath a tion of a husband whose greatest safe- principality to his descendants. It was Where Polson's NERVILINE is used. Comguard should be his trust and confidence | the policy, however, of his successors to in you. How can you betray themandhim? get rid of this Turkish element or reduce "I don't know," she answered drearily. it to a minimum in the government of give prompt relief in rheumatism, neural "I can only hope that the shame and hu- the Province, seeing in it one of the gia, cramps, pain in the back and side, miliation will kill me at last. You your- strongest ties by which Egypt is bound to and the hest of painful affections, interself have owned that a broken heart is not Turkey and consequently a great obsta- nal or external, arising from inflammatory a myth. I don't look like a very long-liv- cle to the achievement of that independ- action. A 10 cent sample bottle of Nerner nusband with studied caminess across away on her parened ups, and she could the breakfast-table, wondering if, as she only stand trembling, gazing at him with ed woman, do I? And my mother died ence which the heart of Said, as well as viline will give sufficient proof of its supyoung. And if you care for Stephen you that of Ismail, so strongly longed for. It eriority over every known remedy. Try would be glad to hear that he was free was a mistaken policy. The Turk, with Nerviline. Large bottles 25 cents; trial again," she added, looking at him with a his well-known fidelity and courage, was bottles only 10 cents. strange smile. "Shall I tell you how to set aside, and the Fellah, with his subtlefree him? Go and tell him what you know, ty, unscrupulousness, and cowardice came what you have discovered while he is in, leading to the advance of Arabi Pasha, still in ignorance of it. Tell him that the bombardment of Alexandria, the batthe wife he trusts and esteems-although | the of Tel-el-Kebir, and all the other evils he does not love her-is disobeying his with which the land of the Pharaohs is orders, is spending his money in an at- now again afflicted, and for which Eng-

> It Came From France. Confectioner-Remember that all the

New Clerk-How do you get it fresh? "Fresh? Why, we make it of

"But I thought French candy was im-

"Oh, no; we make it ourselves." "But, then, why is it called French

SHOCKING CRIME IN INDIANA.

A Woman Murdered and Decapitated.

Her Husband and Son Lynched. A horrible crime has been brought to light at Troy, Ind., by the finding of the headless body of a woman in a cistern on the farm of Peter Backer. The body was nude. The head was found in a thicket a hundred yards from the cistern. The daily bread of the next. body, which was that of a portly woman, weighing about 160 pounds, and of about 40 years of age, was yet warm when taken from the water. There was a deep gash below the shoulder blade, as though made with an axe, and a wound on the of Mrs. Stilwell Hindershot, who resided on a farm fourteen miles back of

"T. H. Hindershot." While the steamer Droillard was at Troy a search ative work. By druggists; warrant was procured and the valise opened and found to contain clothing of the victim covered with blood. Warrants were immediately issued for the arrest of Stilwell Hindershot, the woman's sundry Alpine stations that for every 143 of Mrs. Hindershot arose from her refusmetres of altitude the summer temper- | al to sign away the farm, to which she had ature of their mountains diminishes one a deed in fee simple, which the father and son wanted to dispose of. Several hundred persons were present

Tell City, saw the murdered woman's hus-

At 7 o'clock the mob at Troy took the eldest son out of jail and hanged him to a beam in the barn where the crime was committed. He made a confession that young men, instead of exposing their his father shot his mother and that he cut

> Altruism Among Animals. Nearly all creatures are ready to risk ourt.

Another peculiarity of mountain air is though at heart the young African is as the young African is a y the relatively little moisture which it affectionate as a lap-dog. She has eleccontains. As we go higher the humidity tive affinities, and if her next relative, an vapor our atmosphere is estimated to con- old bonnet macaque, can not be teased gardens. often have I seen a young one run into by Hopeful or Crafty (his sleuthhounds), when the old males have instantly come to the rescue and carried

The Bex Tree. The box tree, from sections of whose trunk the blocks for engravers are made. is found in marketable quantities on the shores of the Mediterranean. It grows very slowly, and seldom reaches more than twenty feet in height, and the pieces in commerce are seldom more than five inches in diameter. The increase of illustrations is said to be causing a rise in the cost, and we may expect soon to have a substitute which the engravers will de nounce as the invention of the sons of Pain Cannot Stay posed of the most powerful pain snbduing remedies known, Nerviline cannot fail to

A movement has been started amongst the Irish National League societies to extend an invitation to a deputation of Irish American leaders to visit Ireland

The Summer is Come.

