

FOR THE FARMER.

How to Raise the Calf. I will give the benefit of my experience in raising calves, for many years, and the best evidence I can offer that my system is right is that I have been fairly successful, having never lost but one matured calf in thirty years.

The Bursting of the Monsoon.

Life in India would be impossible without its monsoons, and the periodic approach of one of these great rain storms is always hailed with delight. The monsoon sets in generally towards the end of the rainy season, and sweeping up from the Indian Ocean and carrying with it the dense volumes of vapor, which slowly collect in dark masses of cloud as they approach the continent.

The Story of a Burglary.

There is a lonely, remote village in Derbyshire, remote from railways, which I used to know very well. There is a fine painted-glass window in the venerable church, which has underneath it the words, "Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings."

Eating Off Gold.

Mrs. Astor's supper to twenty of her intimate friends was given in New York on Monday night. On this occasion the famous service of solid gold was used. These yellow dishes are seldom brought out from the Astor vault. They cost $100,000, it is said, though I have heard the figures exaggerated to $250,000.

A Martyr for His Beard's Sake.

"Persecuted for Wearing his Beard" is the inscription on the tomb of Joseph Palmer, who died at the age of 84, at Leominster, Mass., in 1873. Palmer, in addition to other eccentricities, wore a long and flowing beard as a time when his religion was more smooth shaven.

Headless Officers in the Soudan.

Close observers notice a new type in this Nile Expedition—a class of officer very different from that seen in the old days. It is quiet, singularly well-mannered, and courteous, better bred, perhaps than the men who have gone before.

The Soudan.

The news from the war in Egypt is of such interest each day that a good map of the country is indispensable. We have, therefore, taken the pains to procure an excellent engraving of the very best map obtainable, so that our readers may be able the more easily to trace out the routes being pursued by the different divisions of the contending armies.

Feeding and Care of Swine.

None of our farm animals answer more quickly to, or yield more profit from good treatment, than swine; and, in many localities, none are more neglected than these homely, but useful animals. In the West, where they are run at large, and follow the droves of feeding steers, their management after they are weaned is very simple, but where hogs are kept in yards, and are expected to furnish mainly on skimmed milk, or the refuse from the kitchen, more care is necessary, and their wants must be carefully attended to.

Headless Officers in the Soudan.

Close observers notice a new type in this Nile Expedition—a class of officer very different from that seen in the old days. It is quiet, singularly well-mannered, and courteous, better bred, perhaps than the men who have gone before.

Headless Officers in the Soudan.

Close observers notice a new type in this Nile Expedition—a class of officer very different from that seen in the old days. It is quiet, singularly well-mannered, and courteous, better bred, perhaps than the men who have gone before.

Headless Officers in the Soudan.

Close observers notice a new type in this Nile Expedition—a class of officer very different from that seen in the old days. It is quiet, singularly well-mannered, and courteous, better bred, perhaps than the men who have gone before.

Headless Officers in the Soudan.

Close observers notice a new type in this Nile Expedition—a class of officer very different from that seen in the old days. It is quiet, singularly well-mannered, and courteous, better bred, perhaps than the men who have gone before.

Headless Officers in the Soudan.

Close observers notice a new type in this Nile Expedition—a class of officer very different from that seen in the old days. It is quiet, singularly well-mannered, and courteous, better bred, perhaps than the men who have gone before.

A Modern Craze.

Two young Englishmen, fresh from Oxford, visited Melbourne, the Australian city, whose growth rivals in rapidity that of Chicago. They were on a trip around the world to complete their education, and brought letters of introduction to a professor of the Melbourne University. The Australian colonists are like children with a new toy; they want to show all their sights to a visitor as soon as he arrives. The professor, therefore, immediately offered to show the young men round.

A Windy Day in March.

No portion of the year so tries the cheerful temper of the farmer as does the month of March. From childhood he has been told, and the simanca have repeated it in his mearner years, that spring begins with March. This idea has been so firmly fixed in the smanca's yearly disappointments have not dislodged it, but as each succeeding March comes round, he feels that it should bring spring weather and spring work.

Caught in His Own Death Trap.

Marcus Warner, of Shusham, N. Y., has been bothered by chicken thieves lately. A few nights ago he set a large steel trap at the entrance of his chicken coop. He also loaded a shotgun with powder and lead and placed it at the door of the coop, so that when the door was opened the gun would be discharged, and the intruder would receive the contents in his body while held in the jaws of the steel trap.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.

Mark Twain's Favorite Style of Reception.

Mark Twain, it seems, is a very congenial, moderate fellow, and likes a convivial time with friends. A few years ago a committee of newspaper men waited upon him and tendered some sort of entertainment in his behalf.