Trent Valley Canal.

Every item of news, past, present, or to come, in connection with the Trent Valley Canal, must be of interest to those who expect so much improvement to the country from its completion. It appears, then, from a number of the St. Catherine's Journal of 1835, (61y years ago,) that among the measures laid before Parliament, which sat at Toronto, there was a bill for "Navigation of the Trent." The Hon. W. H. Merritt, the projector of the Welland Canal, was also the father of this measure. A large sum was voted, considering the resources of the country at that time, for the opening of the Trent navigation. A good deal of work was done on it the following year, 1836. On the breaking out of the rebellion in 1837 the work was stopped, and the unexpended part of the grant employed in the suppression of that unfortunate uprising. Mr. Merritt became so much engaged with the general development of the country and construction of the Welland Canal in particular, that he practically forgot the Trent waters. The scheme lay in abeyance some years until revived by the late Sheriff Conger of Peterborough. Whilst the great North-West was held by the Hudson's Bay Company, one vessel annually was sufficient to carry all the fur harvest to England, and by proper timing, through the very difficult navigation of Hudson's Bay; and the necessity for the opening of this magnificent water-way was not felt then as it is now, and will be in the future, when millions on millions of bushels of grain from that country will require outlets to the seaboard. The original Welland Canal was only a ditch for small boats. Part of the original canal at Merritt is shown to compare with the magnificent works that exist there now. The Welland Canal is twenty-five miles long, with no natural facilities for its construction. It was carried over a rocky mountain, and had other engineering difficulties to contend with such as do not exist on the Trent waters. The canal requires a feeder from Grand River nearly as long as the canal itself. For many years the canal has required the assistance of the Welland railway, which was built on purpose to carry its surplus traffic. Whoever lives fifty years hence at the city of Fenelon Falls, will no doubt be showing to strangers what we consider our magnificent locks as toys compared with what will then exist.

Uttering a Forged Note.

Last Tuesday Thomas and Robert Smith, sons of Mr. Malcolm Smith, of Somerville, came to Fenelon Falls on a swindling expedition, and managed, before they left for parts unknown, to obtain $30 from Mr. William Campbell. Though raised in the township mentioned, and few in the village recognized them, as one had recently returned from the States, and the other, who has also been away from home, had disguised himself by dyeing his mustache. Robert, the younger, who is about 25 years old, had in his possession a note of hand for $95.75, purporting to have been made by Mr. Benjamin Smith (a brother of Malcolm's) on the 15th of January inst., and payable three months after date to George Shaw or order. This note he offered to sell at a considerable shave to two or three parties, and finally went to Mr. Campbell, who had no recollection of ever having seen him before. Representing himself to be Shaw, he said that he had sold a horse to Mr. Smith and had got the note in payment; that he wanted to dispose of it; and that if Mr. Campbell would buy it he would allow him a shave and would also purchase a suit of clothes. Mr. Campbell declined, but said that he could have his measure for the clothes, which would be made in a week, and that in the meantime he (Mr. C.) would make enquiries, and if the result was satisfactory would give full value for the note, as it had only a short time to run and drew eight per cent. interest. Smith then said that he had pressing need for $25 at home, and would leave the note as security for that sum if Mr. Campbell would let him have it. This offer not being accepted, the man was about to leave the store, but suddenly turned and said: "If I bring a son of Malcolm Smith's to tell you who I am, will you let me have the $25?" and, receiving an affirmative answer, he went out and soon returned with his brother Thomas, who told Mr. Campbell that he knew the other quite well, and that he was George Shaw, son of Mr. James

Shaw of the Gaiway road. Having given this information he left, and Mr. Campbell immediately counted out the stipulated amount of money, to which he added another five dollars at the urgent request of Smith, who signed the name of George Shaw to a receipt for $30 on the back of the note. Next morning Mr. Benjamin Smith drove through the Falls with a load of grain on his way to Lindsay, and upon being questioned by some person who had heard of the transaction he said that it was a forgery. Mr. Campbell did not hear of Mr. Smith's presence in the village in time to see him, but he took the train to Lindsay and met him there, and afterwards communicated with the county attorney and the police. It has since been ascertained that Thomas and Robert Smith, after getting the money, went towards Lindsay as far as the residence of Mr. Hall, whom they hired to drive them to Lindsay, where they put up at the Daly House, and probably left by the early train on Wednesday, as they mysteriously disappeared. It is thought that some person yet unknown drew up the note, as the writing was much better than that of either of the Smiths. Efforts are of course being made to capture them, but with small hopes of success.

The Great Carnival.