The birds with us once more. Nature temp; to clear the man who was his rival land will in history be made to bear the garbed in the brightest green brings joy for Sibyl Neil's love; tell him that he has onus and the disgrace, unless by follow- to those who hate the cold and dreariness to do so? he replied, with a soupgon of in- Mrs. Daune, had a clue to their meaning been in the neighborhood, that his wife ing the spirit of the national proclivities of winter. But summer brings with her has met him by night and by day; betray and tastes she stops in time and retrieves many other things beside green fields and us to him, so that he may put the officers her fair name by generously admitting the singing birds. Corns sprous and grow of justice on Frank's track; and on the errors so far committed and by at once just as if mother earth had a share in "I cannot help gleaning that the day you do so," she added firmly, with a adopting the remedy which will bear out nurturing them, and no person wants ief in Frank Greville's guilt.

'Chrissie' spoken of there," he went on, look on the beautiful face which startled while consistently acting with due regard and buy a bottle of the great and only sure home?" Dolly asked. "I thought she was the lady spoken of this morning; there- culty without any man's help, or woman's to her acknowledged just interests.— corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. A few days will relieve you of them. N. C. Polson & Co., proprietors, Kingston.

The Bible class-Clergymen. Young Men !- Read This. THE VOLTAIC BELT Co., of Marshall, Mich., offer to send their celebrated ELEC TRO-VOLTAIC BELT and other ELECTRIC AP-PLIANCES on trial for thirty days, to men)young or old) afflicted with nervous debility, loss of vitality, and all kindred troubles. Also for rheumatism, neuralgia, paralysis, and many other diseases. Complete restoration to health, vigor and manhood guaranteed. No risk is incurred as thirty days' "Well, I don't know; maybe the plaster trial is allowed. Write them at once for illustrated pamphlet free.

Any Small Boy, with a Stick, can kill a tiger, -if the tiger happens to be found when only a little cub. So consumption, the deadliest and most feared of diseases in this country, can asuredly be conquered and destroyed if Dr Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" be employed

The ambrosia of one generation is the Dyspepsia, liver complaint, and kindred affections. For treatise giving successful self-treatment address World's Dis-PENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo,

Almost all the fall hats and bonnets will have a great deal of very bright color on "The play's the thing. whoreig i'll reach the conscience of the king." And equally true is it that Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" the original A neighbor of Hindershot, while in Little Liver Pills) are the most effectual means that can be used to reach the seat band. He also noticed a valise marked of disease, cleansing the bowels and system, and assisting nature in her recuper-

A silent partner-not a wife. Catairh-A New Treatment. Perhaps the most extrao dinay succes that has been achieved in modern science has been attained by the Dixon Treatment of catarrh Out of 2,000 patients treated during the past and live in suspense and terror respecting husband, and T. H. and William Hinder- six months, 1011 ninety per cent. have been shot, their sons. The old man and his cured of this stubborn malady. This is Lone the less startling when it is remembered it at son William were arrested and taken to not live per cent, of the patients presenting Troy. The elder son refused to come and themselves to the regular practitioner are defied arrest. An increased posse was other nover the patent medicines and sent after him, and he was brought to ail starting with the claim now generally One of the best qualities of mountain air, that which makes it so delightful to committing the crime himself, but says of hving parasites in the tissues, Air. Dixthe weary denizens of plains, is its fresh- his father and brother had nothing to do on at once adapted his cure to their ness, and the higher they go with it. The old man's testimony seems at practically cured, and the permanency is unthe fresher they find it. Swiss savants to throw the weight of the crime upon questioned, as cures effected by him four years have ascertained by observations made a himself and the elder son. The murder ago are cures still. No one else has ever atother creatment has ever cured catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple and can be done at home, and the present season of the year is the most favorable for a spendy and permanent cure the majority of cases being

A tough joint-an cpium joint.

Important. When you visit or leave New York City, save Baggage L'apressage and Carriage Hire, and stop at the GRAAD UNION HOTEL, opposite Grand Central Depot. 600 eregant rooms nited up at a cost of one militon dollars, SI and upwards per day. European pian. Elevator, restaurant supplied with the best, Horse cars, stages and elevated railroads to all depots. Fammee can nive better for less money at the Grand Union cured at one treatment. Surferers should correspond with Messrs. A. H. DIXON & SUN, 305

OHRENOLOGY. EXAMINATIONS GIVEN BY WALLACE MASON, at 362 Youge et., Toronto. ONE HUNDRED ACKES-TOWNSHIP ELDON, lot 4, Concession 1st; choice land, good buildings' orenard, and teneing. G. S. KING, Cannington. ORAND OPPORTUNITY FOR A FARMER RE tiring and able to command from $12,000 to $20,000. faced, dark-eyed Urner Strassenmann, baboons and wild hogs, and sometimes compact. W. Hamilton, 231 Faibot street, London. such rental as will give good interest on investment and as Toronto Exhibition. Agents wanted KENYON, TINGLEY, a STEWART M'FG. CO., Lloyd Milner was silent then. Sorry ever reigned in a ball room or shone at a danger with a promptness of action that sion. Money loaned on all kinds of real estate at lowest rates of interest. Application for money from farm-

W. & F. P. Currie & Co.

Chimney Tops, Canada Cement, Vent Linings, Water Lime, Flue Covers, Whiting, Fire Bricks, Plaster of Paris, Fire Clay,
Borax, Roman Cement, China Clay Manufacturers of as cheap. We have removed from Yonge St., and have Improved, works without whiffletrees. Cool, light and durable, much easier on man and teams. This harness is a specialty in orchards, as no tress can be injured; working qualities guaranteed. Price $10.

