The undersigned respectfully informs the public that his new factory ON FRANCIS STREET, FENELON FALLS, turn out work at short notice, in the best possible manner and at moderate prices.

WILLIAM McKEOWN.

ECONOMY IS THE KEystone To SUCCESS,
And the Golden Motto is practically illustrated by those who patronize THE CITY STORE.

LADIES.
Fashions may come and go, but Black Silks remain essentially a lady's dress, especially when you get the Simon pure, warranted to neither cut nor gloss; and in the event of its being other than represented, you will be furnished gratis with enough extra to make waist and sleeves. There is no doubt that a handsome Black Silk brings out a lady's attractions as no other fabric can.
Take a nice day, a pair of bright eyes and peachy cheeks and a Black Silk Suit, and the combination is irresistible. Fair readers, reflect and purchase at The City Store; or, better still, purchase first and reflect afterwards. If ladies only knew how intensely becoming a fine Silk Dress handsomely made is, very few of them would be without that fascinating fabric.
CARPETS are another feature of our large stock, which is well worthy of consideration on your part. Some people say they are too poor to buy a new Carpet. Others again say they cannot afford it. Others again look upon a Carpet as a luxury; but all admit that economy is the golden motto of success. The great question then is, whether it is more economical to buy a Carpet or wear yourself and the floor out scrubbing, besides endangering the lives of the family with rheumatisms, colds and things. We believe all taxpayers will agree that it is better to buy the Carpet, particularly as you can buy one ranging in price from a 10 cent Hemp to a $2 50 Wilton, including all the different grades that come between, such as Brussels, Velvet, Tapestry, Saxony, All-Unions, &c. at The City Store. Ladies, whatever you do in the matter of Carpets, don't forget us when you want to buy.
English Oil Cloths and Linoleums cut to any desired size without extra charge for cutting.

HATS.
The 8th of April, gentlemen.
It is time you settled on the style of hat you wear.
It may be a matter of indifference to some what manner of head dress they put on, but it is not so with everyone.
As simple a thing as the fashion of a hat may make or mar a man's fortune. It is well, therefore, to take the chances when you can control destiny by promptly purchasing the latest styles, all of which are now in.
While thinking of hats, don't forget that we are the farmers' merchant tailors of Lindsay, where you can get style, fit & finish.
Gentlemen, take time by the forelock, and order your Spring Suit forthwith. Better spend a few dollars in a suit to prevent colds than many dollars in physic to make it well.
Waterproofs. No citizen, irrespective of politics, who values his health and comfort should be without a waterproof coat. It rains alike on the just and on the unjust, and the Christian with a blameless record is just as likely to get rheumatism and things as the anti-Scott agitator.
We have therefore provided a most extensive and varied stock of Waterproof Clothing and Umbrellas, and would earnestly recommend the purchasing public to make an inspection.
Waterproof Coats and Umbrellas are not a luxury; they are a necessity.
Haberdashery. Compare your chances with the other young men if you do not wear a good fitting shirt, the latest cut in collar and tie. The proper place to procure these articles is at The City Store.