Thousands upon thousands of people from all parts of the continent are going to the Montreal Carnival at the end of January. We hear the Montreal Daily Star is bringing out a magnificent carnival number, something that will eclipse in artistic merit and absorbing interest every illustrated paper heretofore issued in this country. It will have the attack on the ice-palace and defence by the garrison in all its magnificent pomp and brilliancy; the tobogganing fete in its true natural beauty; the Ice-Condor after the Egyptian models, inaugurated with electric and pyrotechnic illuminations; the mammoth ice-land (British); the great sleigh drive, embracing thousands of superb equipages, and probably the grandest thing of the kind of modern times; fancy dress entertainments, true to nature; and a magnificent inset-palace of the ice palace in tint—a fine picture for framing. It will be remembered that there was a tremendous furore over the last year's carnival number of the Montreal Star, the issue running up near a quarter of a million. It is said this year's number will be far ahead of last. The artists are Bengough, Julian, Harris and Haber. The writers, Geo. Murray, John Reade, Dr. Beers, "Admiral" Murray, and W. H. Turner. Grip sends for production in the Carnival Star a double page which is said to be the most side-splitting cartoon ever published in this country. Fifteen cents in stamps sent to the publishers, Graham & Co., Montreal, will secure a copy of what is said to be the greatest illustrated paper ever issued in this country.

At Cost.—Mr. Regan brought up a change of his advertisement on Friday, which of course was too late for this week's Gazette. He announces a great clearing sale of winter goods, all of which will positively be sold at cost to make room for spring importations.

Dr. E. A. Herriman has returned from the North-West and resumed the practice of his profession in Lindsay. He will be found at his old office on Cambridge St., ready to attend all calls. Lindsay, January, 1885. 47-4.

MACHINERY.—Several sleigh loads of heavy machinery for the new grist mill arrived this week, and we (being extraordinarily busy) asked one of the proprietors to jot down some information concerning it; but as he failed to do so we are minus a good item.

SOIREE.—A Presbyterian soiree is to be held in Ingram's hall on the evening of Thursday, the 29th inst. Tea will be served from 4 to 8 p. m., after which address will be delivered by several reverend gentlemen. Good music will be furnished by an efficient choir. Tickets for adults, 25 cents; for children under 12 years of age, 15 cents. For further particulars see bills.

SKATING CARNIVAL.—There is to be a skating carnival on the new rink in Fenelon Falls on the evening of Tuesday next, the 27th inst.; admission 25 cents—children under 12 years of age 15 cents. The proprietors of the rink will spare no pains to have it in first-class order, and we have no doubt that the costumes—though the notice is rather short—will be well worth seeing.

THRESHING MACHINE ACCIDENT.—

Last Saturday Henry Pearn, son of Mr. Joseph Pearn, of Cameron Point, was engaged threshing clover at Mr. Joseph Moynes's in Fenelon, and while oiling some of the gearing his mitt was caught between two cog-wheels, which drew in his left hand, and lacerated the second and third fingers so badly that they had to be amputated, and Dr. Wilson performed the operation.

FENELON FALLS RACES.—The 8th annual meeting of the Fenelon Falls trotting association is to be held on the ice on Cameron lake on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 10th & 11th of February, and posters giving full particulars have already been issued. The handsome sum of $325 is to be given in prizes, and it is to be hoped that some good horses will be here to compete for them, and that we shall see good sport.

THE SALVATIONISTS.—The Salvation Army opened fire in the Falls on Friday evening, and, being a novelty, of course drew a big crowd together, Ingram's hall being crammed as full as it could hold and scores being unable to get in. The music and singing on the streets were very pleasing; but the prayers in the hall were nearly as much alike as if they had all been cast in the same mould, and consequently soon became monotonous.

THE BOBBAYGON CARNIVAL.—Notwithstanding that last Wednesday evening was frightfully cold, a considerable number of persons went from the Falls to the skating carnival at Bobbaygon, which, though not quite equal to the one about to be held at Montreal, was well worth driving many miles to see. The Independent remarks, with perfect truthfulness, that many of the best costumed and best skaters were from Fenelon Falls, especially mentioning Mrs. Aylmer of this village. It also says that our brass band, which also went, was "a treat in itself," and this statement is as true as the other.

A Sad Story.

HAMILTON, Jan. 19.—The following sad story was told by a respectable-looking man who appeared at the Police Court this morning charged with vagrancy:—"I never had such a hard time in my life as I have experienced this season. About three months ago I came out from the old country, deluded by the stories of plenty of work and good times. Since my arrival I have not been able to get a hand's turn to do. I am an ordinary mechanic. Ten years ago I was brought out from England to place the machinery in the Dundas Cotton Mills; three years ago I crossed the ocean to discharge a like duty at the Ontario Cotton Mills here. I am not a man who drinks. The fact of my being in the cells is voluntary on my part. I charged myself with vagrancy, because I could get no employment throughout Ontario."

