GREAT FUN HUNTING THE TIG.

But when the tiger begins to hunt you the fun changes, unless you are prepared for the change of events. And so it been with the Dry Goods Dealers. We have had great fun grinding bargains for our patrons out of the manufacturers.
but now that the supply is unequal to the demand, the fun is reversed in favour of the manufacturers.

THE CITY STORE,
with its usual foresight, is fully prepared for the emergency; and if you have any doubts about it, call and have them removed by viewing o'er the large piles of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, CARPETS, TWEEDS AND SUITINGS.

Inquire the prices, examine the goods and quality, and if you are a judge of value you will readily admit that we anticipated the advance, as our very low prices are a convincing proof. The Prints we are showing, the price beginning at 5 cents a yard up to 8, while our Steamlooms cap the climax for good value, and the Shirtings we are selling 12 1/2 yards for one dollar are surprising everybody. The price of Embroideries beginning at 2 cents a yard, and Apron Linen 14 yards for one dollar; while the better grades are equally good value and remove all doubts that the City Store acted wisely in behalf of their customers by laying in such an immense stock of handsome new goods, and notwithstanding the prevailing dull times in all branches of trade, our store is crowded to the doors. For this season's trade we commenced operations with renewed energy. Our stock will be more varied and extensive than ever, and our prices will be much lower than usual. The continued depression in trade has compelled manufacturers to accept lower prices than they ever dreamed of, and our entire stock has been secured at 20 below zero. To our many customers throughout the Midland counties we would say: Make your purchases as early as possible, as goods are rapidly advancing, and the large quantities of goods sold every day must soon clean out some of our cheapest lines, which could not be replaced within 20 per cent. of present quotations. We would be glad to see all our customers and as many new ones as possible at as early a day as possible.
