TO THE LADIES.

We would ask you to recommend your gentlemen friends and acquaintances to buy their clothing at the City Store, for the man or boy who buys his clothing here will never cut wood too long for the stove, never say naughty words while putting up the store pipe, never step on a lady's train, join a club, go down to the post-office after supper, and will always have the kindling in readiness for the morning fire.

GENTLEMEN

who buy their Clothing, Shirts, Collars, Ties, Scarfs and Underwear here will live longer, make more money, were better clothes, pay their rent more promptly, go to church more regularly, and marry prettier wives than any other class of men.

A gentleman writing us from Winnipeg, acknowledging the receipt of his new suit, describes his feelings as follows:—
DEAR SIRS.—Suit just received, perfect fit, satisfactory in every particular. I enclose $15 draft in payment. Donned suit this morning. Imagined I was walking on air, and dreamt that I had a diamond scarf pin, a sixty-five dollar suit and had just married rich. Impossible to get greater perfection in a suit.

Yours respectfully,

To Messrs. Sootheran, Cathro & Mark, Lindsay, Ont.

Seaside or Jersey Flannel

Is the latest craze among the elite who visit summer resorts and watering places. These Flannels are knitted and can be fitted to the form like a kid glove, and are specially adapted for ladies' costumes and particularly tight fitting basques, as they are of elastic texture—the patterns were designed by the American Art School, and for harmonious combination of Colorings are admitted to surpass anything hitherto produced by that distinguished body. We cordially invite every lady to call and examine the goods; they will please you and surprise you, and if you don't want to buy we will consider it a pleasure for the privilege.

PARASOLS.

Are a necessary evil, and those who go without one will get tanned as brown as a berry. We have just received a new lot of handsome novelties bought at a very great reduction in price, and will sell them at half the original price. The best is sure to go first.

REMNANTS.

We have about 500 remnants of Dress Goods and Prints, which we are offering at great bargains—none long enough to make a full dress, but all large enough to make something, a Polonaise, a Jacket, a Shirt, a Girl's Dress, or a Child's Dress; these remnants have received marching orders and will surely move at the price marked.