120 Miles on Steerback.

Oxen can be readily trained to be governed by a bridle and to carry a rider. When a boy had an ox broken thus as well as a horse. This was of course done for the novelty of it, as there are plenty of saddle horses on the farm. The Fort Worth (Texas) Gazette gives the following: "An old gentleman named Jones rode from Oak Grove, 15 miles from here, to a neighbourhood 45 miles south of here, on Wednesday, to notify his daughter that her mother was dangerously ill. He did not ride a wild and untamed horse of the pampas, nor ride in a chariot, but mounting the hurricane deck of a two-year-old steer, made the trip of 60 miles in 16 hours. He started on his return this morning before the sun was up, his daughter accompanying him, riding a pony, while the old gentleman contented himself with his faithful bow. The party arrived at Fort Worth at 7 o'clock last night, and after some simple refreshments and a little rest proceeded on their way, intending to make the remainder of the journey by midnight, thus accomplishing 120 miles in 48 hours on steerback, a feat never before performed."—St. Louis Republican.

Damage by a Storm.

Port Hope and vicinity was visited on Friday night and Saturday by one of the most violent wind storms ever experienced in this section; it was quite equal to what is reported of a Manitoba blizzard. A good deal of damage was done in town and surrounding country. Several of the new stained-glass windows of the First Presbyterian church were broken by the force of the gale. One family residing in a three-story brick dwelling on Walton street were compelled to vacate their sleeping apartments during the night, because the windows were blown in. Buildings in all parts of the town suffered more or less. The Methodist church at Welcome had its roof injured by the falling of one of its chimneys.

Many barns and sheds in the surrounding country were unroofed. Mr. Israel Gochen, 5th concession of Hope, had a couple of large sheds entirely stripped. The iron roof of the life boat house was blown off. Trees and fences on all sides were laid flat. The iron chimney of the Midland work shops was also blown down. James Brown, 2nd concession of Clark, had four head of cattle killed by the falling of the roof of the barn in which they were housed.—Guide.

Immense deposits of gold and silver are reported to have been discovered in Georgia.

Nearly 2,000 Chinese gamblers and opium eaters were arrested in San Francisco last year and paid $27,000 in fines. Dr. Richard Dun, a Roman Catholic practitioner at Broad Cove, Newfoundland, was nearly killed on Wednesday by a mob. Faction fights have unsettled affairs greatly on the island.

One of the latest London absurdities is for the owners of little dogs to leave the dog's card with their own when they make calls. The cards are about an inch long and three-quarters of an inch wide, and bear the animals' names in full.

The First Fight.

THE SUDAN REBELS SMELL BRITISH POWDER.

LONDON, Jan. 21st.—It is officially reported that serious fighting has occurred in Egypt and that the result was satisfactory to Wolsley. No details have reached London.

LATER.—The battle occurred near Metemeh. Ten thousand rebels attacked the square, in which the British forces were advancing, several times, but were compelled eventually to retire. The rebels lost 800 killed and 800 wounded. The English loss was 65. Among the British who fell was Col. "Barnaby," who made the famous "Ride to Khiva."

The gravity of the situation in Egypt causes much excitement in England. The Lord Lieutenant has forbidden the circulation of the United Irishman, O'Donovan Rossa's paper, in Ireland. An anonymous pamphlet criticizing the action of the U. P. Railway Syndicate has caused great excitement in Montreal.

Towns and villages in Piedmont and the mountainous districts of France have been buried by avalanches of snow. Many lives are reported lost. A man in York County, Pennsylvania, has had his wife arrested for pouring a gallon of molasses on his head. He said he didn't want his taffy that way.

A scheme has actually been put forward at Ramsgate, England, to reclaim the Goodwin quicksands and fertilize them by conveying thither the sewage of Ramsgate through a tunnel.

The Turkish Ministry has resolved that Turkey shall not be permitted on any account to land an armed force in Egypt, and there are indications of stirring times in Egypt in consequence.

A Denver lady went to the theatre the other night wearing in her hair half a dozen live humming birds, which she had trained to sing between the acts for the amusement of the audience. A pious convict in the Philadelphia Penitentiary, where the system of solitary confinement is in vogue, manages to do some missionary work among his fellow prisoners by writing scriptural texts on the backs of immense cockroaches which wander from cell to cell.
