The Inauguration of The City Store.

Is an event which has evoked more comment in the Midland Counties than any other of modern times-it has become a synonym for all that is great and grand, whose fame is a familiar theme, and whose dazzling deeds are "EMBALMED IN POETRY." Its chief ruling spirit for inventing the ways and means of supplying their patrons with the actual ne-Takes much pleasure in informing the people of Fenelon Falls and surrounding cessaries of life at Lower Prices in many cases than the actual cost of production, and the undertaking of stupendous schemes to that end, has made it a part of the history of the country, and is a further proof that an effect without a cause is an impossibility. To all true hearted patriots of economy we therefore appeal, and ask you to look at the verdict of the people who have been instrumental by their liberal patronage and confidence in placing The City Store on the top pinnacle of success. We would therefore ask those who are not our patrons to consider why it is that our business has grown to such gigantic proportions within the short space of four years.

Don't you think Low Prices and Quality combined have something to do with it?

Dou't you think the largest and most varied assortment of the newest and latest novelties is an incentive? Don't you think our One-Priced Cash System of dealing alike with old and young inspires confidence? Don't you think our thorough business system throughout, the entire store, combined with courtesy and politeness to all, is an inducement to call again? Don't you think our system of zealously endeavouring to give satisfaction and correcting an error is worthy of being encouraged? Don't you think our efforts and zeal towards securing our stock direct from manufacturers, thereby guaranteeing the lowest possible prices under all circumstances, is worthy of consideration on our part? When the above is carefully considered, and you conclude, as every fair-minded person must, that energy, undaunted zeal, prudence, foresight, and a perfect knowledge of the business, earnestly, truthfully and honestly applied, with tact, enterprise and a determination to succeed, you will take a large hearted view of the situation and pay us a visit, examine our goods and prices, and experience why it is that there is such a wholesale growth of public opinion in favor of THE CITY STORE.