Territory for sale in United States and Canada.

J B Dewey & Co. COLBORNE, ONE.

MENWANTED.

Active pushing men wanted to whole-ale my Tamous teas to consumers. Salary from $600 to $2000 per year.

Send stamp for particulars. JAMES LAUT, Importer, Toronto. II. WILLIAMS.

SLATE AND FELT ROOFER. Manufacturer and Dealer in Tarted Felt, Roofing Pitch, Building Paper. Carpet Felt, de., at lewest Prices. 4 ADELAIDE ST. EAST. - TORONTO.

F. E DIXON & CO. Leather Belting 70 King Street, East, Toronto. Large double Driving Belts a specialty. Sen

for Price Lists and Discounts

Allan Line Royal Mail Steamships. Sailing during winter from Portland every Thursday and Halifax every Saturday to Liverpool, and in summer rom Quebec every Saturday to Liverpool, calling at Londonderry to land mails and passengers for Scotland and Ireland. Also from Baltimore via Halifax and St. John's N. F., to Liverpool fortnightly during summer months. The steamers of the Glasgow lines sail during winter be tween Portland and Glasgow, and Boston and Glasgow alternately; and during summer between Quebec and Glasgow and Boston and Glasgow every week.

For freight, passage, or other information apply to A. Schumacher & Co., Baltimore; S. Cunard & Co, Halifax : Shea & Co., St. John's N. F.: Wm. Thomson & Co., St. John, N. B.; Allan & Co., Chicago; Leve & Alden, New York; H. Bourlier, Toronto; Allans, Rae & Co., Quebec ; H A. Alian Portland, Boston Mon-will supply two year old vines of NIAGARA.

Two Dollars Lach. Agents wanted, apply to D. W. Beadle,

ST. CATHARINES.

Running in connection with the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada. Sailing from Quebec every Saturday, 'Oregon. ect. 25 Brooklyn, Vancouver Nov. 1 | Teronto, Rates of passage: Cabin, Quebec to Liverpool $50

$60, $65, $80. Return, $90, $108, $117, $144, according to steamer and berth. Intermediate $35, Steerage, at lowest rates. The saloons and staterooms in steamers marked thus: * are amidships, where but little motion is felt, and no castle or sheep are carried on them. For further particulars apply to any Grand Trunk Kailway Agent or local agents of the Company, or to

DAVID TORRANCE & CO., General Agents, Montre THE MODEL

$ 1000.00 EBWARD FOR ITS SUPERIOR duce. No rubbit g required, no friction to injure the 10 year old girl can do the wathing as well as To place it in every household THE PRICE HAS BEEN REDUCED to $2 to, and if not found satisfactory, money refunded. See what the "Canada Presbyteriar," says about it—The Model Washer and Bleacher which Mr. C. advantages. It is a time and laber saving machine

AGENTS WANTED. TORONTO BARGAIN HOUSE,

THE BEST, THE STRONGEST, THE MOST RELIABLE

Enrivalled in material, construction and finish, per et in accuracy and unequalled in durability. Guar steed to give entire satisfaction. THEY EXCEL ALL OTHERS. LAILROAD. WAREHOUSE AND MI THUES. Mills' Alarm Money Drawers.

BEND FOR ILLUSTRATED PRICE LINE. JURNEYS & WARE

GURNEY'S STOVES!

GRAND DUCHESS, COAL AND WOOD RANGE,

WITH OR WORSET GVEN. COAL AND WOOD COOK. FOR SALE BY STOVE DEALERS HERE.

WILLIAMS NEW

NORTH-WEST,

High Arm Machine is now recognized as Sewing Machine of the Period.

It is Light and Easy to run. Silent and Rapid in movement

Plain and Simple to learn! It is strong, durable, and well bullt, the very best material that money can buy or skill produce.

first prizes at the Dominion Exhibition last October. It is rapidly superseding all the old fashioned makes everywhere. See it try it, buy it, and make sure that you get it,

It was awarded five medals and three

THE WILLIAMS' MFG CD.

1783 Notre Dame St., Montreal, and King St., West, Poronto.