HARD TIMES KNOCKED COLD
By the Hard-pan Prices of the City Store.

FURS.
The coming winter promises to be a memorable one. Intense cold is predicted, and it behooves the people of this district to be prepared. To this preparation a good supply of Furs is necessary. When the leaf season went out with our first parents they took to the skins of wild beasts, (that is, furs), and we fail to see that their descendants have improved on the costume. We would, therefore, recommend intending purchasers, to secure their Furs early in the season. Fine Furs are scarce, and prices will certainly not decrease as the season advances. Ladies and Gentlemen, whatever you do in the matter of Furs do quickly, as prices are sure to advance. The City Store is the spot to which you are directed to make your purchases.

Fall and Winter Millinery.
That the City Store is the leyeller is an admitted fact. That we keep the largest stock is another fact. That we keep the finest class of Millinery is an undoubted fact. That our prices are the lowest is a well understood fact.

Cloth Milliners and Newmarkets.
And Fur-lined Circulars, and all classes of Mantle materials and Ulster cloths.

MERCHANT TAILORING.
Our new stock of Foreign and Domestic Tweeds, Suitings, Trouserings, Vestings and Overcoatings are now to hand, and for beauty of design and elegance have never been equaled. The prices are fully 20 per cent. lower, while the range we are showing is double that of last year. We are offering two cases of all-wool Tweeds, the best value in America, at 50c., 60c., 75c. and $1.00, worth at least 25 per cent. more in the ordinary way. With such a complete assortment of handsome new goods, and beauty of style combined, with artistic cut and skillful manufacture of gentlemen's garments, we are, surely entitled to your consideration when in want of a new suit or an overcoat.

Ready-Made Clothing.
Everybody acknowledges that we carry the largest stock, and if that is so we must necessarily have the largest assortment to select from. We are in a position to give you some noble bargains in Ready-made Overcoats and Suits this Fall and Winter. The style and finish are equal to outside ordered work, and the low prices are astonishing everybody.

Hats and Caps.
In Hats and Caps we are noted for the finest and best goods, and our prices will speak in their own behalf. Gents' Furnishings, a very complete range.
